For the Union: Shri Parimal Das Gupta, Advocate.

For the Company: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate.

An industrial dispute between Messrs. Auto Cars, 53 Free School Street, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by the Automobile Engineering Workers' Union, 249|D Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, over the following issues, has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 4636-I.R.|IR|11L-285|61, dated the 27th July 1961.

Issues

1. Grades and scales of pay.
2. Monthly allowance and the period of apprenticeship of the apprentices including the subsequent absorption as semi-skilled or skilled mechanics.

AWARD

After service of usual notices upon the parties, the workmen represented by the Automobile Engineering Workers' Union (hereinafter referred to as the Union) filed the written statement on 3rd October 1961 duly signed and verified by Shri Robin Chakraborty described as the Secretary of the aforesaid Union.

Thereafter the employer, i.e., Messrs. Auto Cars, filed the written statement on 27th November 1961 duly signed and verified by the Manager of the Company.

The Company authorised Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate, to represent the Company in the proceedings before the Tribunal.

After completion of preliminary stages, the dispute was fixed for hearing on 27th August 1962. On that date both the parties filed a joint petition for adjournment on the ground that a talk of compromise was going on. The prayer was allowed and the dispute was fixed for hearing on 24th September 1960 in case there was no settlement affected between the parties in the meantime. The representatives of the parties verbally informed the Tribunal, on 24th September 1962, that an amicable settlement resolving the dispute had been made between the parties, and the petition of compromise would be filed on the next day. As such, the case was adjourned to 25th September 1962. On that date parties filed a joint petition of compromise including in it the terms of settlement. The petition is duly signed by the representatives of the parties. The terms of settlement appear to be just, fair and reasonable. I therefore accept the prayer of the parties. The dispute thus ends in a compromise. An award enclosing the terms of settlement, marked as Annexure "A", is made.

(hereinafter referred to as 'Company')

And

their workmen represented by Automobile Engineering Workers' Union, 249|D Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12 (hereinafter referred to as 'Union').

The humble petition of compromise by the parties abovenamed—

Most respectfully sheweth:

1. That the parties have amicably settled the dispute and agreed to the following terms and conditions:

(a) The Company agrees to grant an increment on the existing wages of the workmen at the rate mentioned below:

(i) Those who are getting wages between Rs. 0 and Rs. 60 per month—Rs. 12.50 nP. at a flat rate.

(ii) Those who are getting wages between Rs. 61 and Rs. 125 per month —Rs. 10.00 nP. at a flat rate.

(iii) Those who are getting wages between Rs. 126 and Rs. 200 per month—7½ per cent. of their existing wages.

(iv) Those who are getting wages between Rs. 201 and above per month—5 per cent. of their existing wages.

N.B.—In the case of daily-rated workers the monthly rate will be calculated on the basis of 26 (twenty-six) days per month.

(b) The above increment will be granted with effect from 1st September 1962.

(c) The workmen and their Union agree to accept the above increment.

(d) Two issues (i) grades and scale of pay and (ii) monthly allowance and the period of apprenticeship of the apprentices including subsequent absorption as semi-skilled or skilled mechanics are settled thereby in view of terms (a) and (b) above.

(e) This agreement will remain in force up till 31st December 1963 and thereafter the matter will be reviewed and reconsidered. It is further agreed that during the period when this agreement will remain in force no demand whatsoever in nature involving financial commitment save and except lawful claim for bonus will be made against the Company by the workers.

2. That the parties file this agreement before the Tribunal in order to dispose of the matter.

It is, therefore, humbly prayed that your honour would be pleased to make an award on the basis of aforesaid agreement and dispose of the dispute accordingly.

And for this act of kindness the petitioners as in duty bound shall ever pray.

AWARD

An industrial dispute between Messrs. Presidenc Jute Mills, post office Rishra, district Hooghly, an their workmen represented by the Bengal Chatk Mazdoor Union, 60 G. T. Road (East), post offi Rishra, district Hooghly, was referred to the Secon Industrial Tribunal by the Government of We Bengal by their order No. 5507-I.R./IR/7L-24/58, dated the 12th November 1959. During the pendency of that dispute Sarbashri Md. Munshi, Ahmad Hossain and Kanchaia Pasi, all residing at the Presidency Jute Mills Workers' Line, post office Rishra, district Hooghly, who were workmen of Messrs. Presidency Jute Mills, filed complaints under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act before that Tribunal on 27th June 1960. That Tribunal, as authorised by the Government of West Bengal notification No. 1916-I.R., dated the 13th May 1958, transferred the above complaints to this Court that very day for disposal. On the prayer of both sides all the above three complaints were heard together. So the present award covers all the above three complainants.

The complainants, viz., Md. Munshi, Ahmad Hossain and Kanchaia Pasi who were workmen of Messrs. Presidency Jute Mills (hereinafter referred to as the Company) were dismissed on identical charge-sheets, dated 28th May 1960, on the allegation that they along with others assaulted Shri Ashraf Ali, Line Sardar of the Weaving Department at about 9 p.m. on 26th May 1960 while he was going out of the Madrasi Gate within the Mill area, after reporting a failure of power in the labour line.

The complainants contend that the charge mentioned in the charge-sheets issued to them is false and false to the knowledge of the Company. They gave replies to the charge-sheets denying the charge mentioned therein. Thereafter a sham enquiry was arranged; but they were not allowed any opportunity to defend themselves. The charge-sheets and the subsequent acts of the Company were inspired by the intention of the Company to save Shri Ashraf Ali who and some others were arrested by the police for seriously injuring one Nagendra Prosad at about the time mentioned in the charge-sheets issued to them. The action of the Company has also a direct relation to the trade union activities of the complainants as office-bearers of the Rishra Branch of the Bengal Chatkal Mazdoor Union. So the complainants contend that their dismissal is unjustified. The Company contravened the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, as it did not file any application before the Second Industrial Tribunal, as required by the proviso to section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The Company, on the other hand, contends that it filed applications before the Second Industrial Tribunal, as required by the proviso to section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act; so it did not contravene the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. Hence the Company contends that the present complaints under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act are not maintainable. As to the merits of the complaints, the contention of the Company is that the complainants along with others in furtherance of a conspiracy assaulted Shri Ashraf Ali. So the management issued three charge-sheets to the three complainants. They submitted their explanations and thereafter the Company held an enquiry about the charge-sheet in their presence after giving them proper notice thereof. The enquiry, clearly showed that they were guilty of the charge. Consequently the management dismissed them from service.

I first take up the question whether the present complaints are maintainable. At about the time when the present complaints were filed the Company filed applications under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act praying for approval of its action in dismissing the complainants. The question whether those applications were properly made was raised at an earlier stage of the hearing of these cases. By my order, dated 10th July 1962, I have held that these applications were not properly made and that as such the Company failed to comply with the proviso to section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act. I have given reasons in that order for holding so. I find no reason to reopen that order and again hold that the Company has failed to comply with the proviso to section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act. Hence I hold that the present complaints are maintainable.

I now enter into the merits of the complaints. In the evidence before me the three complainants have denied the charge alleged against them in the charge-sheets issued to them. The evidence of Md. Munshi (P.W. 4) and Kanchaia Pasi (P.W. 3) is that at the relevant time they were seeing a cinema show at Jainti Cinema at Rishra. The evidence of Ahmad Hossain (P.W. 2) is that at the relevant time Ashraf Ali stabbed one Nagendra Prosad (P.W. 1) and thereafter Ahmad Hossain took Nagendra Prosad to the thana. P.W. 1 also says that he was stabbed by Ashraf Ali at the relevant time and that Ashraf Ali was sentenced to rigorous imprisonment for two months for that reason. The judgment of a Magistrate at Serampore (Ext. 4) shows that this is true; it also supports the evidence of Ahmad Hossain that he deposed in favour of Nagendra Prosad in that case. The conviction and sentence of Ashraf Ali were upheld by the Session Judge of Hooghly (vide Ext. 4a). The evidence of Md. Munshi and Kanchaia Pasi as to their alibi has been supported by P.W. 5 Shri Kissen Singh who says that he also went to see the same cinema show. Their evidence cannot be brushed aside as unworthy of credit. So the evidence adduced before me on behalf of the complainants raises a doubt as to the truth of the charge mentioned in the charge-sheets issued against them. But it has been repeatedly held by the Supreme Court that a court adjudicating an industrial tribunal should not consider itself as a court of appeal where a management asserts that it has dismissed its workmen on the result of an enquiry held by it, the first duty of an adjudicating court is to decide whether the enquiry has been properly made and whether the decision of the enquiry has not been perverse. Only when an adjudicating court comes to the conclusion that an enquiry alleged to have been held by the management has not been a proper enquiry or that the decision of the enquiry is perverse, the adjudicating court can consider the case to be at large before it and can decide the issue on the issue on the evidence adduced before it. In this connection the Lawyer of the Company has referred me to a decision of the Punjab High Court in the case of Ved Luxmi Flour and General Mills, reported at page 614 of L.L.J. 1961, Vol. II. There it has been held that the question whether the finding of a domestic enquiry is perverse or not has to be decided on the evidence recorded at the domestic enquiry and not on the evidence recorded by an adjudicating court. In the present case the complainants have contended that a sham enquiry was held in that they were not given any opportunity to defend themselves. The Company on the other hand contends that the enquiry was properly held. So the first point that arises for decision in this case is whether the enquiry was properly held. P.W. 1 Shri Dibyendra Nath Sen, Group Labour Officer of the Company, says that he was present at the enquiry, which was held by Mr. Anderson, the Manager of the Mill. He has proved the proceedings of the enquiry. The proceedings show that at the enquiry the statements of complainants were recorded, that witnesses on behalf of the Company and on behalf of some of the complainants were examined and that the complainants cross-examined the witnesses of the Company. It is true that the proceedings do not contain the signatures of the complainants. It has been noted in the proceedings that the complainants refused to sign the proceedings. The complainants admit this much that they were present at the enquiry; their grievances is that they were not allowed to state their case or to adduce evidence at the enquiry. The complainants have admitted the presence of certain persons at the enquiry; P.W. 1 is one such person. He says that the complainants were present at the enquiry and took part in it. Though it is difficult to believe the statement in his evidence that the persons present at the enquiry did not know on the date of enquiry that Ashraf Ali had been arrested by the police for assaulting Nagendra Prosad on 26th May 1960, there is no reason to disbelieve the other parts of the evidence as to the manner and circumstances in which the enquiry was held. O.P.W. 3 Ekbalmia is admitted by the complainants to be another person who was present at the enquiry. He also says that the enquiry was properly held in presence of the complainants. He has, however, said that he did not see Ashraf Ali at the enquiry. This statement is contrary to the proceedings of the enquiry (Exts. B and B1) and to the evidence of O.P.W. 1. It appears from the general trend of the evidence of O.P.W. 3, that he made the above statement on account of forgetfulness. So this statement does not show that Exts. B and B(1) are fabrications. It is true that the complainants wrote letters to the management protesting against the manner in which the enquiry was conducted. But it appears from the proceedings of the enquiry that they were again called and were questioned about their letters of protest. The proceedings show that they could not state anything in support of their letters of protest. Taking all these factors into consideration, I hold that the enquiry was properly held.

The next question is as to the decision of the enquiry. At the enquiry evidence as to Ashraf Ali stabbing Nagendra Prosad and Ahmad Hossain taking Nagendra Prosad to the Thana and as to the alibi of Md. Munshi and Kanchaia Pasi was led. The Enquiring Officer in his finding has given his reasons as to why he has believed the evidence adduced on behalf of the Company and has disbelieved the evidence favourable to the complainants. It may be that the reasons are not convincing to every impartial person. But it could not be held that the finding is based on no evidence at all. The Supreme Court in a number of cases has pointed out the distinction between a finding which is perverse as being based on no legal evidence and a finding which may appear to be not supported by adequate or satisfactory evidence. The Supreme Court has also held that an adjudicating court can throw awav a finding of a domestic enquiry only when it holds that the finding is perverse and not when it considers the finding to be based on inadequate evidence. As in the present case the finding of the enquiring officer is not pervers I cannot disregard it and hold that the case is a large before me. So I am unable to decide the issu on the evidence produced before me about th incident which is the subject-matter of the charge sheet.

The representative of the complainants has sough to assail the enquiry on the ground that the Compan acted mala fide in not taking any action agains Ashraf Ali, though he was convicted for stabbin Nagendra Prosad at the relevant time. But it mus be remembered that at the time when the enquir was held the case against Ashraf Ali was sub judice Ashraf Ali had not been convicted up to that time S there could be no question of the Company taking an action against Ashraf Ali at that time. It may b said that the Company ought to have taken an actio against Ashraf Ali after Ashraf Ali was convicte and the conviction was upheld by the Appellat Court. But here a distinction comes in. The Com pany issued charge-sheets against the complainant on a written complaint by Ashraf Ali. After th decision of the case against Ashraf Ali Nagendr Prosad did not make any complaint to the Company So the Company could not be expected to take an action against Ashraf Ali in the absence of an complaint by the aggrieved person who would hav been the best witness in an enquiry against Ashra Ali. Moreover the fact that Ashraf Ali stabbe Nagendra Prosad is not inconsistent with th complainants assaulting Ashraf Ali at about the sam time. In this connection the representative of th complainants has referred to a decision of th Supreme Court of India in the case of Punjab National Bank, reported at page 666 of L.L.J. 1959 Vol. II. But that decision has no bearing on the facts of the present case. He has also referred to a decision of the Madras High Courts in the case o Radhakrishna Mills reported at page 678 of L.L.J 1960, vol. II. In that case a criminal case was started against the charge-sheeted workman and the Court held that the action of the management in dismissing the workman without considering the fact of his acquittal in the criminal case was not bona fide. But in the present case the criminal case was started against the person at whose instance charge-sheets were issued against the complainants. So the facts of that case are not similar to the facts of the present case; as such that decision does not support the contention of the complainants that the action of the management in the present case was mala fide. So the fact that the Company did not take any action against Ashraf Ali does not show any mala fide motive on the part of the Company. Another ground on which the action of the Company in dismissing the complainants has been assailed is that of victimisation. The complainants have contended that they were dismissed, as they were office bearers of the local branch of the Union. But there is no evidence as to which posts or whether any posts in the Union were held by them. It may be true that they were members of the Union and that Ashraf Ali and some witnesses of the Company were members of a rival Union. But that does not explain why the Company should pick out the complainants out of so many members of the Union. So the plea of victimisation fails.

It has been argued by the representative of the complainants that according to the statement of Ashraf Ali he was assaulted by the complainants as they had a grievances against him on account of his trying to introduce "double loom" system in the Mill; but that motive has not been proved. It is true that neither at the domestic enquiry nor before me convincing evidence of the motive has been adduced. But non-proof of a motive does not mean non-proof of the incident alleged to have been actuated by the motive. As I have already held, the evidence adduced at the enquiry is not such that the finding about the truth of the incident is perverse. So non-proof of the motive beyond doubt does not vitiate the finding of the domestic enquiry.

In view of the above considerations, I hold that the enquiry was properly held and that the finding of the enquiry is not perverse. Hence I uphold the action of the Company and hold that the dismissal of Sarbashri Md. Munshi, Ahmad Hossain and Kanchaia Pasi is justified. As such they are not entitled to any relief.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an Industrial Dispute between the Islamia Hospital, 73 Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta-12, and their workmen represented by the West Bengal Medical Colleges and Hospitals Workers' Union, 52|7 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12. (Case No. VIII-51|62.)

AWARD

The above dispute over the issue given in the order of reference and reproduced below was referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 694-I.R.|IR|11L-56|62, dated the 26th February 1962.

Issue

1. Whether the dismissal of Shri Nurul Hossain is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

The relevant case put forward by the Union in its written statement is briefly as follows: The concerned worker, Shri Nurul Hossain (also called Shri Nurul Hasan in the written statements of the parties and in evidence) was an employee of the Islamia Hospital and served there for 13 months. Shri de Sousa, the Office Secretary, gave him directions for distribution of some letters and Shri Molla Jan advised him to bring the moneys deposited in charity boxes maintained for the hospital without going for any other work. Both the aforesaid works could not be done simultaneously and one was to be done after the other and the gentleman whose directions would not be given priority would certainly be ennoyed with the worker. As Shri Molla Jan holds a very influential and dominant position in the hospital, all workers usually give him priority and so did this worker, Shri Nurul Hossain, in the matter of the directions given by him and Shri de Sousa. This wounded the vanity of Shri de Sousa, who complained against him to the Secretary of the hospital and the Secretary, without appreciating that the concerned worker was between "the devil and the deep" sea, issued him a charge-sheet and found him guilty, in spite of denial of the charges, against all principles of natural justice and without giving him a proper hearing and without considering the letter of Shri Molla Jan to Shri de Sousa explaining the whole position. Shri de Sousa tore out the letter written by Shri Molla Jan without going through the same. No enquiry was held regarding the charge-sheet. The decision that the worker was guilty of the charges was basically erroneous and perverse. He was dismissed on the basis of this decision. In the aforesaid circumstances, his dismissal amounted to unfair labour practice against him and his victimisation. He is, therefore, entitled to appropriate reliefs against the dismissal.

A written statement has been filed on behalf of the Islamia Hospital. In the written statement, there is first a preliminary objection to the effect that the dispute referred to this Tribunal is not an industrial dispute but is an individual dispute, because neither the workmen of the hospital, nor any appreciable number of them are interested in the dispute. The necessary implication of this preliminary objection is that the reference itself is not maintainable in law and is without jurisdiction. After this preliminary objection, the written statement records the case of the hospital on the merits of the issue. The relevant case on merits is briefly as follows: The concerned worker, Shri Nurul Hossain, was engaged on a temporary basis some time in the later part of May 1959, and his duties, inter alia, were to collect the amounts laying deposited in charity boxes maintained for the hospital by different shop-keepers and marchants and to do all other works according to the directions of the Secretary of the hospital. For making collections from charity boxes, he was loosely designated as "Charity Box Collector". The work of making collections from charity boxes occupied only a very small fraction of his total working hours and this collection was also made only for a few days in a month. Shri Molla Jan is an Honorary Member of the Hospital Committee. He never interferes in the ordinary administration of the hospital and has no direct touch with the workers of the hospital. He does not hold any dominant position in the administration of the hospital. On 2nd May 1960 Shri Nurul Hossain had no work in connection with collections from charity boxes and there was no collection from charity boxes on that day, and Shri Molla Jan did not direct him to make collections from charity boxes on that day. There was thus no reason whatsoever for Shri de Sousa's being annoyed with this worker for giving priority to the direction of Shri Molla Jan. No letter written by Shri Molla Jan was delivered to Shri de Sousa and consequently, there could be no tearing up of any such letter by Shri de Sousa. These allegations are false. On 2nd May 1960 at or about 4 p.m. Shri de Sousa, the Office Secretary, ordered and directed Shri Nurul Hossain to deliver agenda papers of the Managing and Finance Sub-Committee meetings of the hospital to the members, but Shri Nurul Hossain did not carry out his order and this amounted to gross insubordination. Shri de Sousa made a complaint about this matter to the Honorary Secretary on the following morning. As such disobedience of the order of the Secretary amounted to gross misconduct, Shri Nurul Hossain was charge-sheeted on 3rd May 1960. Details of the charges were given in the charge-sheet. Shri Nurul Hossain submitted his explanation to the charge-sheet. An enquiry regarding the charge-sneet was held by a duly authorised Committee after proper notice to Shri Nurul Hossain. Shri Nurul Hossain was present at the enquiry and he was asked whether he had any further explanation to give or any defence to put forward, but he stated that he had nothing further to add to his reply to the charge-sheet. After holding the enquiry, the Committee found Shri Nurul Hossain guilty of the charges and decided that he should be dismissed from service. Accordingly, the Honorary Secretary issued a letter, dated 2nd June 1960, dismissing Shri Nurul Hossain. As another adjudication proceeding regarding another dispute between the hospital and its workmen was then pending before the Second Industrial Tribunal, Shri Nurul Hossain was paid one month's wages and an application under section 33(2)(b), Industrial Disputes Act, for approval of the action taken by the hospital against him was made to the Tribunal. This application was subsequently struck off after the Tribunal became functus officio. The action of the hospital in dismissing Shri Nurul Hossain was quite bona fide and was fully justified. There was no victimisation and|or violation of any principle of natural justice in the matter of his dismissal.

I first take up the preliminary objection for decision.

The dispute which basically relates to the dismissal of only one worker is, no doubt per se an individual dispute. But it is transformed into an industrial dispute if it is proved that it is taken up by workers of this particular establishment or a large number of them either by themselves or through a Union of the workers of this establishment or through a Union which is not confined to the workers of this particular establishment, but is a Union of the industry in general. When such a dispute is taken up by a Union of the particular establishment or a Union of the general industry of which the workers of this establishment or a large number of them are members, it may be presumed that the dispute has been taken up by the workers of the establishment or a large number of them and there is a collective and concerted demand by them for redress in respect of the dispute These principles were laid down in the case of Express Newspapers (Private) Ltd. [1959(I) L.L.J., 600] In the present case, the concerned Union which has taken up the dispute regarding the single worker covered by the issue is not a Union exclusively of the workers of this establishment, but is a Union of the industry in general as its very name "West Bengal Medical Colleges and Hospitals Workers' Union" clearly indicates. But mere taking up of the dispute by such a Union will not make it an industrial dispute unless it is proved that the workers of this establishment or a large number of them are members of the Union and the onus to prove this would lie upon the concerned Union, because the Union's case in this respect would fail if no such evidence is produced. This position was also laid down in the case of Express Newspapers (Private) Ltd. Let us now examine the evidence and see how far the Union has succeeded in proving that the workers of this establishment or a large number of them are members of this Union and are concerned in this dispute. P.W. 1 Shri Sushil Kumar Bose is the General Secretary of the Union. He has positively testified that the workers of this hospital are members of the Union and the Union took up the case on the representation of the workers of the hospital. As against this positive evidence of the General Secretary of the Union, there is absolutely no evidence on the side of the hospital to the effect that the workers of this hospital are not members of the Union and are not concerned in the dispute. The only witness examined for the hospital is Shri V. R. de Sousa, the Office Secretary. There is not a word in his evidence in denial of the positive testimony of the General Secretary of the Union referred to above. Of course, the General Secretary admitted in his cross-examination that there is a register of members of the Union and that register has not been produced. But this matters little when the position is that on the one side there is the positive testimony that the workers of this hospital are members of the Union and the Union took up the dispute at their instance and on the other side there is absolutely no denial of this position in the evidence. In the aforesaid circumstances, I accept the undenied evidence of the General Secretary of the Union and hold that it has been proved that the workers of this hospital are members of this Union and the Union took up this case on their representation. The sponsoring of the dispute by this Union, therefore, clearly implies that the other workers of the hospital are concerned in it and there is a collective and concerted demand on their behalf for redress in respect of the dispute. The dispute has, therefore, been transformed into an industrial dispute according to the principles laid down in the case of Express Newspapers (Private) Ltd. referred to above. The Government was, therefore, quite within its jurisdiction in referring this dispute for adjudication under section 10(1), Industrial Disputes Act, as an industrial dispute and this Tribunal is also legally competent to adjudicate upon it as an industrial dispute. In the above view of the relevant facts and circumstances, I hold that there is no substance in the preliminary objection raised on behalf of the hospital and the dispute as referred to this Tribunal is an industrial dispute and the reference of the dispute by the Government was quite legal and within its jurisdiction and this Tribunal must adjudicate upon it. The preliminary objection is, therefore, rejected.

I now come to the merits of the case. The ground of dismissal of the concerned worker was that he refused to obey the lawful orders of the Office Secretary, Shri de Sousa, for distribution of agenda papers of the Managing Committee and Finance Committee to some members according to a list given by the Secretary on 2nd May 1960. It is alleged that such refusal on his part amounted to insubordination and misconduct justifying dismissal. It is not disputed on behalf of the Union that some agenda papers were made over to this worker for distribution to some members along with a list of the members by the Office Secretary on 2nd May 1960, but it is contended that two or three agenda papers were short and in three or four papers there were no addresses of the parties and so it was not possible for the worker to distribute all the papers according to the list and for this reason he did not distribute the papers. It is also an undisputed position that on the next morning Shri de Sousa reported the matter to the Hospital Secretary Shri Selehjee, and the Hospital Secretary asked this worker to work properly. The agenda papers were, however, not distributed even on the next day. It is further an admitted position that a charge-sheet was issued to the concerned worker in connection with his alleged refusal to distribute the agenda papers and the worker submitted his reply to the charge-sheet. Exhibit A is the charge-sheet and Ext. B is the reply of the concerned worker. In addition to the plea that it was not possible for the worker to distribute the papers according to the list, because 2 or 3 papers were short and 3 or 4 papers were without any address, the worker took the further plea in his explanation that on the morning of 3rd May 1960 Shri Molla Jan, who holds a very important and dominating position in the hospital, asked him to go out for charity box collections and so he went out for the collection and when he came back from this work he was served with the charge-sheet. According to the hospital, an enquiry was held regarding the charge-sheet in presence of the concerned worker, who refused to cross-examine the only witness examined for the hospital, Shri de Sousa, the Office Secretary, and further to produce any witness on his side and after enquiry he was found guilty and accordingly a report was submitted finding him guilty and recommending severe punishment against him. The enquiry is said to have been held by a Sub-Committee of the hospital set up for the purpose by a resolution of the hospital Committee. Exhibit H is said to contain the proceedings and the report of the Committee. Exhibit I shows that by a resolution, dated 28th February 1960, the Managing Committee of the hospital appointed a Sub-Committee consisting of as many as 13 members for dealing with "appointments, major matters of disciplinary action and all matters of administration of the hospital". The enquiry in the present case is said to have been held by this Committee. On the other hand, the case put forward by the Union is that there was no fair and proper enquiry at all. It is first of all to be decided whether there was really any fair and proper domestic enquiry regarding the charge-sheet to the concerned worker according to the principles of natural justice. If it is found that there was such an enquiry, and after such an enquiry, the worker was found guilty of misconduct and was dismissed on that ground, this Tribunal will not be competent to go into the merits of his dismissal and it must accept the decision regarding his dismissal, provided it is proved that there was no absence of bona fides, there was no unfair labour practice or victimisation, there was no basic error or perversity and the finding itself was not basically wrong or perverse.

After considering the relevant evidence regarding the enquiry, I am not satisfied that a fair and proper enquiry was really held. The Sub-Committee, which was empowered to deal with major matters of disciplinary action, consisted of 13 members. This Committee is said to have held the enquiry in the present case, but there is no evidence to prove that all the members of this Committee, or a majority of them, or, if not a majority, a sufficient number of them, were present and took part in the enquiry proceedings. No original proceedings of the enquiry signed by all or even some members of the Sub-Committee have been produced. Exhibit H is not certainly the original proceedings. It is a typed copy signed only by Shri Salehjee on the alleged authority of the Enquiry Committee. No such authority has been proved. Shri Salehjee has not come forward to give Shri Salehjee himself has not come forward to give evidence in this case. O.P.W. 1 Shri V. R. de Sousa, the Office Secretary, is the only witness examined for the hospital and he has admitted in his evidence that the proceedings of the Enquiry Committee were typed on the next day and then signed by the Secretary, Shri Salehjee. This admission clearly indicates that Ext. H is not the original proceedings of the Enquiry Committee recorded during the sitting of the Committee, but it was prepared subsequently. This document, therefore, loses much of its value. The concerned worker, Shri Nurul Hossain, has said that the enquiry was held by the Secretary, Shri Salehjee, and after he made his statement, he was asked to go away, and no other witness was examined in his presence and he did not decline to cross-examine any witness of the hospital. In Ext. H, however, it is recorded that at first the Office Secretary, Shri de Sousa, made a statement and then the concerned worker, Shri Nurul Hossain, was asked whether he had anything to say regarding his insubordination towards the Honorary Secretary by not complying with his orders and Shri Nurul Hossain said that he had nothing further to say. It is further recorded that thereafter the Sub-Committee asked Shri Nurul Hossain to give his statement and to produce his witness, if any, but he said that he had nothing further to add to his explanation and did not want to produce any witness. The aforesaid proceedings shown by Ext. H are directly contradicted by O.P.W. 1, Shri de Sousa. He has said that Shri Nurul Hossain made his statement first and then he made his statement before the Enquiry Committee. This contradiction of the proceedings in Ext. H by the only witness examined for the hospital clearly shows that Ext. H is not a correct and bona fide document. On a consideration of all the above facts and circumstances,

I reject the contention of the hospital that a fair and proper enquiry according to the principles of natural justice was held regarding the charge-sheet to this worker.

After the above finding, the Tribunal must go independently into the merits of the dismissal of the concerned worker. I have already recorded above the undisputed facts regarding the occurrence of 2nd May 1960 and 3rd May 1960, upon which he was charged with insubordination and misconduct. The fact remains that some agenda papers were given to this worker for distribution in the afternoon of 2nd May 1960, but he refused to distribute them to the members according to the list which contained the names of the members. His reason for this was that some papers were short and some papers did not contain any address. His further case and evidence is that he was given a list of 30 or 35 names for distribution of agenda papers. The evidence of the Office Secretary, Shri V. R. de Sousa, on this point is that Shri Nurul Hossain was given a list of 15 or 16 names for distribution of agenda papers and he was given all the agenda papers according to the list except one for Shri Rashid Ali Dena, whose paper was kept back, because his address was not with him. So, according to his evidence, he was given all the papers according to the list except one. His further evidence is that Shri Nurul Hossain was told not to take any notice of the name of Shri Rashid Ali Dena for distribution of agenda papers and he was asked to distribute the remaining papers, but Shri Nurul Hossain refused to distribute the agenda papers on the plea that he had been given difficult notices to distribute. It is also the evidence of the Office Secretary that Shri Nurul Hossain took up a threatening and defiant attitude. After considering the evidence of the Office Secretary and the concerned worker as to what really happened on 2nd May 1960, I prefer to accept the evidence of the Office Secretary. There is absolutely nothing in the evidence of the concerned worker to indicate that this Office Secretary had any previous grudge or bias against this worker, who had been admittedly working for only about 13 months at that time. It also appears from the evidence that on the next day, the Office Secretary made a report, Ext. F, to the Secretary of the hospital. This report substantially corroborates the present evidence of the Office Secretary regarding the circumstances under which the concerned worker refused to take out the agenda papers for distribution, as directed by him. The concerned worker has admitted that on the morning of 3rd May 1960, the Hospital Secretary, Shri Salehjee, called him and asked him why he had not gone out to distribute the agenda papers on the previous evening. This confirms the report, Ext. F, made by the Office Secretary to the Hospital Sceretary regarding the occurrence of 2nd May 1960. The further evidence of the concerned worker is that after he gave his reasons for his inability to distribute the agenda papers, the Hospital Secretary directed him to work properly. But even then, the worker did not take out the agenda papers for distribution on 3rd May 1960 and his explanation for not doing so is that he was asked by Shri Molla Jan, an influential member of the Hospital Committee holding a very dominant position, to go out for charity box collection. Shri Molla Jan has not been examined in this case by either party. Exhibit D is the book of charity box collections made from day to day by this work I am satisfied on examining this book that on 3rd M 1960, this worker made a collection of only 89 n from a single box. The date above this collection written as "3. 4. 60;" but evidently, it should be 3 May 1960, because just on the previous page, the are entries of collections made on 30 April 19(This worker could not certainly have made collecti on 3rd April 1960 after 30th April 1960. Wl really happened was that he wrongly gave the numl of the month as "4" instead of "5" in writing the d "3. 4. 60". After considering all the relevant fa and circumstances proved by evidence, I do not s any justification whatsoever for this worker's refu to distribute the agenda papers on 2nd May 1960 a then on 3rd May 1960. Even assuming that two three agenda papers were short and three or f papers did not contain any address, there was reason why he did not take out the remaining pap for distribution and return the list and the undistrib ed papers with a report showing his reasons for r distributing some of the papers. His outright refu to distribute the agenda papers made over to him w not certainly justified and it obviously amounted gross insubordination and indiscipline. He w certainly guilty of gross misconduct in refusing to ob the orders of the Office Secretary and then of t Hospital Secretary in the matter of distribution agenda papers. These persons were executi officers of the hospital and he was bound to ob their orders. And upon the view that I have taken the reasons advanced by this worker for his alleg inability to comply with the orders, I must hold th under no circumstances was he justified in refusing distribute the papers that were in order according the list and his outright refusal to distribute all t papers was absolutely unreasonable and unjustifie About Shri Molla Jan, who has been alleged to be very dominant member of the Hospital Committe the evidence is that he does not hold any executi post, but he sits in the hospital and recommends fr medicines for poor patients and his recommendatio are accepted. This does not mean that he is a man such position in the executive administration of t hospital that the concerned worker was bound to ob his orders regarding charity box collections by neglec ing the office order made by the Office Secretary an the Hospital Secretary. In any case, there is n evidence to prove that Shri Molla Jan knew that th worker had already been asked to distribute agend papers, but he had refused. He might have aske him to make charity box collections in the usu manner. It was not certainly impossible for th worker to distribute the agenda papers as far practicable according to the list on 3rd May 196 even after doing charity box collections or befo that. In any case, there was absolutely no justific tion for his taking up a defiant attitude and refusi to obey the orders of the Office Secretary and t General Secretary in an insubordinate and indisciplin manner. He clearly flouted the authority of the Offi Secretary and the Hospital Secretary by refusing comply with their lawful directions regarding t discharge of his duties. He was certainly guilty gross misconduct in behaving in such fashion and f such misconduct, he certainly merited the punishme of dismissal. In the result, I hold that his dismiss was justified on merits.

On the above decision on the merits of the issue made upon the evidence produced before this Tribunal, I award that the dismissal of the concerned worker was justified and he is not entitled to any relief.

Judge,
Seventh Industrial Tribunal,

The 8th September 1962.

By order of the Governor,
S. C. MUKHERJEE, Asst. Secy.

No. 4488-I.R.|IR|14L-17|61.—3rd October 1962.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 5795-I.R.|IR|14L-17|61, dated the 3rd October 1961, the industrial dispute between the Commissioners of the Baranagore Municipality, Baranagore, 24-Parganas, and their workmen represented by 24-Parganas Zilla Municipal Workers' Union, 124C Dharamtala Street, Calcutta-13, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order being a matter specified in the second schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Fourth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between the Commissioners of the Baranagore Municipality, Baranagore, 24-Parganas and their workman represented by 24-Parganas Zilla Municipal Workers' Union 124C Dharamtola Street, Calcutta-13, referred under G.O. No. 5795-I.R.|IR|14L-17|61, dated the 3rd October 1961. (Case No. VIII-321|61.)

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri K. K. MITRA, Judge,

Appearances:

For the Municipality: Shri Nalini Das Gupta, Advocate.

For the Union: Shri Matish Roy.

Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by Order No. 5795-I.R.|IR|14L-17|61, dated the 3rd October 1961, referred an industrial dispute existing between the Commissioners of the Baranagore Municipality and their workmen, represented by 24-Parganas Zilla Municipal Workers' Union, relating to the issue as framed by the Government for adjudication by the Tribunal.

The issue as framed in the order of reference runs as follows:

Issues

Whether the termination of services of Bandhu and Budhan was justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

AWARD

Upon receipt of the order of reference, notices were issued upon the parties for appearance and for filing written statements.

The workmen represented by 24-Parganas Zilla Municipal Workers' Union (hereinafter be referred to as the Union) filed written statement on 13th March 1962, contending therein that these two workmen, namely, Bandhu and Budhan were not allowed to do their work from 25th December 1960 and that they had been charge-sheeted on 30th December 1960 on frivolous grounds. The two workmen submitted their explanations denying the charge and after that a domestic enquiry was held. The Municipal authorities afterwards informed these two workmen by letters, dated 20th March 1961, to resume their duties within seven days, but strangely enough, when they went to resume their duties on 23rd March 1961, they were not allowed to do so. After that, the Management issued letter of termination of service on 12th April 1961. It is contended that the termination of service was unjustified and mala fide.

The Commissioners of the Baranagore Municipality (hereinafter be referred to as the Municipality) then filed its written statement on 19th April 1962. It is alleged by the Municipality that these two workmen did not report for work since 25th December 1960 and after being properly charge-sheeted the Municipality held a domestic enquiry giving full opportunities for defence to the workmen concerned and found, as a result of that enquiry, that the charges had been established. The decision made by the Municipality, as a result of the enquiry, had been communicated to the workmen concerned and when they failed to comply with the direction given therein their services had been terminated. It is also contended by the Municipality that they acted bona fide against the employees in terminating their services.

After completion of the preliminary stages of the proceedings, the dispute came up for hearing on 3rd September 1962.

From the side of the Union, one of the concerned workmen, that is, Shri Bandhu, had been examined. The Municipality examined Shri S. K. Sen, the Health Officer of the Municipality (since retired), who held the departmental enquiry, and Shri N. B. Basu, the Sanitary Inspector, a witness examined at the departmental enquiry.

Besides a large volume of documents had been filed by the parties, in support of their respective cases, I shall refer to the oral and documentary evidence, as necessary, in course of my decision.

Admittedly, these two workmen Bandhu and Budhan were employed as Trenchers by this Municipality. It appears from the evidence that the Trenchers are required to perform their duties from 5 a.m. to 11 a.m. From the notification issued by the Government, dated the 11th October 1959, under the Minimum Wages Act (Act XI of 1948), it appears that the night-soil cleaners are to work for six hours including half an hour's interval for rest every day on the normal working days (vide Ext. B). It further appears that the Municipality issued a notice drawing the attention of the conservancy workers that they must not work under any other concern, without express permission of the Municipality and that such double employment would constitute serious misconduct on the part of the workmen concerned (vide Ext. A, dated 18th November 1959). The Chairman of the Municipality issued a circular to the Health Officer drawing his attention about the mode of execution of work by the employees, directing the said officer to strictly enforce the provisions in the circular (vide Ext. II, dated 12th July 1959). I am sitisfied from the evidence that the Trenchers who are included within the category of workmen night-soil cleaners definitely know from the circulars issued by the Municipality that they are to put in work for six hours from 5 a.m. to 11 a.m. and enjoy recess for half an hour. P.W. 1 Bandhu stated before me that on 25th December 1960 they came to perform their duties at 7 a.m. and they were refused work by Dulal Chaprashi, Homlal, the Departmental Sardar and Santi Babu, the attendance clerk. There is no controversy on the point that the two workmen had been charge-sheeted on 30th December 1960. Ext. 9 and Ext. 10 are the charge-sheets issued to these workmen. In the charge-sheet it had been mentioned that they were found absent from duties on the 25th and 26th December 1960 during the working hours and that they were found working in the neighbouring trenching ground of the Calcutta Corporation on those days. The sum and substance of the charge is that they failed to report to their duties on the 25th and 26th December 1960 and that they had been working elsewhere. The workmen submitted explanations to the charge-sheets (vide Ext.9|A, dated 3rd January 1961 and Ext. 10|A, dated 2nd January 1961). It is not stated categorically in the explanation submitted by the workmen that they were not working under the Calcutta Corporation. It was simply stated that they were not so working during the prescribed working hours of this Municipality. It was insisted by the workmen that the working hours should be from 7 a.m. to 12-30 p.m., in accordance with the recommendation of the Minimum Wages Advisory Committee. I have already stated that there is clear evidence to indicate that the working hours is from 5 a.m. to 11 a.m. The workmen, in their explanation, wanted to get a change in the working hours and obviously they had no right to do so. Clearly, a change in working hours would have given the workmen the liberty to work under the Calcutta Corporation up to 7 a.m. in the morning. The Municipality had already informed the workmen that they must not work under two concerns without the express permission of th Municipality and if they did so, it would constitut a serious misconduct on their part. P.W. 2 Shri N B. Basu, the Sanitary Inspector, stated that he held a local enquiry and found that these workmen had been working under the Calcutta Corporation. The learned representative of the workmen urged before me that the Municipality should have adduced evidence from the Calcutta Corporation to prove the allegation. The evidence on record, considered in the light of the circumstances of the case, clearly indicate that these two workmen had been working under the Calcutta Corporation.

There is no controversy on the point that a departmental enquiry against each of the workmen had been held by the then Health Officer of the Municipality and that Shri Matish Roy, the General Secretary of the Union, attended the enquiry. Ext. G is the original departmental proceedings which bear the signature of Shri Matish Roy and the witnesses examined and the charge-sheeted persons. It is clear from the evidence adduced at the departmental enquiry that these two workmen did not attend their duties at least till 7 a.m. on those days and that they were working in the neighbouring trench under the Calcutta Corporation. The departmental enquiry had been done bona fide by the Municipality with due adherence to the principle of natural justice. There is no evidence to show that the employer proceeded with a spirit of victimisation. The enquiring officer submitted his report to the Vice-Chairman of the Municipality on 3rd March 1962 (vide Ext. C and Ext D). It appears from the report of the findings of the enquiring officer that the workmen had been found guilty. On the basis of such a report from the Health Officer which was accepted by the Vice-Chairman of the Municipality, a further opportunity had been given to the workmen concerned so that they might give up their employment under the Calcutta Corporation within seven days from the receipt of that letter and devote themselves exclusively for conservancy work under this Municipality (vide Ext. F, dated 20th March 1961). There was a definite decision made by the enquiring officer that these workmen had been working under the Calcutta Corporation (that is, they were doing double work) during the scheduled working hours from 5 a.m. to 11 a.m which was clearly a serious misconduct according to the notification issued by the Municipality. The workmen, however, had been given a chance to give up employment under the Calcutta Corporation, as a matter of leniency shown to the workmen. But at the same time, in that letter Ext. F, which was served on 22nd March 1961, it was definitely made clear that steps to strike off the names of the employees from the muster roll could be taken in the event of non-compliance with the direction regarding severance of connection with the Calcutta Corporation. The case of the Municipality is that the workmen did not give any reply to the letters within seven days which was the time limit fixed for compliance with the direction given in that letter. The Union produced a letter Ext. 2, dated 31st March 1961, which appears to be signed by Bandhu wherein it is alleged that he went to resume his duties on 23rd March 1961. In that letter it was further mentioned that he did not work under the Calcutta Corporation during the scheduled working hours. Admittedly, the other workman, at no time, gave any reply to the letter of the Municipality, dated the 20th March 1961, asking him to give up his employment under the Calcutta Corporation. It is curious to note that even in the letter, Ext. 2, it was not stated by Bandhu that he would severe connection with the Calcutta Corporation. It was simply stated that he had not been working under the Calcutta Corporation during the scheduled hours. Admittedly, he wants to work at both the places and regulate his own time in the performance of duties under the two distinct employers. Obviously, therefore, there was no compliance with the direction given by the Municipality to the workmen concerned to let off connection with the Calcutta Corporation, so that they could devote themselves fully in the performance of duties under this Municipality. In this situation, the employer was justified in coming to the conclusion that there was no compliance with the direction on the basis of which the Authority could retain the workmen in service in spite of the fact that they had been found guilty of the charges levelled against them. Besides the letter from Bandhu did not reach within seven days from the date of receipt of the letter, dated 20th March 1961, issued by the Municipality. To my mind, it appears that the letter issued by the Municipality to these workmen on 20th March 1961 was a conditional order of dismissal, wherein a time limit was fixed for the performance of certain duties on the part of the workmen, in the default of which the consequence of dismissal was to follow. When there was no compliance with the direction given, the decision had been taken to strike off the names of the workmen from the muster roll (vide Ext. E). The Municipality then issued the letters of dismissal on the 12th April 1961 (vide Ext F/1 and Ext. 1).

It is urged by the learned representatives of the workmen at the time of argument that the order of dismissal of these workmen had not been approved in the meeting of the Commissioners of the Municipality. No such point had been raised in the written statement filed by the Union and as such the objection which is dependent upon establishment of certain facts cannot be entertained at this stage of the proceedings.

In the result, I hold that the termination of services of these two workmen was completely justified and that there is no reason to interfere with the decision of the Municipality as taken against these two workmen.

This is the award.

AWARD

This is an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, filed by Shri Sasthi Charan Chakraborty and others, employees of Messrs. Shree Biswanath Ayurved Bhawan (P) Ltd., against the said Company, arising out of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Shree Biswanath Ayurved Bhawan (P) Ltd., and their workmen in connection with Government order No. 5040-I.R./IR/11L-357/59, dated the 24th September 1960.

The above dispute was fixed for hearing on 26th September 1962. Parties appeared. Shri Purandar Misra, one of the signatories to the application, for and behalf of others, filed a petition stating that the dispute as contained in the application under section 33A of the Act, had been settled out of Court and prayed for withdrawing the application. The petition was also signed by Shri Panchanan Bhattacharjee.

In the circumstances, it appears that there is no claim of the applicants and hence the applicants may be permitted to withdraw the application, and an award is made accordingly.

RESOLUTION

No. Medl/12407/1H-232/62. — 25th September 1962.—Read this Department resolution No. Medl./3211/1H-261/55, dated the 19th October 1955, constituting a Visiting Committee for the Lady Dufferin Victoria Hospital, Calcutta.

The Governor is pleased to reconstitute the Committee, as shown below:—

President

The Commissioner, Presidency Division (ex-officio).

Secretary

The Medical Superintendent, Lady Dufferin Victoria Hospital, Calcutta (ex-officio).

Members

(1) Dr. K. N. Mitra, Hony. Professor-Director, Department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology, Medical College, Calcutta.
(2) Dr. Bibek Sengupta, Director, Chittaranjan Seva Sadan, Calcutta.
(3) Shrimati Santi Das, M. L. A. 29A Kailash Bose Street, Calcutta.
(4) Dr. (Sm.) P. Das, c/o. St. Paul's College, Amherst Street, Calcutta.
(5) Shrimati Mira Dutta Gupta, 40/1 Broad Street, Calcutta-19.
(6) Mrs. Gazdar, c/o. Dr. J. D. Gazdar, 226 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta.
(7) Shri Naresh Nath Mukherjee, 43 Old Ballygunge Road, Calcutta-19.
(8) A nominee of Nemai Chand De Trust Fund of the Lady Dufferin Victoria Hospital, Calcutta (to be notified later on.)

The manner in which the Committee will discharge its duties is as follows:—

The members will not visit the hospital individually; the Committee will form itself into groups of not less than three members, each group in turn will, according to a roster to be kept for the purpose, visit the hospital on a fixed day and at a fixed time in each month. In addition to these visits at fixed times the members will pay unexpected visits to the hospital. Members while paying surprise visit should on arrival at the hospital immediately contact the Medical Superintendent and in her absence her Deputy before entering the wards. If all the three members of the group are not present, the remaining members can go round without the absentee or absentees, as the case may be. The members constituting the group should inspect the internal arrangements and offer such suggestions regarding the administration of the institution as they think proper.

A visitors' book will be kept in the hospital in which the recommendations of the Committee will be recorded. The Medical Superintendent will note on the margin the action taken on each recommendation with any other remarks or explanations that she may wish to offer. She will transmit a copy of the entries without delay to the Director of Health Services, West Bengal, for consideration. The Director of Health Services will take such further action as may seem necessary and will bring to the notice of Government any matter which he thinks sufficiently important. A copy of the entries should also be sent to the Secretary to the Government of West Bengal, Department of Health, for information.

The Committee as a whole will meet at least once a quarter, review the reports of the visiting groups and discuss the remedial measures adopted. The Medical Superintendent of the Lady Dufferin Victoria Hospital should attend the meeting of the Visiting Committee.

The Committee will send copies of the resolutions passed at the quarterly meetings to the Secretary to the Government of West Bengal, Department of Health, and also to the Director of Health Services who will submit to Government a report of the action taken or proposed to be taken on the points raised in those resolutions.

The members will hold office for three years or until the next reconstitution of the Committee. Any member who fails to visit the hospital during three successive months without sufficient reason will automatically cease to be a member and Government will appoint a new member in his or her place. The names of habitual absentees should be reported to Government by the Medical Superintendent once every quarter.

By order of the Governor,
D. N. BANERJEE, Secy.

FORESTS DEPARTMENT

Forests

NOTIFICATION

No. 5741For. -14th September 1962.—In exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (1), and in particular by clauses (a) to (n), (p) and (q) of sub-section (2), of section 77 of the Bihar Private Forests Act, 1947 (Bihar Act IX of 1948), read with sub-section (3) of section 3 of the West Bengla Transferred Territories (Assimilation of Laws) Act, 1958 (West Bengal Act XIX of 1958), the Governor is pleased to make the following amendment to the Bihar Private Forests Rules, 1948, published under

Government of Bihar, Revenue Department notification No. 2924-VIF-96/48-R., dated the 30th March 1948, in their application to the transferred territories as defined in section 2(j) of the Bihar and West Bengal (Transfer of Territories) Act, 1956 (40 of 1956), namely:—

Amendment

In the said rules, for rule 5, substitute the following rule, namely:—

"5(1) In this rule—

(a) all expressions used have the same meaning as in the Bihar Private Forests Act, 1947 (Bihar Act IX of 1948); and

(b) "transferred territories" mean the territories transferred from the State of Bihar to the State of West Bengal by section 3 of the Bihar and West Bengal (Transfer of Territories) Act, 1956 (40 of 1956).

(2) These rules shall apply to timber and other forest produce found anywhere within the transferred territories and such timber and other forest produce shall be presumed to have passed out of a forest unless the contrary is proved by the person found in possesion of the same.

(3) Within the limits of the transferred territories no person shall conceal any such timber or forest produce.

(4) No such timber or other forest produce shall be moved into, from or within the transferred territories except under a transit pass in the Form prescribed in Appendix I hereto annexed, issued by an officer of the Forest Directorate not below the rank of a Forester who is duly authorised by the Divisional Forest Officer for the purpose.

(5) All timber in respect of which a transit pass has been issued shall bear a Government hammer mark the facsimile of which shall be imprinted on the connected pass.

(6) Fees for transit passes in respect of different items of forest produce moved by any of the routes within the transferred territories may be levied in accordance with the rates as may be prescribed by the Conservator of Forests from time to time.

(7) Any person importing, exporting or moving timber or other forest produce originating from a forest, into, from or within the transferred territories and any person in possession or charge of such timber or other forest produce in transit shall produce the transit pass on demand by any Forest Officer or Police Officer.

8(i) All timber and other forest produce and any cart, vehicle, boat or other vessel suspected of carrying the same, shall be liable to stoppage by any Forest Officer within the transferred territories for the purpose of examination and check.

(ii) Any sum due and payable to the Forest Directorate on such timber or other forest produce shall be realised at the nearest forest office.

(iii) Any timber or other forest produce not covered by a transit pass may be seized by any Forest Officer or Police Officer and the cart, vehicle, boat or cattle suspected to be carrying the same shall be liable to seizure and confiscation as provided under section 54 of the Bihar Private Forests Act, 1947 and any cattle seized in this connection shall be liable to be impounded.

(9) Any Forest Officer or Police Officer who has seized any forest produce under sub-rule (8) shall immediately issue a written notice to the owner of such forest produce or if the owner is unknown, to the person in possession of such forest produce asking him to prove his title thereto within thirty days from the date of issue of such notice. A copy of the notice shall also be pasted on a notice board at the nearest Forest office or police-station. The Forest Officer or Police Officer shall submit a seizure report to the Magistrate having jurisdiction to try the offence on account of which the seizure is made.

10 (i) Any person dealing in timber fashioned or unfashioned shall register with the Divisional Forest Officer concerned a property mark which after approval by the Divisional Forest Officer and on payment of fees prescribed by the Cnservator of Forests shall be registered in Divisional Forest Office.

(ii) All timber originating from such forests and imported, exported or moved into, from or within the transferred territories, shall be marked with a registered property mark in addition to a Government hammer mark. Any timber found without a registered property mark and Government hammer mark shall be liable to detention and seizure for enquiry under sub-rule (9).

(11) The Divisional Forest Officer may in consultation with the Collector concerned provide for the establishment and regulation of check posts or Depots at which timber or other forest produce shall be stopped for examination or for the payment of dues therefor or in order that Government hammer marks may be applied to the same.

his is a reference under section 10 of the ustrial Disputes Act, 1947, by the Government of st Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 442-/IR/11L-8/62, dated the 8th February 1962, for udication upon the issue named below:

Issue

"Whether the dismissal of Shri Paresh Nath Tripathi is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?"

e written statement of the Union concerned ins the following allegations. Shri P. N. thi, the workman concerned, was drawing a wage of Rs. 161 in 1960 when he was suddenly issed by a letter of the Company, dated 3rd mber 1960, under the signature of Shri B. K. dari, the Works Manager, on false and malicious ations. The Company did not give any rtunity of defence to Shri Tripathi either by g him for an explanation or by holding any iry to come to a bona fide finding of his alleged guilt. In fact, the whole action of the Company was high-handed, arbitrary, illegal and mala fide. Immediately after receipt of the letter of dismissal, Shri Tripathi challenged the same by a letter to the Company dated 5th December 1960, alleging, inter alia, that his dismissal was in violation of the principles of natural justice, perverse and void, the allegations being false and further contending that he was appointed by the General Manager and hence the Works Manager had no authority to dismiss him. The Company had not the courage to reply to that letter, and a reminder had to be issued on 14th December 1960. Thereafter the Company, without withdrawing the illegal order of dismissal and without allowing Tripathi to resume his work, simply as an eye-wash for sustaining the original illegal and mala fide decision, agreed to hold an enquiry by a letter to Shri Tripathi, dated 26th December 1960. The enquiry was also illegally held by Shri Bhandari who passed the order of dismissal, the prosecutor and the judge being the same. During the enquiry Shri Tripathi did not get the full scope of defence, and some of his witnesses had not been examined, the scope of cross-examination was very much limited and the evidence was not fully and correctly recorded. Against all canons of justice, the result of the enquiry was put into a cold storage for three months till the 24th March 1961, the enquiry being held on 29th December 1960 and 2nd January 1961. By the letter of the 24th March 1961, the Company confirmed the Works Manager's decision already taken without enquiry. That letter of the Company was only as a result of the representation of Shri Tripathi to the Assistant Labour Commissioner of Howrah by his letter, dated 6th March 1961. Shri Tripathi is a man of independent character and opposed to Communists, and the management only to appease the Communists, at their instances, effected the dismissal of Shri Tripathi in the aforesaid illegal and arbitrary manner. The honest workmen of the Company felt aggrieved and started agitating against the dismissal of Shri Tripathi. Eventually the Union took up the cause, and raised a dispute with the Company and the Labour Directorate. As no conciliation was possible due to the adamant attitude of the Company, the present reference has been made. The Union prays for reinstatement of Shri Tripathi with continuity of service and full back wages, etc.

The case of the Company, as made out in its written statement, is as follows: The present dispute is an individual dispute and not an industrial dispute. At the relevant time, viz, the time of termination of Shri Tripathi's employment and/or thereafter, or even at the time of reference, this dispute was not espoused by a appreciable number of employees of the Company, nor by any employee of his category, viz., supervisory staff. Since 1947 the Union is being controlled by Shri Ram Sen and Shri Harisadhan Mitra, as President and Secretary respectively. Before July 1961 the Union passed by the old name of "Shalimar Rope Works Mazdoor Union." That name was changed in or about July 1961 into the name of "Shalimar Rope Workmen's Union," controlled by the said two persons. The Mazdoor Union purports to have raised the dispute at the instance of Shri Bijoy Krishna Mukherjee as its Secretary, has no locus standi to raise the dispute or obtain the reference. No workers of the Company are members of the Union represented by Shri B. K. Mukherjee. Shri Tripathi's behaviour towards the employees and workmen were rough and harsh. He had no concern or connection with the Union leaders or their activities. No workman preaches or follows idealism or Communism in the factory. He has had the habit of acting in indisciplined way, and ignored the authority of the management. The allegation of the Company's attempt at appeasing the Communists is absolutely false. The reason for terminating the services of Shri Tripathi has been stated in the Works Manager's letter, dated 3rd December 1960. The acts of Shri Tripathi, as mentioned in that letter, amounted to gross misconduct. The Works Manager on a preliminary enquiry and on being satisfied as to the gross negligence and acts of indiscipline, stated in that letter, without dismissing him forthwith terminated his employment. Thereafter Shri Tripathi filed a petition of appeal, dated 5th December 1960, as contemplated in the Rules of Company's Standing Orders. In that petition of appeal there was a prayer for "further enquiry in the presence of the Managing Director." On receipt of the appeal, and considering the prayer, the Managing Agents advised the Works Manager to hold a full enquiry in presence of the Managing Agents' representative Shri D. K. Daga, the Executive Officer of the Company. About that time there was no General Manager in the Company inasmuch as the said post was abolished. Hence the Union's allegation that the service could not be terminated by any person other than the General Manager is baseless and unjustified. The enquiry was properly conducted in presence of Shri Tripathi and Shri Daga, and the workman was given full opportunity to defend himself by cross-examination of witnesses and examining his own witnesses. The allegation made to the contrary is absolutely untrue. On receipt of the report of the enquiry and by considering the same as regards the whole enquiry proceeding the Managing Agents passed the order of termination of Shri Tripathi's employment under clause 8(a) of the Company's Standing Orders, forwarding a copy of the enquiry report and the management's order. The Company's actions were all along bona fide and justified, and there is no question of violation of the principle of natural justice. For all these reasons, the Union's prayer must fall through.

Decision

First of all, I take up the question of legal objection regarding the point of maintainability of the reference. The present dispute was raised by the Shalimar Rope Works Mazdoor Union represented by Shri B. K. Mukherjee as its Secretary. The Company's case is that this particular Mazdoor Union or Shri B. K. Mukherjee has no locus standi to take up the cause of Shri Tripathi in regard to the present dispute. It is an admitted fact that before 1957 the Union was named "Shalimar Rope Works Mazdoor Union" and that Shri B. K. Mukherjee had been its representative as Secretary. According to the Company, a change came over the Union which was captured in 1957 by some other office-bearers including Shri Ram Sen as President and Shri H. S. Mitra as Secretary. The Company's contention further is that the Union retained the same name of Mazdoor Union till July 1961 when the name was changed into Shalimar R Workmen's Union, but Shri Ram Sen and Shri H Mitra held the controlling position all thro and have still been representing this Union a President and Secretary respectively. It is there argued on behalf of the Company that the Mazdoor Union and Shri B. K. Mukherjee are entities from before the raising of the present disp and as such the present reference made at t instance is wholly unsustainable in law, the re being that the dispute amounts to an "indivi dispute" and not an "industrial dispute" at all.

To understand the position of the Union and office-bearers, it is necessary to refer to and dis certain important factors revealed in course of h ing of this case. It has been already stated admittedly the Mazdoor Union represented workmen of the Company before 1957. In particular year a reference was made to the Fo Industrial Tribunal, presided over by Shri M. N. G at the instance of Shri Ram Sen who appears to h represented the Mazdoor Union. There was award by Shri Gan on 8th September 1958 (Ext. against which the Company moved the Hon'ble H Court at Calcutta under Article 226 of the Const tion of India. During the pendency of the ma before the Hon'ble High Court, a settlement reached between the Union represented by Shri R Sen and the Company on 25th May 1959 (Ext During the period of the raising of that dispute the ultimate settlement, Shri B. K. Mukherjee or Union were not in the picture. It is the Compan case before me that the Company itself raised objection before Shri Gan against the maintainabil of that dispute at the instance of Shri Ram Se Union. I am led to understand that the Compa raised objection to the effect that Shri B. K. Mukh jee's Mazdoor Union was the real Union represen by Shri Ram Sen. I am referred to the award it which was published in the "Calcutta Gazette" 2nd October 1958. Shri Gan observed as follows

> "At the outset I would like to place on rec that there are no materials before t Tribunal to consider the Company's objecti raised in paragraph 1 of its written stateme and. as such. it must be taken that t objection is not well-based."

The award does not state what the cases of t respective parties in their written statements we So from the award it is not known or understo what exactly the Company's objection was. T further observation of Shri Gan following the abo observation may lead one to think as if the objecti was in respect of something quite different from t question of representation by one or other particul Union. Even if it be taken at all that the Compa raised the objection as it now says, still the rejecti of the objection does not mean that Shri B. K. Mu herjee's Union would not be able to raise the poi at any time in future. On the contrary, there reasons to think that the Company's the then obj tion was nothing but a show in the nature of mock fight intended to oust for ever the Mazdoor Uni represented by Shri B. K. Mukherjee. The subs quent petition under Article 226 of the Constitut of India and the amicable settlement whereby so benefits under the award appear to have been giv up by the Union would also indicate to a great exte a collusion between the Company and Shri Ram Se as contended by Shri Pandey in course of his arguments before me. The aforesaid award of Shri Gan does not indicate in what capacity Shri Ram Sen represented the Mazdoor Union. Similarly the settlement effected in July 1961 does not clearly indicate in what capacity Shri H. S. Mitra represented the Workmen's Union. In some correspondences however they were described as the President and the Secretary of the Union. Shri Ram Sen's Union does not appear to have ever been registered under the Indian Trade Unions Act of 1926. It is said for the Company that non-registration is not fatal. If a real Union is to be genuinely represented in a proceeding under the Industrial Disputes Act, usually such a Union is registered under the Indian Trade Unions Act. It is not disputed that prior to 1957, when the Union was represented by Shri B. K. Mukherjee in the capacity of Secretary, the Mazdoor Union was duly registered. According to the Company's version the Union changed its name into the Workmen's Union in or about July 1961. Now, the change of the name of the registered Mazdoor Union must require a notice to be given in writing to the Registrar of Trade Union under section 25 of the Indian Trade Union Act. But no such notice appears to have ever been given under this section by the Workmen's Union in or about July 1961 when the change is alleged to have taken place. The whole thing concerning the Union represented by Shri Ram Sen and Shri H. S. Mitra appears to be shrouded in mystery, for which no proper explanation is forthcoming. It is said that Shri B. K. Mukherjee did not come into the picture to raise any objection anywhere, in connection with the dispute in 1957 and thereafter. Similarly, the Union said to be represented by Shri Sen and Shri Mitra also appears to have raised no objection in regard to the present dispute started at the instance of the Union represented by Shri Mukherjee. The Company does not appear to have raised any objection regarding the authority of Shri Mukherjee during the conciliation proceedings. It is said by Shri Das Gupta, for the Company, that want of such objection is not very material for the purpose of the decision of the present dispute by the Tribunal. Whatever that may be, it seems to be likely that the Company purposely refrained from raising such an objection lest the records of the Government office would disclose the true state of things to nullify the Company's contention. I would like to elucidate this matter a little further. It is not known, and the Company has not explained, how, when and by whom Shri Sen and Shri Mitra were elected office-bearers of the Union. The Company has not been able to put any papers in this respect. In the absence of any cogent evidence it may be considered that Shri Sen and Shri Mitra were self-elected office-bearers or that they were only creatures of the Company itself. On the contrary, the Union has put in two annual returns for the years 1959-60 and 1960-61 [Exts. 6(a) and 6 respectively]. Exhibits 7(a) and 7 are receipts acknowledging submission of the above letters. These returns show the registration number of 779 for the Mazdoor Union. They also show the name of Shri B. K. Mukherjee as being the General Secretary of this Union in those two years. Not only that Government office records were called for at the instance of the Union to show that since 1948 this Mazdoor Union has been bearing the registration No. 779 all through, even up to the year 1960-61. If Shri Sen and Shri Mitra had at all genuinely represented the Mazdoor Union in 1957 and 1958, their names would have appeared in the records of those years. But the Government records do not at all show the names of Shri Sen and Shri Mitra in those years or any year at all. All through the Mazdoor Union of old appears to have been continuing even up till now. From the Government records nothing is known about Shri Ram Sen's Union either Mazdoor Union or the Workmen's Union.

The Mazdoor Union represented by Shri B. K. Mukherjee appeared to have been located at 25 Shalimar Road, whereas the Union represented by Shri Sen is located at the address of 164 Andul Road. This variation in the addresses is laid much stress upon by Shri Das Gupta in course of his argument on behalf of the Company. Shri Pandey said that for some time the Mazdoor Union might have been previously located at Andul Road, but that does not necessarily mean that Shri Ram Sen's Union (Mazdoor Union or Workmen's Union) is the real Union, and Shri Mukherjee's Union has no real existence. There is force in this contention of Shri Pandey inasmuch as the records produced before me go to support his case fully.

On 20th July 1961 the Deputy Labour Commissioner wrote a letter (Ext. L) to the Company, sending a copy thereof to the Secretary of the Shalimar Rope Work Workmen's Union at 164 Andul Road. The identity of the exact dispute referred to in this letter is not known. This much can be said from this letter that the Workmen's Union was given a copy of that letter by the Deputy Labour Commissioner. That does not necessarily undo the authority or representativenesss of the Union of Shri B. K. Mukherjee inasmuch as in the present reference the address of the Mazdoor Union is given to be 25 Shalimar Road. So Ext. L does not come to help the Company. Similar is the fate of another letter of this sort, dated 5th August 1961 (Ext. L/1).

It appears that some correspondences had passed between Shri B. K. Mukherjee and the Works Manager of the Company. Only two of those letters have been produced before me by the Union. In reference to Shri Mukherjee's letter, dated 18th January 1960, the Works Manager wrote on 23rd January 1960 (vide Ext. 8) to say that Shri Mukherjee designated himself as the General Secretary of the Mazdoor Union and Shri P. K. Chatterjee as President of the Union, but in the last adjudication some other office-bearers of the Union under the above name conducted the Tribunal case, and thereafter the said office-bearers "for and on behalf of" the workers negotiated with the management in labour matters, and were also negotiating with the management as and when required. In that context the Works Manager requested Shri B. K. Mukherjee to let him know the actual position so as to enter into any discussion with Shri Mukherjee in respect of any matter as desired by him. A long time passed till 16th November 1960 when Shri Mukherjee wrote his letter [Ext 8(a)] with reference to the Works Manager's letter, dated 23rd January 1960, but got no reply from the Works Manager. Shri Mukherjee wrote to say that the last adjudication was conducted by unauthorised persons who were not office-bearers of the Mazdoor Union, and were not at any time empowered to conduct the case. He also wrote that the matter should have been verified by making a reference to him at the time of conducting the said adjudication or at any stage prior to that before accepting some other persons as office-bearers of the Union. Further, Shri Mukherjee requested the Works Manager to let him know further on the subject so that there might be discussion on the same with reference to documents. Since then the Works Manager remained silent and appears to have taken no steps with reference to the last letter of Shri Mukherjee. This silence on the part of the Company is inexplicable, whereas Shri Mukherjee was quite ready to enter into discussion for clarification of the matter.

Referring to certain letters of Shri Tripathi, Shri Dasgupta argued on behalf of the Company that these were signed by Tripathi in his personal capacity on 5th December 1960 (Ext. 2), 13th/14th December 1960 (Ext. 3) and 6th March 1961 (Ext. P). This indicates, it is said, that the dispute was a personal matter raised by Shri Tripathi in his personal capacity, not by the Union on behalf of Shri Tripathi. It is also argued for the Company that the Union has failed to show that the Company's workmen are wholly or even partly members of Shri B. Mukherjee's Union and even if it be taken that Shri B. Mukherjee's Union is the real Union who raised the dispute under the present reference, it should be proved that the workmen or a substantial number of the workmen of the Company have espoused Shri Tripathi's cause or are members of the Union of Shri Mukherjee, otherwise the present dispute would lose its character as an "industrial dispute." From all that has been seen above, I can unhesitatingly hold that Shri Ram Sen's Union is a non-entity in the true sense whereas Shri B. Mukherjee's Union is the real Union which raised the dispute and represented the case of Shri Tripathi before the Tribunal. It is to be seen whether this dispute is an "industrial dispute" as claimed by the Union, or is an "individual dispute" as contended by the Company.

It may be that Shri Tripathi wrote these letters in his own name. The first one, dated 5th December 1960, was nothing but his reply challenging the order of dismissal and the allegations contained in the Company's letter, dated 3rd December 1960. These and other letters referred to above are not to be construed to mean that he wrote to raise a dispute of an individual nature. From the other documents produced before me, it appears that on 9th September 1961, 27th October 1961 and 17th January 1962 the Conciliation Officer wrote letters to the Company in regard to the present dispute, sending copies of the same to the Mazdoor Union represented by Shri Mukherjee (vide Exts. 5-a, 5, and 9 respectively). It is clear, therefore, that the Union itself took up the cause of Shri Tripathi otherwise the Conciliation Officer would not have sent copies of his letters to the Secretary of the Union. It is said for the Company that there is no proof that the workmen of the Company or a substantial part thereof are members of Shri Mukherjee's Union, or took up Shri Tripathi's cause, and that the Union has not produced Membership Khata, etc., to show the authority of the Mazdoor Union represented by Shri Mukherjee. It is to be noted that the Company also has not produced Membership Khata, etc., to show that the workmen or a substantial part of them are members of the Union represented by Shri Ram Sen. From the Company's written satement itself it would appear that its contention in this regard is untenable. In paragraph 2 of the Company's written statement it is mentioned that all the employees were/are members of Shri Ram Sen and Shri H. S. Mitra and that the Union was representing the entire body of workmen of the Company. It has been seen already that the Mazdoor Union has been in existence all through since 1948, and that the change of the name of the Union into "Workmen's Union" in or about July 1961 was an unreal and collusive affair. The fact therefore remains that all the workmen of the Company have been members of the Union which is the real Mazdoor Union of which Shri Mukherjee has been the Secretary. So the absence of Membership Khata is not a material point here. The Company has put in copy of a letter, dated 2nd April 1962 (Ext. M-1), purporting to have been sent by some workmen to the Assistant Labour Commissioner. In this letter it is stated that according to the decision of the overwhelming majority of the workers, the office-bearers of the old Union had been changed and new office-bearers were elected in Mohammad Ellias, M.P., Ram Sen and H. S. Mitra. Further the signatories of this letter alleged having no connection with Shri Mukherjee's Union. This letter is actually signed by three workers and contains a note at the foot of it to the effect that there have been four hundred more signatories in the original petition. The original petition is not forthcoming. Moreover, this letter was written subsequent to the order of the present reference passed on 8th February 1962. Such a letter, therefore, cannot have any real value, and appears to have been intended with some motive to defeat the cause of Shri Mukherjee. On the contrary, as found above, the old Mazdoor Union of which Shri Mukherjee is the Secretary, is still in existence, and it is the real and genuine Union which took up the cause on behalf of Shri Tripathi. From what has been seen above, it cannot but be held that this Union represents all the workers of the Company in spite of what is mentioned in Ext. M/1. Hence I conclude that this is in reality an "industrial dispute", not an "individual dispute", the cause being taken up by the Union of Shri Mukherjee. Thus the legal and preliminary objection of the Company is nullified.

I now come to the question on merit. What happened in fact is this: On 3rd December 1960 the Works Manager Shri Bhandari (O.P.W. 1) wrote to Shri Tripathi to say that his services were no longer required with immediate effect, stating several instances of alleged misconducts on the part of Shri Tripathi (vide Ext. 1). On 5th December 1960 Shri Tripathi wrote his letter to the Works Manager requesting the latter to withdraw the said notice of termination of services, characterising it as irregular, improper and ultra vires. His reply contains details to meet the allegations made in Ext. 1. In Tripathi's letter, dated 5th December 1960 (Ext. 2), he made a request that an enquiry should be set up, stating that the unestablished allegations were fictitious and motivated. On receipt of that letter the Management wrote to Shri Bhandari to hold a full enquiry into the matter in presence of the Company's Executive Officer Mr. D. K. Daga, giving all opportunities to Shri Tripathi to defend himself. Pursuant thereto Shri Bhandari held an enquiry on 29th December 1960 and 2nd January 1961 in presence of Shri Tripathi who not only examined himself and some witnesses on his behalf, but also cross-examined the witnesses of the Company. Shri Bhandari next submitted his report to the Management on 24th January 1961 (Ext. A/1). Next, after a long lapse of two months, the Managing Agents informed Shri Tripathi in writing that they had carefully considered the reports of the Enquiring Officer and fully agreed with the same, and they did not see any reason to alter the decision as communicated by the latter, dated 3rd December 1960. In Ext. A/1, dated 3rd December 1960, no mention was made by Shri Bhandari as to under what clause or clauses he had passed his orders doing away with the services of Shri Tripathi with immediate effect. It is in Ext. A, dated 24th March 1961, that the Managing Agents for the first time stated having taken action under clause 8(a) of the Standing Orders, stating that the order, dated 3rd December 1960, would stand. In this letter of the Management one month's wages in lieu of notice were offered to the workman concerned. In the enquiry report Shri Bhandari found the concerned workman guilty of misconduct under clause 9(b)(2)(8)(12) of the Company's Standing Orders and recommended dismissal of the workman.

The present issue before me is whether the dismissal of Shri Tripathi is justified or not. The contention of the Company is that there was no dismissal, but there was termination of workman's services, with an offer of payment of one month's wages in lieu of notice. This explanation of taking action under clause 8(a) of the Standing Orders and offering of one month's wages found mention for the first time in the Management's letter, dated 24th March 1961. In Shri Bhandari's order, dated 3rd December 1960, immediate effect was given to the termination of services. That clearly tantamounted to an order of dismissal. The Company appears to have tried to rectify this mistake in its letter, dated 24th March 1961, but that was too late. Besides, there were some fundamental or basic errors in regard to the Company's actions beginning from 3rd December 1960 to 24th March 1961. I shall presently discuss these important points. There was no charge-sheet, formal or otherwise, before the letter of dismissal was issued by the Works Manager on 3rd December 1960. It is said by the Company with particular reference to the evidence of Shri Bhandari that on reports of acts of misconduct on the part of Shri Tripathi from two mistries of the department, Shri Bhandari held a preliminary enquiry on 2nd December 1960 in presence of those two mistries, Tripathi and two durwans, and on being satisfied Shri Bhandari issued the orders on 3rd December 1960. Even the alleged reports of the two mistries are said to have been verbal. The preliminary enquiry itself is said to have been verbal. Shri Bhandari did not even take down any notes during that alleged preliminary enquiry.

According to him, no formal charge is necessary in regard to a staff member and a preliminary enquiry was quite sufficient. If such a practice is at all in vogue in the Company, it may well be characterised as a mal-practice. There is no good reason to show why no formal charge should be framed against a staff member, and why no formal domestic enquiry should also be made against him before passing the final order of dismissal. The story of preliminary enquiry held verbally cannot be believed in the whole circumstances of the case. It is said for the Company that the lacuna of not holding a domestic enquiry before 3rd December 1960 was made up by a formal enquiry held on 29th December 1960 and 2nd January 1961. The letter of Shri Tripathi sent on 5th December 1960 is considered by the Company to be in the nature of an appeal, within the meaning of Article 10 of the Standing Orders. It is also said that the enquiry was held at the request of Shri Tripathi, as made in the letter, dated 5th December 1960. In clause 10 of the Standing Orders (Ext. N) there is a provision like this:

> "Complaint arising out of employment including those relating to unfair treatment shall be submitted to the Manager. The order of the Manager upon such complaint shall be subject to appeal by the workman to his employer. The Managing Agents shall be deemed to be the employer."

In my view, Shri Tripathi's letter of 5th December 1960 ought not to be treated as an appeal contemplated in clause 10 aforesaid. Under this clause an appeal is to be preferred to the employer (Managing Agents) against an order of the Manager (i.e. the Works Manager) upon complaint lodged by a workman. Nothing of this sort occurred in respect of the matter at issue. Of course Shri Tripathi requested for an enquiry. But the enquiry itself is vitiated by reason of fundamental errors. The Works Manager himself made allegations and passed orders of dismissal. This very particular person was appointed the enquiring officer. The prosecutor and the judge was the same person, which is undoubtedly against the principle of natural justice. Again, there is another fundamental error in this that the order of dismissal was passed not by the employer (Managing Agents) but by the Works Manager. Shri Bhandari says that his duty includes giving appointments and ordering dismissals. But in cross-examination he admits that he had no such written authority delegated by the Managing Agents. So, his order of dismissal was not only illegal but absolutely void. Besides, the enquiry was held nearly a month after the order of dismissal was passed. Not that the order of dismissal or even the order of termination of services was actually passed subsequent to the enquiry. By the Managing Agents' order, dated 24th March 1961, the illegal and void order of Shri Bhandari passed on 3rd December 1960 was confirmed. There was no new order passed by the appointing authority (Managing Agents) after the said enquiry. It may be mentioned in this connection that the enquiry itself was quite useless in this that the Company had already been biassed against the workman concerned by reason of the allegations made against him and the order passed against him by Shri Bhandari. Such an enquiry therefore loses all its force and value under the above circumstances. It was not a proper enquiry at all. It is said for the Company that if that enquiry be at all considered to be unusual and improper for any reason, still the Company has adduced full evidence before this Tribunal with reference to the allegations made against Shri Tripathi in the Works Manager's letter, dated 3rd December 1960, and upon this evidence the action of the Company taken against the workman cannot be said to be unjustified. Whatever the value of the evidence given before this Tribunal the fact remains that the action taken against Shri Tripathi was quite illegal and void, and as such the question of merits does not seem to matter very much in this particular case in the circumstances mentioned above and also in view of the discussions which would follow presently.

The particular allegations or the so-called charges against Shri Tripathi are contained in Shri Bhandari's letter, dated 3rd December 1960 (Ext. 1). There was, however, no new charge framed before the enquiry was held on 29th December 1960 and 2nd January 1961. The allegations as per Ext. 1 are thus:

(i) Shri Tripathi was not particular in his duties and was working in a very indisciplined way for a considerable time, for which there were verbal warnings several times.

(ii) Irregular and indisciplined way of Shri Tripathi's working reached its extreme point as per instances, such as—

(a) A worker named Purna in the night-shift under Shri Tripathi's supervision got a habit of sleeping during working hours, but Shri Tripathi took no action in the matter, though reported to by the Head Mistry.

(b) On 29th November 1960 Shri Tripathi left the factory at 1 a.m. and during his absence the workers of machines Nos. 1 and 2 and drawing machines Nos. 1 and 4 stopped work and sat idle near the Time Office, causing shortage of sliver in Gill Spinning Machines.

(c) On 30th November 1960 Shri Tripathi had to be called from his quarters at about 11-15 p.m. but he left at 1 a.m. without permission or leave.

(d) The attendance register shows that he was present in the factory as follows:

Date.	Arrival.	Departure.	Signature.
28-11-60	10-5 p.m.	6-18- a.m.	Sd. Tripathi.
29-11-60	10-7 p.m.	6-10 a-m.	——
30-11-60	10-0 p.m.	2-0 a.m.	——
1-12-60	10-0 p.m.	——	——

but on enquiring, your actual attendance is found as follows:

Date.	Arrival.	Departure.
28-11-60	10-0 p.m.	1-0 a m.
29-11 60	10-0 p.m.	1-0 a.m.
30-11-60	11-15 p.m.	1-0 a.m.
1-12-60	10-0 p.m.	1-0 a.m.

(e) It was found that from 28th November 1960 to 1st December 1960 he left the factory at about 1 a.m. everyday, but managed to write all reports for the full shift up to 6 a.m.

(f) On 1st December 1960 he issued a false gate pass to a worker named Kristo Mahapatra, recommending leave in lieu of extra work done during tiffin hours.

(iii) The above faults were a matter of great disgrace on his part and are also very harmful for the maintenance of discipline inside the factory and smooth running of the factory; so his services were no longer required with immediate effect.

In Ext. 2, dated 5th December 1960, Shri Tripathi made a detailed reply touching upon every point and alleging about improper and ultra vires action of the Works Manager. Regarding the first allegation of alleged irregular and indiscipline of Tripathi's working, reference is made to certain things happening in January 1960 referred to in the attendance register of the relevant period. In Ext. 1 there was no specification of these allegations which were too remote to be of any use for the purpose of the present dispute. Shri Tripathi has denied the allegations specifically in his evidence. There is no doubt a counter-evidence of Shri Bhandari (O.P.W. 2). Whatever might have been the incidents related to irregular attendance etc. and are too old to have been renewed about the time of his dismissal. So I make no further comments on this particular point.

Regarding the allegations abovementioned per items No. (ii) (a) to (g), I consider these points briefly. Purna has been examined on behalf of the Union. He has denied the allegation of his sleeping habit. This is also the gist of the deposition of Shri Tripathi (P.W. 1). Two mistries were examined by the Company, but none was able to show Purna in sleeping condition to Shri Tripathi, as the evidence discloses. So, there is no substance in this allegation regarding Purna. It is to be noted that the Company does not appear to have taken any action against Purna. The Company's case is that on 28th November 1960 and 29th November 1960 though Shri Tripathi attended duties almost at the due time, he left the factory at about 1 a.m. each day, but the times of departure were noted in the attendance regiser as being 6-18 a.m. and 6-10 a.m., respectively on those two days. It is further alleged that on 30th November 1960 and 1st December 1960 he arrived almost at the relevant time, but left the factory at about 1 a.m. each day; but the attendance register shows his departure at 2 a.m. on 30th November 1960, no time of departure on 1st December 1960 being at all noted. The two mistries named Nilmoni and Rajbanshi (O.P.W.'s 4 and 6, respectively), who are the only persons who had any first hand personal knowledge, said that on the 28th and the 29th November 1960, Shri Tripathi left the factory at the tiffin hour (which is from 1-30 a.m. to 2 a.m.) but returned at about 3 or 3-30 a.m. each day. They have also said that on 30th November 1960 and 1st December 1960 Shri Tripathi left the factory at tiffin hour but did not at all return to the factory on those days. It is also in their evidence that on 30th November 1960 Shri Tripathi had to be called from his quarters to his duties at about 11-15 p.m. It is very strange that these two mistries would have retained in their memories the details of those timings. Rajbanshi has practically cut a very sorry figure before this Tribunal. He cannot even read the timings of a clock. There was nothing in writing, nor any such thing shown, during the alleged preliminary enquiry regarding timings of arrival and departure of Shri Tripathi. I cannot therefore lay any stress on the evidence of the two mistries and consequently accept the timings noted in the attendance register itself. Regarding the departure on 30th November 1960 and 1st December 1960, Shri Tripathi admits that he left the factory about the tiffin time not to come back again as he felt sick. He says having taken medicines for his illness from the Company's dispensary located inside the factory. The Compounder of that dispensary denies, with reference to Hospital Register, that Tripathi took any medicines on those two dates. The Union's case is that the entries of Tripathi's taking medicines from the dispensary might not have been made through mistake. It is difficult to accept these explanations in the face of the Hospital Register and the evidence ıe Compounder. `I may take therefore that Shri ıthi was not really so ill as to be unable to ·n to duties after the tiffin hours on those two ·s. This is the only fault I can find in regard to so far as this point is concerned.

·garding the issue of gate pass to Kristo apatra, the matter does not require much to be in view of the fact that it has transpired in ·nce on both sides that the gate pass was not ; admittedly Shri Tripathi issued that pass on December 1960 and went away from the factory ıt the tiffin time by asking the mistry to give a to Kristo Mahapatra to enable him to leave the ·ry half an hour earlier than 6 a.m. after work- that night during the whole of the half-an-hour ı time. Shri Tripathi has said that he put Kristo ork for the tiffin time before he had left the ·ry, the contrary evidence being that Kristo did ctually do work during the tiffin period and so d not leave the factory before 6 a.m. As Kristo not work during tiffin period, he could not utilise privilege under the said pass. So no offence seems ıave been committed by Shri Tripathi in this ect ow, the only thing appearing to go against Shri ıthi is that he was not ill, and yet he left the ory at the tiffin time on 30th November 1960 and December 1960. not to come back again. The stion is whether this is such an offence which can ıt dismissal. Under clause 9(b)(2), theft, fraud, onesty in connection with the employers' property ıld amount to misconduct. There is no such stion here. The Company's case is that there was ıonest· in connection with the employer's ness, inasmuch as Shri Tripathi remained for the time of his duty but managed to record pro- tion of full eight hours. I am unable to compre- d what the Company means by saying so. No stion was raised at any time that the productions ·d on the relevant dates were less than usual ept in regard to productions of 29th November 0. I have already seen that on 29th November ·) there was nothing to characterise Shri Tripathi's ·n as being misconduct in any way. Shri rachand Sil (O.P.W. 2) was the Supervisor-in- arge of the morning shift during the relevant week. says that in the morning on 1st December 1960 in the absence of Shri Tripathi, made the entry the 'FAR BOOK' (Ext. B) production on 30th vember 1960 in spite of Tripathi's absence after n hours. So, no offence can be fastened on him any way regarding this particular matter. Shri Sil) says that the record of production of the third ft on 1st December 1960 was made by Shri pathi himself, the production of eight hour's work ng shown by him. Exhibit B shows production of) coils on 1st December 1960. According to Shri the outturn of work would have been 220 to 227 ls as normal production. It is not the case of the mpany that the production noted here was false fictitious. Shri Tripathi explains by saying that ır of the machines were out of order and were not rked. He further says that on 1st December 1960, er joining his duties, he wrote the entry "Deawing chine Report 3A, 4D, 5A, 6A, 7A, 8A, 12C and)" for his own knowledge as these eight machines out of order. There are two other entries ing to 17A and 18A machines which, according ıri Tripathi, were written by Shri Sil. But con- ing the matter carefully, I am unable to say that the entry as to the total production on 1st December 1960 suggests or proves dishonesty of such a nature as to merit dismissal at all. In fact, I do not find dishonesty at all. Sub-clause (8) of clause 9(b) of the Standing Orders mentions "riotous or disorderly behaviour during the working hours of the establish- ment or any acts subversive of discipline would be an act of misconduct." Here also there is no question of riotous and disorderly behaviour except the vague allegation that some workmen had sat idle during the absence of Shri Tripathi on 29th November 1960. It is said for the Company that irregular arrivals and departures amount to acts subversive of discipline. I have already seen that the only fault on Tripathi's part was his absence after tiffin hours on 30th November 1960 and 1st December 1960 without being really ill. That is only a matter of temporary absence for half days on each of those two days. But that does not, in my view, amount to indisciplinary act. The Company, at best, could cut proportionate wages for that reason. Sub-clause (12) of the above clause 9 of the Standing Orders men- tions about misconduct in the shape of breach of rule or instruction for the maintenance and running of any department or the maintenance of cleanliness of any portion of the mill area in the present dispute. The Company means to characterise Shri Tripathi's act as aforesaid to be breach of rules or instructions for the maintenance and running of the department. This is nothing but a very vague way of making allegations with a view to bring in the alleged acts of Shri Tripathi under the mischief of this sub-clause.

Considering all the facts and the circumstances in the above light, I can come to the conclusion that the allegations made against Shri Tripathi have not been sufficiently and convincingly proved even by the evidence given before me. Regarding the action taken by the Company, as a result of the enquiry, I have seen above that this is very much vitiated and taint- ed with some glaring fundamental errors against which the Company can claim no favourable consi- deration. No possible or reasonable view of ending with the service of Shri Tripathi could or should have been taken on the result of the enquiry which was not only irregular but also improper. To top all, as aforesaid, the order of 3rd December 1960 as passed by Shri Bhandari was quite void, and the Manage- ment's confirmation of such a void order is of no help or value to the Company. I therefore hold, in the result, that the dismissal of Shri Tripathi was quite unjustified and the Union's prayer must be allowed. Accordingly, the Company is directed to reinstate Shri Tripathi to his former job with conti- nuity of service, and to pay him all back wages for the period of his forced unemployment, within one month from the date of publication of this decision in the "Calcutta Gazette".

Award is passed accordingly.

And whereas the said Second Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between the Marwari Relief Society (Indoor and Outdoor Hospital), 392 Upper Chitpur Road, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by the Marwari Relief Society Mazdoor Union, 90 Lower Chitpur Road, Calcutta-7. (Case No. VIII-313 of 1961.)

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri P. C. PAL, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Company: Shri K. K. Moitra, Advocate.

Present for the Union: Shri Lenin Roy, Advocate, with Shri S. N. Banerji, Advocate.

This reference has come to this Tribunal under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 5693-I.R./IR/11L-311/61, dated the 26th September 1961. The issues for determination in this case are as follows:—

(1) Increment of wages and fixation of grades and scales of pay.

(2) Gratuity for the period not covered by Provident Fund.

(3) Weekly rest days and festival holidays.

The Marwari Relief Society Mazdoor Union (hereinafter briefly called as the "Union") which represents the workmen of the Marwari Relief Society—indoor and outdoor hospital (hereinafter briefly described as "Society") makes out its case in its written statement as follows:

The Society is a long-standing and highly prosperous concern carrying on various business and having several manufacturing departments. The outdoor and indoor departments of the hospital are two of such departments, and the management earns huge money through these two departments only. But the Society does not deal well with the workmen in respect of wages, gratuity, weekly rest day, festival holidays, etc. The Union was formed for obtain redresses against the grievances of the workmen, a was registered in 1954. But the Society did not ta in good grace the formation of the Union, and h been adopting various tactics against the workme collective bargaining. A charter of demands w submitted to the Society in February 1961, but t latter paid no heed thereto. The workmen get wag below the starvation level, and so they are in consta debts. A scheme for proper grades and scales pay for the workmen should be framed, and the should also be introduced gratuity scheme for t period not covered by the provident fund, at the ra of one month's wages for each completed year service. The Society has been pursuing anti-labo and discriminating policy, and has always turne down any facility or benefit to which the workm would have been legitimately entitled in respect wages, gratuity, grades and scales of pay, and leav etc. No weekly rest day is allowed to the worl men of the outdoor and indoor departments of th hospital and no facilities are at all given to them The workmen should be given weekly rest days wit pay and twelve festival holidays with pay in a year.

The case of the Society as mentioned in its writte statement is briefly this:—

The order of reference is ultra vires of th Industrial Disputes Act and the Tribunal has n jurisdiction to try this case. The Society is a non profit-making charitable institution and hence is no an industry. On similar issues there exists an award passed by the Fourth Industrial Tribunal, West Bengal, as published in the "Calcutta Gazette" on 14th May 1959. That award is still binding between the parties. It has not been terminated by any notice by the Union. Hence the present reference is illegal. There has been no material change of circumstances since that award. Even the Union has not in its written statement pleaded about any material change of circumstances. So the present reference is hit by the principle of res judicata. At the Society's address at 392 Upper Chitpore Road, as mentioned in the order of reference, there is no outdoor hospital at all. At the said premises the Society has only the indoor hospital. Hence the reference is defective as far as the outdoor hospital is concerned. The allegations made in the Union's written statement are issues of falsehood and distortion of facts. The objection of the Society is to do charitable works amongst the needy and poor people in various ways. The indoor department of the hospital charges much lower rates for services rendered compared to other hospital in the city. In case of poor patients the charges are either exceptionally low or absolutely free. This principle of charity to the suffering people has been more comprehensively implemented in the outdoor hospital located at 391 Upper Chitpore Road. As a result of these charitable activities of the Society in the indoor and outdoor hospitals, the annual expenditure is much in excess of the total receipts or collections. The Society suffers huge deficit in these two departments of the hospitals. There are doctors, lawyers, administrators, businessmen, executives, educationists, and all of them render honorary services. The officers and the supervisory staff also are working in the Society with nominal salary only to satisfy their spirit of services, and so are the ordinary staff as well. But since the formation of the Union the noble spirit of the ordinary people and menials are dried up, and gradually due to the misguiding influence of outside elements a rift has been created between the employer and the employees, the result being that there is indiscipline, insubordination, demonstrations, etc. The Society's work has suffered a serious set back as a result of the mischievous propaganda and agitation started by the Union. The financial position of the Society is very deplorable and various difficulties are increasing day by day. By further increases in the establishment expenses the activities of the Society would be seriously affected. The status quo, therefore, should not be changed. The claim for gratuity scheme is illegal and baseless. The hospital has got to be kept open for 24 hours. The employees have been always aware of the special hazard and peculiar circumstances of hospital work. The claim for weekly leave and festival holidays in a hospital is absolutely untenable. To compensate the employees in these respect the hospital grants 15 days' casual leave, 15 days' sick leave and one month's privilege leave in a year with full wages. The employees also render duties only for eight hours a day. So the claim for weekly holidays and festival holidays is unfounded and motivated. The present financial position of the hospital will not also warrant granting of such leave facilities. For all these reasons, therefore, the claims of the Union should be disallowed.

Decision

Before entering into the specific issues framed in this case, I first consider about the preliminary legal objection taken on behalf of the Society as to the maintainability or otherwise of the present reference. The Society's objections as per written statement are: —

(a) There was a previous award on similar issues decided by Shri M. N. Gan on 17th April 1959 (Ext. E) rejecting the claims of the Union, that award has not been terminated according to law, and is still binding upon the parties;

(b) The Society has no outdoor hospital at 392 Upper Chitpore Road, as mentioned in the order of reference which, accordingly, is defective; and

(c) No material change of circumstances since the last award is pleaded or proved by the Union and, as such, the present reference is untenable being hit by the principle of res judicata.

The award of Shri M. N. Gan was published in the Calcutta Gazette" on 14th May 1959. The Union has put in a notice, dated 18th August 1960, given by the Society, terminating the award of Shri Gan under the provision of the Industrial Disputes Act. At the time of argument, Shri Moitra, on behalf of the Society, did not press this particular objection inasmuch as it is now an admitted fact that the award in question had been properly and legally terminated by that notice (Ext. 1).

The order of reference describes the Society as "the Marwari Relief Society, Indoor and Outdoor Hospital, 392 Upper Chitpore Road". From evidence produced before me, it appears that the outdoor hospital of the Society is located at 391 Upper Chitpore Road, whereas the indoor hospital is at 392 Upper Chitpore Road. The Society tries to take advantage of the omission of '391 Upper Chitpore Road' from the order of reference. But this omission is quite negligible in view of the fact that both the indoor and the outdoor hospitals have been specifically mentioned in the Order of Reference. So there is no substance in this particular objection of the Society.

It is true that the written statement of the Union makes no specific mention of the fact of material change in the circumstances since the last award of Shri Gan. Mere termination of the previous award would be of no avail unless it is proved that circumstances materially changed in favour of the present claim of the Union since that award. The Union submitted a charter of demands, which suggested about the allegation of change in the circumstances. As to the proof of such change it is not necessary to go far. It cannot be gainsaid that prices of articles have much increased and have been still increasing. Judicial notice can be taken of the Consumer Price Index Numbers as published in the "Calcutta Gazettes". Shri Roy has produced the "Calcutta Gazettes", dated the 25th June 1959 and the 28th June 1962. In the former the Index Number for May 1959 has been shown to be 142, the Base Year figure being 1944=100. In the latter the index number has been shown to be 157 for April 1952, the base year figure remaining the same. Thus material changes since the last award are quite obvious and require no further elucidation. Hence this part of the Society's objection also falls through.

Issue No. 1

The Union has claimed increment of wages and fixation of grades and scales of pay. By the previous award a general increment of Rs. 5 was allowed, and the Society appears to have been paying this increment, except that according to P.W. 2 Mouzi Mandal, a Ward Boy of the Indoor hospital, the Nurses are not given this extra sum. It is a fact that this extra sum is paid to all other employees, namely gate keepers, office-bearers, ward boys, sweepers, cooks, dai, etc. In order to maintain the present claim of the Union for further increments on account of material changes in circumstances it is necessary to see whether the financial position of the Society is sound and stable to meet this demand and, if so, to what extent.

It is the specific case of the Society that it is only a charitable institution and not at all a profit-making concern, and that it has been suffering heavy losses or deficits annually. Evidence given on both sides shows that the Society gets money by way of donations, subscriptions, and by levying fees in regard to beds, operations, etc. It no doubt appears that some concessions are allowed to the poor and deserving patients. In this sense it may be said that the Society is partially charitable. Shri Moitra for the Society has referred me to clause 3(c) and (f) of the Memorandum of Association (Ext. B). This shows the Society's object of helping deserving patients and other poor persons by establishing and maintaining Hospitals, Charitable Dispensaries, and Alms Houses, or by letting out houses at cheaper rent or helping such existing institutions, or by granting such poor persons or patients donations or monthly allowances, advancing them small loans and to help and aid poor widows by all possible means; to do relief work and to render voluntary services and arrange for volunteers in cases of public calamities and disasters such as flood, famine, storm, fire, epidemic and contagious diseases as well as on occasions of public fairs and exhibitions and other gatherings. But the balance sheets produced do not show so much acts of charities in these lines. On the other hand, the Union has referred to clause 4 of the same Memorandum, which runs thus:

"The profits, income and property of the Society will be applied solely for the promotion of the objects of the Society as set forth above and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividends, bonuses or otherwise howsoever by way of profit to any member or ex-member or other person claiming through any of them, provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent the payment in good faith of remuneration to any officers or servants of the Society or other person in return for any services actually rendered to the Society."

It appears from the above that the Society has in view some prospect of making profits which can be utilised in paying in good faith as remuneration to officers and servant of the Society in return for services actually rendered by them. So it cannot be said that the Society is not to make any profit at all. On the contrary, the facts and particulars, if properly analysed, would suggest otherwise.

I now turn to the question relating to the financial position of the Society. At the very outset I may point out that the alleged deficit of the Outdoor hospital in 1958-59, if any, would be Rs. 89,659 (vide Ext. D), not Rs. 1,19,291 as mentioned in the table given in the Society's written statement. Two sets of audited balance-sheets have been put in. Exhibits C, C/1 and C/2 are the general balance-sheets covering all different units of the Society for the years 1958-59, 1959-60 and 1960-61, respectively, whereas Exts. D, D/1 and D/2 are balance-sheets covering the two hospitals in Calcutta for the above years respectively. The general balance-sheets are uncertified copies of originals which have not been produced. Though Ext. D series purport to be certified copies, their originals have not been filed. This may throw suspicion on the reliability of these balance-sheets.

According to the written statement and the balance sheets of the Society, the total deficits during the said three years would be Rs. 1,84,137, Rs. 2,48,925 and Rs. 2,65,018 respectively. It is said for the Union that the accountings of the Society are incorrect and have been intended for the purpose of the present case, and that the Society has been increasing its funds (Reserves & Surpluses) enormously from year to year at the cost of the poor workers. For the sake of argument, Shri Roy accepts the figures given in the said balance-sheets but attacks the method of accountings.

Exhibit D shows deficit of Rs. 64,845 in 1958-59 for the indoor hospital. Rs. 75,941 has been shown as salaries paid to doctors, nurses, ward boys and sweepers, as against Rs. 25,327 for the preceding year. Similarly, Rs. 11,757 has been shown as spent for salaries of the office establishment (including Provident Fund contribution) as against Rs. 6,161 of the preceding year. Ext. D/1 for 1959-60 shows much higher amounts of expenditure in comparison with those of preceding years. For example, deficit is shown to be Rs. 1,21,037; salaries paid are Rs. 96,473 and Rs. 15,893 as against Rs. 75,941 and Rs. 11,757 in 1958-59. Similarly, in Ext. D/2 for 1960-61 total deficit i indoor department is shown to have bee Rs. 1,30,833; salaries paid are shown to b Rs. 1,03,694 and Rs. 18,365 as against Rs. 96,47 and Rs. 15,893 in 1959-60.

Thus, not only the alleged deficits are increasin yearly, the expenses on account of salaries are als increasing very highly. No evidence has bee adduced by the Society to explain these hug increases, from year to year, in regard to salarie paid. In the absence of evidence it is to be presume that the staff members and employees remained th same and that there were increments in salaries an wages. After the close of arguments on both sides the Society put in a chart to show, by way o explanation, the increases in regard to salaries paid There is a note appended to this chart to state tha the indoor hospital was started from the 2nd Octobe 1957 with a skeleton staff which was gradually increased according to requirements. That woul rather indicate a flourishing condition quit undoubtedly. The fact remains that in spite of th alleged big losses year after year the Society did no hesitate to increase the staff every year and to pa higher amounts on account of salaries and wages The chart shows that there were six house surgeons etc., in 1958-59, eight in each of the years 1959-6 and 1960-61; six house staff in the first of these years, and seven and eight in succeeding years respectively; 15,18 and 23 members of nursing staff in those years respectively; 30, 34 and 36 ward boys and sweepers in those years respectively; and 11, 1 and 15 members of office staff in the said years respectively. If the financial condition of the Society was not flourishing gradually, new hands would not have been taken and increased salaries, etc., would not have been paid. In short, the Society would not have hazarded risks and embarked on the policy in the above manner if it were a losing concern at all. Besides, a very curious matter is mentioned in this chart. In regard to the Nursing Staff, ward-boys and sweepers it is shown as if all of them took one month's privilege leave in each of the years 1959-60 and 1960-61; even the new employees in a particular year are shown to have taken such leave in the very year of their appointments; and all these employees are shown as having been paid wages for 13 months in each of those two years. This is hardly believable. The Society has not produced registers or any office-records, out of which such a chart could have been prepared. In my view, this chart is a very futile attempt at explaining away the big increases in salaries and wages year after year. Similarly, increased salaries paid in regard to the outdoor hospital remain unexplained.

Apart from the above, very big amounts of money have been shown on the debit side of the balance-sheets as being spent on account of medicines, gas, etc., without any corresponding entry on the credit side as to their values. There are many instances, apparent from the balance-sheets, to show that large sums of money received as donations or otherwise have been transferred straightforth to the General Reserve Funds without being shown in the column for total income. It is said for the Society that donations, etc. were for specific purposes and hence these were not shown in the column of general total income. Instances of transferring such sums to any specific fund are few and far between. As a matter of fact, the alleged general total deficits have been set off or adjusted against the General Reserve Fund every year. Besides, O.P.W. 1 R. P. Patodia, a member of the Executive Committee of the Society, the only witness examined for the Society, has said in the examination-in-chief that they have no funds for the Indoor and Outdoor Hospitals, and in cross-examination that it is cent. per cent. correct that the Society has no funds. Such evidence cannot be believed. The balance-sheets show Reserve Funds and Surpluses. Exhibit C/2 for 1960-61 shows transfer of Rs. 1,21,500 to Hospital departments though there would be no fund for the two hospitals of the Society according to O.P.W. 1. In Ext. C/1 for 1959-60, a sum of Rs. 70,500 is shown as transferred to Hospital departments without the same being shown in the column of general total income. Again, when the alleged general deficits have been set off against the general reserve funds, the balance ought to be taken as the income of the particular year. Some bed concessions have been shown in the balance-sheets. These might be works of charities, but at the cost of the hard-working employees; and the deficits, if any, would have been due to such concessions and charities, but not in running the hospitals in the true sense. It is also to be noted that every year very big amount has been shown on the debit side on account of depreciation. In the aforesaid manner, it appears, greater expenditure have been shown than real total income. This method of accounting is challenged by Shri Roy. His contentions cannot be brushed aside lightly in view of what I have discussed above.

If the apparently extra expenses, as referred to above, be properly taken into consideration, it would appear that instead of deficits there would have been profits of the Society. There is another very important factor to support the contention of the Union. The general balance-sheets show reserves and surpluses to the extent of Rs. 21,53,632 in 1957-58, Rs. 24,73,656 in 1958-59, Rs. 26,31,091 in 1959-60, and Rs. 28,04,703 in 1960-61. According to O.P.W. 1, the reserve and surplus amounted to Rs. 7,57,000 in 1953-54. So it is clear that in course of 7-8 years the surpluses and reserves increased by leaps and bounds, by 400 per cent. nearly. In the circumstances it would be idle to say that the Society was running the hospitals at losses. It seems the Society is bent on making these reserves and surpluses bigger and bigger annually by throwing into these funds the money received from various sources, without having any regard for material progress for the workmen concerned in the shape of increased wages, though increased salaries were paid to the doctors, etc. It is enormously increasing the general reserve funds and investing money thereby, and by this act the workmen are being deprived of increments—the workmen who appear to be very poorly paid.

From the above I find that the financial position of the Society is sound and stable, and would admit of some increment in the wages of the workmen concerned. True, it is not a case for fixing minimum wages. The question here is what increment ought to be allowed to the workmen, having regard to their present wages as well as to the changed circumstances and the financial burden to which the Society would be put. The Society has put in a chart (Ext. A) showing 49 workers of the Indoor hospital and 19 of the Outdoor hospital. It shows maximum wage of Rs. 65 and minimum wage of Rs. 30, including in each case the flat-rate increment of Rs. 5 as per Shri Gan's award. Undoubtedly these are very small wages. Although the Union has not been able to show wages in any other hospital or clinic in Calcutta, Shri Roy has referred to the new pay scales introduced by the State Government in regard to the employees of the Goevrnment hospitals. The lowest scale is now Rs. 60. To accept this scale as the lowest in the present case would be putting the Society to hardships undoubtedly. Of the 68 employees of the Society, one gets Rs. 65, two Rs. 55, three Rs. 52, fifty-one Rs. 50, two Rs. 40, seven Rs. 35, and two Rs. 30, all inclusive of the increment of Rs. 5 allowed by Shri Gan. These wages are almost on starvation level, so to say. The kitchen employees (numbering six), however, get free fooding vide O.P.W. 1. Considering the conveniences and inconveniences of both parties, I allow increments to these 68 employees as shown below, and I believe the Society can afford to pay these increments which shall take effect from the 1st of November 1962. At present, grades and scales of wages are not fixed. Issue No. 1 is disposed of accordingly.

Present wages		Wages allowed
Rs.		Rs.
(i) 30.00	(kitchen employee)	34.00
(ii) 30.00	(other employee)	40.00
(iii) 35.00	(kitchen employee)	39.00
(iv) 35.00	(other employee)	44.00
(v) 40.00		49.00
(vi) 50.00		57.00
(vii) 52.00		59.00
(viii) 55.00		62.00
(ix) 65.00		70.00

Issue No. 2

The Union has claimed gratuity for the period not covered by the Provident Fund scheme which was introduced in the two hospitals in 1954 and 1957. Similar claim was rejected previously by Shri Gan. I have allowed some increments as above for all the concerned workmen of the Society. In the circumstances I am not disposed to fasten the Society with another liability in the shape of gratuity though the amount on this account may not be big. The prayer for gratuity is therefore disallowed.

Issue No. 3

The Union's case is that, when all other employees of the Society enjoy the privilege of weekly rest days and festival holidays, the same is denied to the poor workers concerned in the present dispute. The Society's case is that, besides the workmen's duty being in respect of essential service, they get one month's privilege leave, 15 days' casual leave and 15 days' sick leave in a year—all with full pay, and no further privilege in the shape of weekly and festival holidays should be conceded to as this would involve the Society in additional expenses. It is said that if these kinds of leave are granted to them, new hands would have to be taken to run the works smoothly. There is force in this connection of the Society. Additional expenses will have to be incurred if such kinds of leave are granted to the durwans, the kitchen employees, the employees of the Nature Cure Indoor Hospital, the dais, etc., whose number if few. To avoid discrimination and unrest amongst employees themselves, I consider it better not to allow these kinds of leave to any category of workmen concerned. This prayer, therefore, is rejected.

Award is passed accordingly.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Duars Transport Agency, Alipur Duar, Jalpaiguri, and their workmen represented by Automobile Workers' Association, Alipur Duar, Jalpaiguri, referred under Government order No. 4451-I.R.|IR|4L-34|61, dated the 18th July 1961. For the Company: Shri P. R. Mukherjee, Advocate and Shri Lenin Roy, Advocate.

The Government of West Bengal by its Labour Department, order No. 4451|I.R.|IR|4L-34|61, dated the 18th July 1961, referred to this Tribunal an industrial dispute between Messrs. Duars Transport Agency, Alipur Duar, Jalpaiguri (hereinafter referred to as the "Company") and their workmen represented by Automobile Workers' Association, Alipur Duar, Jalpaiguri (hereinafter referred to as the "Union" for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The issue referred to this Tribunal for adjudication is this:

Issue

Whether the transfer of Shri Akhil Nag was justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled

AWARD

This industrial dispute was originally referred to the local Frst Industrial Tribunal for adjudication. The First Industrial Tribunal called upon the Company to file its written statement and a preliminary written statement was filed by the Company on 6th September 1961. Then the Union filed its written statement on 27th September 1961. Subsequently the Company made a prayer for filing an additional written statement and eventually the prayer was allowed. The Company filed an additional written statement on 9th January 1962. In the meantime the Union prayed for local hearing of the case and on that ground the Government was moved by the Tribunal for transfer of this case. As a result the Government by its order No. 1897-I.R.|IR|4L-34|61 dated the 21st May 1962, withdrew the case from the file of the First Industrial Tribunal and transferred the case to this Tribunal. The record was received by this Tribunal on 14th June 1962. The case has accordingly been heard by me at Jalpaiguri with the consent of both the parties. Briefly stated Union's case is this. Shri Akhil Nag was a permanent employee of Messrs. Duars Transport Agency and was working as a conductor of the bus named "Sankar". He was an active member of the Union known as Automobile Workers' Association of Alipur Duar. At the relevant time he was the Secretary of this Union. The Company did not take his Union activities with good grace and just to victimise him he was transferred to a shop of Messrs. Samadder Bose and Co. on 22nd May 1959 and directed him to work as a salesman there. It is alleged that Messrs. Samadder Bose and Co. was a seperate and distinct firm from Messrs. Duars Transport Agency and so the transfer was not only mala fide but illegal also. The nature of a salesman's job was quite different from a conductor's job and as a salesman Shri Nag was not being paid the emoluments he was getting as a conductor. So Shri Nag was repeatedly requesting the Company in various ways to give him his original job of a conductor. The Company did not only turned a deaf ear to this reasonable request but actually got angry and lately dispensed with his services also.

The Company's case on the other hand is in short this: Messrs. Duars Transport Agency Alipur Duar and Messrs. Samadder Bose and Co. are both owned and run by the same partners. These two concerns are really two sections of the same partnership business. Shri Nag was originally given an appointment by this partnership firm on condition that he would have to work at either of the units whenever needed. At the relevant time the transport business of the Company was rather dull and so Shri Nag was directed to work in the motor parts department of the Company's shop on his own existing pay and emoluments. He joined his duty as salesman and worked there as such for some time. But from after 5th July 1959 he was absenting himself from duty without leave or absence. It is urged that the transfer was not mala fide and the order of transfer is perfectly valid and binding in law.

This is the real point at issue is whether the Company had at all any right or justification for transferring Shri Nag from his job of a bus conductor to that of a salesman in the circumstances of the present case.

There is no dispute that on the eve of the disputed transfer Shri Nag was working as a conductor of a bus named "Sankar" appertaining to Duars Transport Agency and this business was really a transport business belonging to the partners—Shri Bhuban Chandra Bose and Shri Sailendra Nath Samadder. Ext. C is the partnership agreement of these two partners and the firm is a registered one. It appears that this partnership firm not only intended but actually carries on different kinds of business under the name and style of "Samadder Bose & Co". The firm has a shop for sale of stationeries, hardware, motor-parts and various other things. It has a transport business also and this branch of the business is known as "Duars Transport Agency". The firm has timber business as well. Lately the firm owns a petrol pump also. It is also in evidence that the office of the transport business is housed in the same building with the shop. It is also in evidence that Shri Nag while employed as a conductor used to receive payment of his wages from Mati Babu or Sushil Babu both of whom were employees of the said shop. Thus it is not correct to say that Messrs. Samadder Bose & Co. as shop owners were altogether separate and distinct Company from Duars Transport Agency. Messrs. Duars Transport Agency is not a separate joint stock company or partnership firm. Thus there is not the least doubt that Duars Transport Agency is only a branch of a business carried on by a partnership firm known as "Messrs. Samadder Bose & Co."

For Income-Tax purposes also all the branches are treated as one business concern. So the Duars Transport Agency not being a juridical person it cannot be considered or treated as an employer also of Shri Nag. The partners are really the employers. It may be a fact that Shri Nag since the commencement of his service worked in the transport branch alone as a conductor. A conductor to work as such requires a licence also and Shri Nag admittedly had such a licence. It is also a fact that the salesman of the shop or the shop-assistants are not normally required to work in the Company's buses, because a regular employment as conductor presupposes a licence and the shop-assistants are not expected to have such licence. It appears however that on rare occasions during temporary absence of a conductor, this or that shop-assistant may be required by the employer to work as conductor for a day or two by way of stop gap arrangement. There is also no evidence to show that on any previous occasion any conductor was permanently employed as salesman or shop-assistant on transfer. For some reason or other, this was the 1st occasion when a permanent or regular conductor was directed to work as a shop assistant or salesman in the shop. I do not however think that the employment of a conductor as a shop-assistant is really a reduction in rank, if the wages and emoluments be same or similar. The job of a salesman does not by itself smack anything derogatory to a regular conductor of a service-bus. So the transfer cannot be challenged from this stand-point. The partner of the firm swears that Shri Nag was asked to work as salesman or shop-assistant on the same terms and conditions of service and for same wages and emoluments. Shri Nag however alleges that he was not being actually offered or paid same wages and remuneration as that of a conductor. This is a question of fact and I am not called upon to decide finally in this case what was the last total emoluments of Shri Nag as a conductor. This much is conceded by both the parties that the daily wages of Shri Nag though payable monthly was 2.44 nP. per diem. Shri Nag alleges that he used to get extra Rs. 1-8, i.e., 1.50 n.P per diem as daily fooding charges and this sum was payable daily and separately apart from his daily wages. The fact that such fooding charges if any, are said to be paid or payable separately shows that this payment was not a part and parcel of his regular wages or remuneration. Company alleges that this payment was not as regular feature on each working day, but it was payable under special circumstances only when for any reason the conductor was required to stay away from the station at night or was unable to return to his residence on any night. Thus while the workman's case is that the fooding charges were paid regularly to conductors for every working day, the Company's case is that such fooding charges were paid only when they were required to pass night away from head quarters. There is only oath versus oath on this point. Though another conductor of another bus of a different company has been examined by the workman before this Tribunal, nothing has been asked from that witness regarding the disputed system of paying fooding charges. This is not the only Company which carries on transport business in this part of the country. So the terms and conditions of service of such conductors of other Companies also are likely to be similar. Buses of different Companies actually ply on the same route and under similar circumstances, and yet the conductor of a sister-bus is not asked anything on the point for reasons best known to the parties. Admittedly the monthly paid wages received by Shri Nag do not include any amount of the disputed fooding charges. So I am unable to determine from the evidence before me that Shri Nag was really entitled to get Rs. 1-8 on every working day besides his daily wages. So I leave the point open for it is not essential for my purpose to devide this point finally in this case. All that I hold is that Shri Nag is entitled to get same wages and emoluments as a salesman or shop-assistant as he was getting as a bus-conductor, if the transfer be otherwise valid and permissible. But this remark of mine will not apply to contingency expenses or halting allowance if any, granted for extraneous reasons, by any employer to its employees.

The parties differ before me regarding certain other matters also both before and after the transfer in dispute. Of course, there are all questions of fact only. The parties differ as to the real reason for this transfer. They also differ regarding talks if any, that took place subsequently between a partner and the President of the Union. They also differ as to the reason why Shri Nag stopped attending the shop after some time of the transfer.

The workman tries to say that he was transferred simply because he was an active member of his Union to the dislike of his employer. But the evidence is that most of the workers of this trasport business of the locality are members of the Union. So I fail to see any reason why that will be a ground for transfer. There is another conductor also under the Company but he is not transferred. Another new conductor has to be appointed in his place and he may also be a member of the Union. So this vague allegation by itself carries no conviction with me. Shri Nag alleges that to avoid undue and unreasonable competition amongst different buses, he organised a Hut Bus Committee against the wishes of his employers and became the Secretary of the Committee and this enraged the present Company. This Committee, if any, was formed in the middle of 1959, and the rotation system was introduced. Shri Nag was transferred on 25th May 1959. It is admitted by Shri Nag's own witness also that this rotation system was introduced at the instance of both the workers and the employers. It is added that the workers requested their employers to introduce the rotation system and the employers agreed to this arrangement and that this Committee was actually formed at the instance of the employers themselves. Thus in the face of this evidence it is idle to urge or allege that Shri Nag was transferred on account of his organising a Hut Bus Committee against the wishes of his employer. It is of course difficult to say what part Shri Nag actually played in the affairs of formation of this so-called Hut Bus Committee. As Secretary of the Union he might be of some assistance to the formation. But it is difficult for me to accept that he incurred the displeasure of his employer on this ground. Shri Bhuban Chandra Bose, one of the partners, in his deposition says that the rotation system was actually introduced in 1961 by the Hut Bus Owners' Association, whereof Shri Babulal Mitra Majumder is the Secretary. He is not aware of any separate Association named Hut Bus Committee. In fact the Ext. 2 series—notices coming from the side of the workmen, rather show that the partners were parties to this Association going by the name of Hut Bus Owners' Association. In any case, whatever be the name of the organisation, the fact remains that the rotation system was actually introduced with the consent of the owners of the Bus and Shri Nag had no reason to be victimised on that ground by his employer. There must be some reason no doubt, for his transfer, but I think the grounds alleged by Shri Nag are not the real reasons. In trying to suppress the real reasons, Shri Nag tries to speak of certain other reason which carry no conviction with me.

It is admitted that at the relevant time there was no ticket system for the passengers of the bus. Fares would be collected by the conductor without issuing any ticket or receipt. So nobody except conductor could say what was the total collection on any day. So the honesty of the conductor was a large factor in determining the income of the owners of the bus. For some reason or other, the employers of Shri Nag started doubting the honesty of Shri Nag and the evidence is that the income of Shri Nag's bus was low compared to other buses plying in the same routes. I am afraid this may be one of the potent reasons why the employer thought fit to employ Shri Nag elsewhere and transfer him to the shop. There is also reason to believe that Shri Nag for obvious reasons did not like the transfer and wanted to continue as conductor even though the job of a salesman was evidently less tiresome and less exacting. I do not believe the story that Shri Nag was transferred simp because the transport business was dull as alleged Shri Bose. The fact remains that the bus 'Sank continued to ply in spite of Shri Nag's transfer and substitute conductor also had to be found. It contended that no charge-sheet was issued agai Shri Nag on the alleged ground of dishonesty and this suspicion has no basis. There is no doubt th employers could at best suspect, because they h no material or evidence enough to establish any su charge. In fact, there was hardly any scope f proving any such allegation even if the same was tru What I am really considering is nothing but the sub jective aspect of the employer in respect of thi transfer and not a punishment by itself. This transfe was not treated by the employer as a punishment Be that as it may, Shri Nag after receipt of the orde of transfer tried to pursuade the employer in variou ways to allow him to continue as conductor and Shr Nani Bhattacharjee also interfered into the matter. He had talk with Shri Bose in this connection. Shr Bhattacharjee contends that Shri Bose assured him that Shri Nag would be re-appointed as conductor after sometime. But Shri Bose denies that he gave any such assuarance or undertaking. It is difficult for me to say who is correct on this point. But I simply observe that I am not required to consider in this case whether there was really any bipartite agreement for re-employment of Shri Nag as conductor and whether such agreement, if any, should be enforced. What I am really required to consider is whether there was any justification for the transfer itself which took place long before this talk between Shri Bose and Shri Bhattacharjee. If there was right and justification on the employer for making the transfer, I am afraid, I cannot investigate about the subsequent conduct of the parties, for it will be beyond the scope of this reference. If the transfer was not justified the law will take its own course irrespective of the subsequent talk, if any, between the Union Presiden and the partner concerned. For this identical reason I am not really required to investigate under what circumstances Shri Nag ceased to report for duties in the shop. The fact is, Shri Nag has long ceased t attend the shop—his place of duty after transfe It is the case of both the parties that Shri Na attended the shop for some days only after the transfe and received payment of his remuneration also. Bu he stopped going to the shop from a certain date Shri Nag alleges that on his insisting for employmen of a conductor, the Company got angry with him an asked him not to come to work any more, and thu he stopped going to shop thereafter. But the Com pany alleges that Shri Nag is absenting himself of hi own accord without leave, permission or intimation for reasons not known to the Company. Shri Bos denies that Shri Nag was asked not to attend hi duties. Thus the oral evidence on the point is mor or less evenly balanced. But the Ext. B—a lette admittedly written by Shri Nag throws an additiona light on the matter. The letter purports to say tha Shri Nag filed an application on the 1st of July 1959 for leave with effect from 6th July 1959 and that th Ext. B is a further prayer for extension. But nobody's case before me that Shri Nag actually a any leave application on 1st July 1959 for le Rather Shri Nag clearly alleges that he was asked to go to work and so he stopped going to shop. I am afraid, this Ext. B was only an after-thou in order to cover the unauthorised absence du the month of July 1959. Whatever be the real intention, the Ext. B belies Shri Nag's allegation that he stopped going to shop on the words of the Company. Shri Nag was evidently unhappy over the transfer and the Management also during the 1st few days of Shri Nag's employment as salesman did not seriously and sincerely utilised the services of this disgruntled employee and rather allowed him to idle away his time during this period of his mental agitation. But Shri Nag felt slighted in all respects and started absenting himself without leave or intimation. A more prudent and wiser counsel at a later stage saw the difficulty and the Ext. B saw the light of the day. So, on the evidence on record it is difficult to hold that the management direction was responsible for the absence of Shri Nag from the 1st week of July 1959. A constitutional fight through the good offices of the Union over the validity of the transfer should not have prevented Shri Nag from attending his duties during the pendency of the dispute. In any case, I am not to consider in this case, what are the legal consequences of such an absence. At the relevant time he was a shop-assistant or salesman and there is no standing order for this shop-establishment. I cannot say what view was taken by the management in respect of this absence of Shri Nag. So I confine myself to the question of transfer alone. I have already found that Shri Nag was an employee of a partnership firm of two partners who carry on different kinds of business. No letter of appointment was issued in favour of Shri Nag. There was no agreement that Shri Nag would not be transferred to any other branch of the business of the firm. So in the absence of any such agreement it cannot be said that a workman once employed as a conductor would always remain a conductor. I think unless there is any contract to the contrary the employer is entitled to transfer an employee from one branch of his business to a different branch provided the service conditions are not affected to the prejudice of the employee. So in the light of the circumstances already discussed I think the firm or the Company had every right to transfer Shri Nag to the shop in the discharge of its management function and this Tribunal has no valid ground for interference. So the transfer in question cannot be said to be without justification and Shri Nag is not entitled to any relief on this score. The issue is decided accordingly.

This is my award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Victoria Jute Works, post office Telinipara, district Hooghly, and their workmen of the Weaving Department, represented by (1) National Union of Jute Workers, Victoria Jute Works Branch, Ferry Ghat Street, post office Telinipara, district Hooghly, and (2) Victoria Chatkal Mazdoor Union, Ferry Ghat Street, post office Telinipara, district Hooghly, referred under Government order No. 1488-I.R., dated the 27th March 1961 (Case No. VIII-118/61.)

For Victoria Chatkal Mazdoor Union: Shri Girija Mukherjee.

For the Company: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate.

The Government of West Bengal, by its Labour Department, order No. 1488-I.R.|IR|7L-21|60, dated the 27th March 1961, referred to this Tribunal an industrial dispute between Messrs. Victoria Jute Works, post office Telinipara, district Hooghly (hereafter referred to as the Company) and their workmen of the Weaving Department represented by (1) National Union of Jute Workers, Victoria Jute Works Branch, Ferry Ghat Street, post office Telinipara, district Hooghly, and (2) Victoria Chatkal Mazdoor Union, Ferry Ghat Street, post office Telinipara, district Hooghly (hereafter referred to as the Union), for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The issue referred to this Tribunal for adjudication is as follows:—

Whether the proposed change of working hours of the Weaving Department is justified? What relief, if any, the workmen are entitled to?

AWARD

The Union as well as the Management have filed their respective written statements in respect of the point at issue. The workmen of the mill are represented by two different Unions—one National Union of Jute workers, Victoria Jute Branch, and the other Victoria Chatkal Mazdoor Union. These two Unions have filed separately written statements but both of them challenge the justifiability of the proposed change in the timing of the working hours. I shall discuss the cases of the different parties while considering the issue on merit.

This Company has two mills under it—one is known as No. 1 mill and the other as No. 2 mill. Before the 12th of December 1960, this Company used to run No. 1 mill in single shift only. But for certain reasons Samnugar South Jute Factory situated at Garulia having closed and the present Company having purchased the loom-hours of that closed mill, it arranged to work its No. 1 mill in double shift. It may be mentioned here that I am concerned in this reference with the weaving department alone. Before 12th December 1960, when the mill used to run in one shift, the timing of the working hours of this department were from 6 to 10-36 a.m. and 12-30 p.m. to 4-30 p.m. on all working days except Friday and Saturday. On Friday the timing was 6 a.m. to 11 a.m. and 12-54 p.m. to 4-30 p.m. and on Saturday from 6 a.m. to 11 a.m. But on the introduction of the double shift, change in these timings became unavoidably necessary. When the double shift was introduced first, the weaving department started working according to the following timings:—

"A" Shift

Monday to Friday

6 a.m. to 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Saturday

6 a.m. to 10 a.m.

"B" Shift

Monday to Friday

11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Saturday

10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

In the above timing each loom was being operated by two weavers—one in the 1st shift and another in the 2nd shift. Naturally it became difficult to measure individual production. While the department was running in single shift, one loom was operated by one weaver only and there was no difficulty in measurement of individual production. So after the introduction of double shift and working hours being timed as above, production of each loom was the combined result of two weavers and they were being paid equally. But the efficiency of each of the two weavers of the combination cannot be equal or identical and the more efficient weaver of the two was likely to lose incentive to produce more. According to the management the production of the mill actually suffered or fell down considerably after the introduction of the above timings in double shift. So the management felt need of changing the timing of the working hours for better production; and wanted to introduce a straight shift with short break in the middle, so that the production of each weaver might be separately measured and paid according to h capacity and efficiency. With this intention th management called a meeting of the Works Committe members and special representatives of the weaver After some discussion and deliberation the meetin agreed to the introduction of new timings in straigl shift for the weaving department. Exhibit A is th recorded proceedings of this meeting. This meetin was held on 1st March 1961. Accordingly o 13th March 1961 the management issued a notic intending to introduce the said agreed change witl effect from 3rd April 1961 and Ext. 1 is a copy o this notice. The proposed timings were as follows:—

"A" Shift

Monday to Friday

5 a.m. to 8-30 a.m. and 9 a.m. to 12-30 p.m.

"B" Shift

Monday to Friday

12-30 p.m. to 4 p.m. and 4-30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

But this proposed change was not accepted by the weavers with equanimity and they raised this dispute. So the management pending settlement of the dispute refrained from introducing the proposed change. Hence this Tribunal is required to consider if the proposed change of the working hours of the weaving department is justifiable. I may at once point out that the proposed change is not intended to increase the total quantum of weekly working hours. The change is really in respect of timing and distribution only of the working hours. From the two written statements filed by the two Unions representing the workmen, it appears that they feel aggrieved by this proposed change. But they have not cared to state why they are so sore over the proposed change and what are the actual or apprehended difficulties if any At the time of hearing before this Tribunal, however one weaver who has already retired from the Company's service has been examined in this connection His statement is that it is difficult for the jute mil workers (including weavers) to work for eight hours at a stretch with half an hour's recess in the middle, because half an hour's break in the middle is not sufficient for cooking and taking meal and necessary rest. According to this witness if there be a recess of 1 hour or 1½ hours in the middle, there will not be much difficulty. He adds further that the Company is not likely to have any difficulty in maintaining the previous or existing timing of double shift working hours. But from the proceedings of the said meeting (vide Ext. A) it appears that the Manager was agreeable to allow one hour or 1½ hours recess in the middle of straight shift, but the workers' representatives did not like the idea or accept the proposal. So the management accepted a worker's proposal of seven hours working day with a half-hour break. Of course, it is neither party's case before me that the resolution of the said meeting of the management and the workers' representatives is binding in law on the general workers or the weavers. All that it shows that the management in all fairness wanted to put up its difficulty before the representatives and consult their views before introducing any change. So there is no substance in the allegation that the management really wanted to introduce a change just in pursuance of an anti-labour policy of harassment. It is argued on behalf of the workmen that the weavers did not mplain even though two weavers operating a single om were being equally paid irrespective of difference any, in their efficiency and so the management ould not try to affect a change. But I am afraid, sence of complaint is not the only considerations. here may not be any complaint or grievance in this spect, but in fact, psychological trouble might have ready taken place and this is reflected in the fall overall production and the suppressed grievance the efficient workers must have repercussion on erall production. I am told, production has conderably fallen after the introduction of double shift the current timing and the management has filed two arts before me to show how the production has en affected (vide Ext. B series). It is not at all nlikely that the more efficient of the two weavers f a loom has lost much of his incentive, for the less ficient hand yoked with him is always likely to gain his cost and this will be indirectly giving premium indolence also. On the other hand, it appears it not possible or practicable or a convenient business roposition to measure the production of each weaver vice a day, and the existing arrangement for measureent does not make it possible too. Any attempt in is direction will not only multiply the work of easurement, but also create enormous difficulties in cording and calculating wages. Unduly extra labour r measurement and calculation is likely to increase e cost of production and disturb the business proosition in a competative market. Undue fall also in roduction a tendency whereof is already clearly isible, will again be ruinous for the business—a usiness which has to face world-wide competition. o I am unable to accept the contention that this roposed change in the timing of working hours was ctuated by any malice or mala fide or any spirit of ictimisation.

I may also point out that the fixing of hours of work or timings thereof is normally and primarily a management function—a function relating to internal dministration. It is for the employer or the businessan to determine how his business is to be best conucted. He knows best how or when his mill is to un more profitably. If in doing so he transgresses o law or takes to no unfair labour practice, Tribunal as no jurisdiction to interfere. Workers may find a it inconvenient to work during night hours—the eriod ordinarily meant for rest, but that does not or annot prevent the employer from introducing a night hift with due notice thereof. Similarly simply because e weavers worked according to a certain programme f working hours for some time, it cannot be argued at the employer will not be entitled to change that ming, however uneconomic that timing may ultiately prove. Of course, I may simply observe that affecting a change, the employer must also consider e bona fide difficulties and inconveniences of the rkers and no undue difficulties should be created ere it is possible to avoid them. Best production possible or secured only where there is willing coeration between the labour and the capital; the rkers and the management. They must learn to preciate each others' difficulties for ultimate best sults. Producer can pay higher remuneration only hen he produces more and runs the business at a ofit. Having these considerations in view, I afforded veral opportunities to both the parties to come to amicable settlement by evolving a better formula ceptable to both the parties. But unfortunately parties failed to submit any agreed proposal though I granted repeated adjournments for the purpose. From the oral evidence of the workers' sides before me, it appears that the quantum of recess in the middle of the proposed straight shift is considered insufficient and I am told that at least one hour's recess in the middle may eliminate the difficulty of the workers to a large extent. Though fixation of working hours and determining timing thereof is primarily a management function, on my querry the learned advocate for the Company informs me that the management is quite agreeable to enlarge the period of recess to one hour and allow consequent modification of the timings of the commencement of the different shifts. So I think a modified timing with one hour recess in the middle of the straight shifts is worth a fair trial until a better and agreed scheme is found out or evolved by the joint efforts of the parties. I think the rest interval for B shift-workers on Saturday may be conveniently reduced to half an hour only.

Before I conclude I must also consider the two objections raised on behalf of the workers. It is urged that any change in the service condition under section 9A of the Industrial Disputes Act requires clear 21 days' notice and for the proposed change the management gave more than 20 days' notice. The notice was admittedly issued on 13th March 1961 and the change was to be introduced on 3rd April 1961.

The next objection is that this Tribunal is required only to see if the proposed change in working hours is justifiable and nothing more. So it is urged that this Tribunal cannot fix new timings of working hours in this case.

I shall discuss about these two objections one by one.

As to notice I may point out that the Company issued the notice on 13th March 1961 and intended to affect the contemplated change on 3rd April 1961. But in fact this change was not actually affected on the proposed date, and the introduction thereof was kept in abeyance on account of the dispute raised by the workers. The section provides that no employer shall effect such change within 21 days of giving such notice and in fact the change has not been affected also within 21 days for some reason or other. I think the notice regarding proposal for change cannot be said to be illegal and useless simply because the proposed date of introduction was within 21 days. As the notice of the proposal for change was given long ago from now and as more than 21 days have passed in the meantime before any actual change, I think the section will not be a bar any longer. Moreover, the change was proposed to be introduced actually on the 22nd day of the issue. So it is doubtful whether it can be said at all that the change was intended to be affected within 21 days. So I think the first objection fails. However now that the change will be affected in pursuance of this award, the bar will no longer be there in the eye of law.

The next objection is whether this Tribunal can fix a fresh timing for the commencement of working hours or shift-intervals in partial modification of Company's proposal in view of the nature of reference made to this Tribunal. I have found that the Company had sufficient reason for proposing a change. But it is also agreeable to make a modification thereof to better suit the convenience of the workers and thus eliminate some inconveniences of the workers resulting from the proposed change. This Tribunal is no doubt, bound to confine its adjudication to points of dispute specified by the Government and to matters incidental thereto. The Government wanted me to see the justifiability of the proposed change and also to consider what relief if any, is due to the workmen. I have considered the point of justifiability as referred to me and found the change not unreasonable or unjustifiable. However I have directed a slight modification also by way of some relief to the workers with the consent of the Company. So I think the provisions of law have not been violated in letter or spirit and the objection therefore fails.

So I direct that the change in the timings of the shift will be effected in the following way and it will continue until the parties can evolve a better and agreed scheme in the matter.

"A" Shift

Monday to Friday

5 a.m. to 8-30 a.m. and 9-30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Saturday

5 a.m. to 9 a.m. and 10 a.m. to 1-30 p.m.

"B" Shift

Monday to Friday

1 p.m. to 4-30 p.m. and 5-30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Saturday

1-30 p.m. to 5-30 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 9-30 p.m.

This is my award.

Issue

1. Whether the dismissal of Shri Radha Raman Kundu is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

Award

After service of usual notices on the parties both the parties entered appearance and filed their respective written statements. The workman's case in his written statement is as follows:

Shri Radha Raman Kundu is a permanent workman of the said Company and served as clerk in the cash section for about 13 years. There was another clerk named Shri Ranadhir Roy Chaudhury and he also used to make the payments to workmen like Shri Kundu. The Company all on a sudden, dismissed Shri Kundu with effect from 3rd of January 1961, without issuing any charge-sheet or holding any departmental enquiry. He was dismissed on the plea of shortage of fund in the cash. Shri Kundu by his letter dated 14th December 1960, categorically informed the Company that in fact, there would be no shortage of fund as alleged, if accounts of the relevant period be properly adjusted. The fact is that Shri Ranadhir Roychowdhury misappropriated Company's fund and left the service without notice and this was an attempt on the part of the Company to shift the fault of Shri Roychowdhury on the shoulder of Shri Kundu. In the circumstances, Shri Kundu lodged a vigorous protest and after this protest, the Management arranged a show of enquiry which was clearly an instance of afterthought. Material documents and important witnesses were not produced during the domestic enquiry. All attempts for amicable settlement having failed, the Union raised the present dispute.

The Company's case on the other hand is this:

Shri Kundu was a clerk in cash section and was entrusted with an imprest cash of Rs 2,600. His main job was to disburse weekly wages to the workmen, to maintain unpaid account of weekly wages, to pay advances, production bonus, etc. On 16th August 1960 Shri A. K. Mitra, an Accountant of the Company's Head Office, came to check up the cash in the hands of Shri Kundu and found a shortage of Rs. 749.51 nP. Shri Mitra prepared a reconciliation statement and Shri Kundu endorsed his signature thereto accepting the correctness of the statement. Shri Kundu was asked to make good the loss of the said account, but he failed to do it. On 30th December 1960 his cash was again checked by the Company's Accounts Supervisor and a further shortage of Rs. 241.36 nP. was detected. Shri Kundu failed to explain this shortage also. So, the Management did not think it necessary to institute a formal domestic enquiry and summarily dismissed him from service with effect from 3rd January 1961. The National Tobacco Company Employees' Union, however, raised a dispute on behalf of Shri Kundu on the ground that no opportunity was given to Shri Kundu to explain his conduct. The Assistant Labour Commissioner of Barrackpore intervened in the matter and advised the Management to hold an enquiry. Accordingly an enquiry was held on the 11th and 14th August 1961 and all the available witnesses were examined and Shri Kundu was afforded all opportunities to cross-examine the witnesses and defend himself. On the desire of the workman himself the Secretary of the Union was allowed to be personally present during the enquiry proceedings as an observer. The enquiring officer submitted a report after the enquiry, finding Shri Kundu guilty of the offence charged. The Management accepted findings and thus failed to see any reason for reversal of its previous decision. Accordingly it is urged that Shri Kundu was dismissed for justifiable reasons. Other facts will appear from the body of the award that follows.

From what I have stated above, it will be clear that Shri Kundu was an employee in the cash section of the factory office. It is also not in dispute that he was dismissed by the Management on the alleged ground of shortage of fund at his disposal or misappropriation of Company's money. This dismissal was given effect to from the 3rd of January, 1961. There is no dispute over the fact that no charge-sheet was actually issued against Shri Kundu before his services were dispensed with. It is also admitted that no formal enquiry in respect of the charge levelled against him was instituted before the order of dismissal was issued. Accordingly the contention on behalf of the workmen is that this dismissal by the Management was in gross violation of rules of natural justice. It is urged that no opportunity being afforded to the workmen concerned for explaining his conduct and the alleged discrepancy, the dismissal was highly arbitrary and accordingly cannot be supported in law. It is also urged that the allegation of misappropriation will not stand if the accounts of the relevant period be properly adjusted and considered in the light of surrounding circumstances. So, I am required to consider in the present case whether the dismissal in question was actually in violation of rules of natural justice and also whether there are evidences or materials in support of the allegation that there was misappropriation of Company's money or shortage of Company's fund.

Before I discuss the above points at issue on merit, I must mention here and now, certain facts which will facilitate proper appreciation of the case before this Tribunal. To understand the case of either of the parties it is necessary to know the system followed by the factory in respect of payment of wages, including sick leave wages and privilege leave wages. We must also try to understand the responsibility of Shri Kundu in respect of these disbursements. The Company's Head Office is at Calcutta whereas its factory is at Agarpara. The Company has monthly paid employees as well as weekly paid employees in its factory. In the factory there is one officer who is designated either as Chief Cashier or Office Master or Officer-in-Charge of the Cash. This Chief Cashier had under him two petty cashiers and at the relevant time, Shri Kundu was working as one of these two petty cashiers. In 1959 one Shri Ranadhir Roychowdhury was the other petty cashier. As petty cashier, Shri Kundu was entrusted with an imprest cash of Rs. 2,600. Similarly, Shri Roychowdhury also was separately entrusted with an imprest cash of Rs. 1,000 or so. Thus, each one of these two petty cashiers was responsible for the imprest cash separately entrusted to them. Besides above, the factory used to obtain from its Head Office at Calcutta, a lump sum amount each week for payment of wages. This sum would be formally received by the office Master or the Chief Cashier, who, in his turn used to hand over the said sum against an I.O.U. to Shri Kundu for payment of weekly wages, sick leave wages and privilege leave wages, etc. It may be mentioned in this connection that Shri Kundu was in-charge of making payment of weekly paid workers and also the sick leave wages and privilege leave wages in respect of such workers. These payments were usually made on Saturday. Shri Kundu alone could not always make payments of all weekly wages as well as sick leave and privilege leave wages. So, other clerks used to be deputed to help him in making the payments. Such deputed employees of other departments usually would make odd payments like sick leave wages and privilege leave wages. These deputed employees used to draw cash from Shri Kundu against I.O.U's, which were held by Shri Kundu till such employees submitted to him, the accounts of payments made by them together with cash, representing the unpaid balance. Shri Kundu was responsible for submitting to the Head Office through the Chief Cashier, abstract of weekly wages, privilege leave and sick leave wages and also the difference between the amount received from the Head Office and the total of the abstract. When the total of the abstract exceeded the amount received from the Head Office, the Head Office was to reimburse the difference. If on any occasion, the amount received from the Head Office would not be sufficient for making full payment of the weekly wages, the difference would be paid out of the factory petty cash which would remain in the hand of the petty cashier as imprest cash advance. Subsequently, the statement of unpaid wages along with the unpaid wage cash were also to be sent to the Head Office. On occasions, the amounts paid in excess to the workmen were also to be collected and remitted to Head Office, along with a statement thereof. Shri Roychowdhury was in-charge of making payments to monthly paid employees and also making other payments not entrusted to Shri Kundu. Thus, Shri Roychowdhurp's responsibility was actually separate and individual from that of Shri Kundu. It is also not in dispute that on occasions, Shri Roychowdhury also would be deputed to help Shri Kundu in disbursing different kinds of wages to weekly paid workers. But in this capacity Shri Roychowdhury would work only as an agent of Shri Kundu and thus, was accountable to Shri Kundu. I may also mention in this connection that Shri Kundu actually misappropriated some amounts and left the service of the Company on 23rd November 1959 without rendering account of the fund at his disposal or control. This being the state of affairs, the Company sent Shri A. K. Mitra to Factory on 16th August 1960 to cheek up and verify the accounts and the cash in respect of Shri Kundu. Shri Mitra looked into Shri Kundu's accounts and the relevant papers and found that the fund at the disposal of Shri Kundu was short by about Rs 749.51 nP. on 16th August 1960. In fact, Shri Mitra prepared a reconciliation statement of cash as on 16th August 1960 and got it signed by the Chief Cashier and some other officers at the factory and also Shri Kundu himself, (vide Ext. A). According to this statement. there was a shortage of Rs 749.51 nP. as mentioned above. On receipt of the report of Shri Mitra, the Company directed Shri Kundu to make good the shortage of the fund. But Shri Kundu neither complied with the direction of the Management nor reconciled the discrepancies in this respect. On 30th December 1960, the Head Office deputed Shri D. Dasgupta, the Accounts Supervisor, to make a further check up of Shri Kundu's account. Shri Dasgupta found on 30th December 1960 that the discrepancy swelled up to Rs. 990.87 nP. Thus, an additional shortage of Rs. 241.36 nP. was detected by him. Shri Kundu failed to explain this discrepancy as well and accordingly the Management decided to dismiss Shri Kundu forthwith and he was actually dismissed with effect from 3rd January 1961. It appears this summary dismissal without any charge-sheet or enquiry aggrieved Shri Kundu and his case was taken up by his union. The Labour Commissioner concerned was moved in the matter and the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Barrackpore, after a joint conference of the parties, advised the Management to institute a formal enquiry into the allegation of misappropriation of Company's money by Shri Kundu. It appears that the Company accepted the suggestion and an enquiry was held actually in presence of Shri Kundu and the Union Secretary as observer. The Union Secretary was allowed to be present on the request of Shri Kundu himself. However, the finding ot this enquiry did not go in favour of Shri Kundu and the Management confirmed its previous decision of dismissal.

From what I have said above, it is clear that no formal charge-sheet was issued before dismissal and no departmental enquiry actually preceded the order of dismissal. The domestic enquiry if any, took place after dismissal and during the subistance of the order of dismissal. Hence it is urged that this post dismissal enquiry is not valid in law and cannot be relied o in support of the previous arbitrary dismissal. It i contended that thus there was gross violation of rul of natural justice and the order of dismissal shoul be set aside. But if post dismissal enquiry is treate as no enquiry, still the Management's decision canno be reversed on that ground alone. The Tribunal ha to see if the evidences before it are sufficient to estab lish the alleged offences. I shall discuss the merit o the charge hereafter. But the learned Counsel for th Company points out that in this case the worker or th Union cannot go back on their agreement entered int during concilliation proceedings and cannot challang the enquiry simply on the ground that the enquir followed the order of dismissal. The dispute wa promptly raised by the Union over the dismissal i question as soon as the Management took the actio and the usual conciliation proceedings were started b the Labour Directorate. On the suggestion of th Assistant Labour Commissioner by way of conciliation a departmental enquiry was agreed upon by bot the parties. Shri Kundu was informed about th charge against him by the letter, dated 3rd Januar 1961 (Ext. C), and there was a regular enquiry i respect of the charge and the worker participated i right earnest, and he was afforded all opportunities t defend himself. The finding of the enquiry was however against Shri Kundu and the previous Management decision stood. Hence it is urged that in fact there was no violation of rules of natural justice at th enquiry which was quite fair and impartial and so the Tribunal has no reason to interfere. I think the enquiry, though belated, was the result of an agreed settlement which cannot be lightly brushed aside unilaterally any longer. Unless there was anything wrong with the enquiry itself, the finding cannot be any longer challenged except on the ground of perversity or baselessness of the allegation itself. There was no uncertainty about the charge and the workman was duly informed about it. It was nowhere pleaded that mere absence of a formal charge-sheet any way prejudiced him. Shri Kundu tried to explain away the charge in his own way but in no uncertain terms. So there was no prejudice in this respect. Shri Nanda Dulal Srimani, the Secretary, was all along present at the enquiry. Shri Kundu elaborately cross-examined Company's witnesses. Shri Kundu himself made a long statement in writing. He was also examined by the enquiry officer. No witness actually produced by Shri Kundu was refused examination. Shri Kundu wanted the Company to produce Mr. Jacob and Shri Ray Chowdhury for examination. But Jacob was away from the shores of India and Shri Roy Chowdhury was absconding at the time. So it was not possible for the Company to produce either. Shri Kundu also made no attempt to produce these two witnesses sought to be examined on his own behalf. So no mala fides may be attributed to the Company or the enquiring officer. Thus I find no sufficient reason to interfere with the Management's decision because there were sufficient materials before the equiring officer for finding Shri Kundu guilty of the charge.

Assuming for argument's sake only that the enquiry is bad as it was held after the order of dismissal, dated 3rd January 1961, let me see if the evidences before me are sufficient to establish the charge levelled against Shri Kundu.

From the evidence before this Tribunal it is sufficiently clear that the imprest system of petty cash was prevalent for maintaining petty cash and this system is known as the best method for the purpose. According to Shri J. R. Batliboi the famous author on advanced accounting, "under this method, an amount estimated as necessary for the possible needs of the business to meet petty expenses for the week or the month is drawn by a cheque and handed over to the petty cashier. At the end of the fixed period or earlier when the petty cashier comes to the end of his resources, the petty cash book after being totalled and balanced is presented by the petty cashier to the cashier for a fresh cheque. The cashier after satisfying himself as to correctness of the record, issues a cheque for the exact amount expended. The amount of this cheque together with the imprest balance will restore in the hands of the petty cashier the original sum with which he was started." ["Advanced Accounting" (16th Edition) by J. R. Batliboi.] This system is taken advantage of in this Company with slight modification. There was a permanent advance of Rs. 2,600 in the hand of Shri Kundu (hereafter referred to as permanent advance) and this amount was advanced by the Head Office. Petty expenses are met out of this amount and when Shri Kundu's resources of permanent advance would come down the amount expended would be reinbursed from the Head Office on his submitting the account of the exact amount expended. Thus the amount expended plus the imprest balance would show the original sum of permanent advance and if the expended portion be reinbursed the original sum would be restored in his hand. Besides above Shri Kundu was in charge of disbursement of regular wages to weekly paid workers. He was also in charge of paying privilege leave wages and sick leave wages to workers and for these payments of wages he used to receive lump sums (hereafter referred to as wage advance) every week from the cashier to the Officer-in-Charge against I.O.U. If any other officer would be deputed to assist Shri Kundu and disburse wages on his behalf, such deputed persons also would receive lump sums from Kundu against I.O.U executed by them. There is some dispute however as to how the I.O.U of the Assistants deputed is dealt with pending final rendering of accounts by them. According to Shri Kundu, he used to hand over such I.O.U. to the cashier or the Officer-in-Charge along with the balance, if any, of wage-advance, before the accounts are finally settled and the Assistants could get back the I.O.U. from the Officer-in-Charge or cashier. But according to the Management, the I.O.U of the Assistants would always be held by Shri Kundu himself until the final clearance because he was responsible for the entire amount of wage advance received by him against his own I.O.U. It is admitted by Shri Kundu also that all the deputed employees including Shri Roy Chowdhury were required to submit accounts of their disbursement and return the balances, to him. So it is only natural that Shri Kundu should hold their I.O.U till then. It is a fact that Shri Roy Chowdhury absconded at the relevant time without rendering accounts of some money which was in his control or custody at the time. But this did not affect the position of Shri Kundu because the advance if any Shri Roy Chowdhury took from him was against some I.O.U. If Shri Roy Chowdhury's I.O.U was handed over to the cashier by Shri Kundu for any reason as he alleges, the I.O.U would be there still unredeemed. So the cash shortage if any in the hands of Shri Kundu must be backed by I.O.U or actual payment if any in excess of wage-advance, yet to be reinbursed. So Shri Kundu cannot shift the responsibility of shortage if any to anybody else, irrespective of the question whether anybody took advance from him and fled away without rendering accounts.

Besides the above permanent advance and the wage-advance, Shri Kundu was accountable for another type of money. At times weekly paid workers are paid in excess on account of mistake in calculation of wages and such excess payments are recouped in cash or deducted from the weekly wages of the workers concerned later. after the mistake is detected. It is also in evidence that these recouping are made by Shri Kundu the Officer-in-Charge of making payments to such weekly paid workers. Shri Kundu is required to submit a list or statement of such recoveries and forward the same to the Head Office along with the realised amount. In his examination-in-chief Shri Kundu tried to say before me that he was yet to get certain amounts of such short adjustments from Roy Chowdhury in respect of 5-6 weeks, and these amounts would total No. 170-172. He evidently means to say that he failed to get the amount from Shri Roy Chowdhury who recouped same from workers. But in his cross-examination Shri Kundu is forced to admit that by short adjustment (as used in Ext. A) he means refund of money by the weekly paid employees only who were paid in excess previously. He also adds that these refunds were to be made to him alone and not to Ranadhir Babu at any time. P.W. 2 Shri Sunil Baran Das, a witness for Kundu, says that recovery of amount paid in excess is done by the Wage Section and then it is deposited with Radha Raman Babu of the Cash Section. Thus it is clear that the amount of short adjustments were never realised by Shri Roy Chowdhury or handed by him. So it cannot be argued that he decamped with the amounts of short adjustments and hence the shortage in the cash in the hands of Shri Kundu. Even if I assume that Shri Roy Chowdhury has run away with a sum of Rs. 170-172 on this account as alleged by Shri Kundu, the total discrepancy in cash is not explained. If Shri Roy Chowdhury took some advances from him for disbursement against I.O.U. either the payment account will show it or the I.O.U will back it. There is not the least dispute that there was actual shortage of cash in Shri Kundu's hand on 16th August 1960 and the shortage amounted to Rs 749.51 nP. No acceptable explanation is forthcoming from Kundu in respect of this difference. His attempt to shift the burden to Shri Roy Chowdhury and make him scape goat totally fails. On 30th December 1960, the difference swelled up by a further sum of Rs 241.26 nP. (vide Ext. A|1) when Shri Roy Chowdhury was completely out of the picture; and yet there is no explanation for this. So without further discussion I may at once observe that even the evidence before this Tribunal is sufficient to establish the charge against Shri Kundu. So question of any interference with the Management decision does not arise at all. Defalcation of Employer's money is a very serious charge—nay a criminal offence too and there is no scope for sympathy or mercy for such a delinquent. So dismissal is not an excessive punishment for such an offence. Result is dismissal of Shri Kundu is fully justified and he is not entitled to any relief.

This is my award.

AWARD

By order No. 4878-I.R./IR/11L-294(A)/61, dated the 8th August 1961, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, t industrial dispute between Messrs. P. C. Chand & Sons, 127/1A Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, a their workmen represented by the Calcut Goldsmithy & Jewellery Workers' Union, 16/ College Street, Calcutta-12, regarding the matt specified in the schedule, to the Third Industri Tribunal, constituted under section 7A of t Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notificati No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 195 for adjudication.

Issue

Whether the refusal of employment to t following workman is justified? What relie if any, is he entitled to?

(i) Kalipada Roy.

This reference came from the Government f adjudication of an industrial dispute existing betwe Messrs. P. C. Chandra & Sons of 127/1A Bowbaza Street, Calcutta-12 (hereinafter be referred to as t Company) and their workmen represented b Calcutta Goldsmithy and Jewellery Workers' Unio (hereinafter be referred to as the Union).

Immediately after receipt of the reference bot parties were given proper notice, who in pursuanc thereof entered appearance and filed their respectiv written statements.

The Union's case in the written statement is tha the Company is a reputed firm of jewellers an goldsmithy in Calcutta, employing about 25 work men and the concerned workman Kalipada Roy wa one of them in employ of the Company for abou 20 years. But he was not in the good book of th Company since he became a member of the Union In the month of Agrahayan 1367 B.S., the said work man Kalipada Roy was asked to make a gold neck chain of special design. But the Company arbitrarily fixed the permissible loss of gold at a very low rate and deducted from the pay of the said workman the value of the excess quantity of loss of gold, for which there was hardly any justification. For which the Union addressed a letter to the Management on 29th December 1960. Thereupon there was victimisation of the said workman by the Management. There was a conciliation proceeding before the Labour Commissioner. But it served no useful purpose because of the unhelpful attitude of the Company. Hence the present reference has been made for adjudication of the dispute and for reinstatement of the concerned workman with full wages for the period of his forced unemployment.

The Company has denied the alleged victimisation of the workman being a member of the trade union. The Company has further denied the workman's 20 years' service as alleged by the Union. It is the contention of the Company that the workman Kalipada Roy fraudulently and wrongfully claimed an exaggerated amount of loss of gold in the making of a gold chain which was much in excess of the permissible loss fixed by the Company from their long experience in the line. The value of the excess loss of gold had to be recovered from the workman's pay in the month of Agrahayan 1367 B.S. in accordance with normal practice prevailing in the Company. Since then the workman started neglecting his work and absenting from duty. He has started a jewellery shop of his own. The Company never refused to employ him. Even before the Conciliation Officer the Company made it abundantly clear that ıe workman was at liberty to join work at any time. ıt he did not care to join. He has kept himself ıgaged in his own business. In any way the Com- ıny has kept the door open for him. He may even ɔw join his work.

Decision

The Union has examined two witnesses, one is the ;ecretary who is an ex-employee of the Company, and e other, the relevant workman Kalipada Roy. The ɔmpany has examined three witnesses including a ırtner of the firm. Besides the witnesses both ırties have tendered some documents into ɔidence.

Union's case is that the Company refused to nploy the workman Kalipada Roy and in spite of s regular attendance he was marked absent and as given no work. All this was done with a view victimise the said workman. The Company has nphatically denied all these allegations and has ɔecially pleaded that the concerned workman Kali- ada Roy has started a jewellery shop of his own a ground floor roof of premises No. 80, Sree Gopal Jullick Lane and since he started his own jewellery ıop he was frequently absenting from duty and at ıe same time he was fraudulently appropriating gold ı the plea of permissible loss in the making of a ɔld ornament much in excess of usual permissible ıss ascertained and fixed by the Management.

Admittedly in Agrahayan 1367 B.S., the said work- an was asked to make a gold neck-chain weighing ɔout 7 tolas and odd. In making the said ornament ıe workman claimed loss of 5 annas of gold but ıe Company allowed 1½ annas only by way of ermissible loss and of the remaining 3½ annas of ɔld the Company deducted the value thereof from pay of the workman, which was objected to by workman and ultimately by the Union. According he workman he was asked to make a "Sita Har" ch was the first of its kind he was asked to make, l as such the workman claimed heavier loss of d in the making of that ornament which he was king for the first time. But there is hardly any stance in this allegation in view of the fact that Company has produced before this Tribunal the vant registers which will show that the work- ı was asked to make a double side Thokai Har. vas not a Sita Har as alleged by the workman. workman himself had to admit on perusal of se registers—register of orders, and mistry ister, that he was asked to make a double side ɔkai Har. It also appears from the register of ers that the particular design of ornament was the first of its kind which the said workman was ıusted to do, but previously he also prepared the e variety of ornament. Therefore, there is hardly substance in the workman's contention that as ornament of a particular design was for the first e he was to make, so there was heavier loss of l on account of his inexperience in the making his particular variety of ornament. The normal nissible loss, according to D.W. 1 Benoy Kumar ndra, would be 1½ annas of gold and no more. s witness is a partner of the firm and has gained experience of about 12 years in this particular ness as an active working partner of the firm. urther appears from the evidence of the said ıess that the concerned workman made an ament of identical design in Kartick 1367 B.S. weight of that particular ornament was 4 tolas 11 annas and the permissible loss of gold in that case was 1 anna of gold. When in the month of Agrahayan 1367 B.S., i.e., in the month following, he was asked to make an ornament of similar design but weighing 8 tolas 11 annas and in that case the Company allowed permissible loss of 1 anna 6 pies of gold. But the workman claimed loss of 5 annas 2½ pies of gold, i.e., much in excess of the normal. The workman's own evidence is that the ornament was weighing 7 tolas and odd and in making that ornament he claimed loss of 5 annas worth of gold but the Company actually allowed only 1½ annas as permissible loss. He had to admit that it was up to the Management to fix the permissible loss in case of an ornament. It was not his case that the Company is in the habit of arbitrarily fixing the permissible loss and the workmen had general complaints against the employer. He admits that there are 25 workmen in the employ of the Company and he further admits that the Company is a well-reputed jewellery firm of Calcutta having employed so many men in the making of gold and silver ornament and wares. It is nowhere in the evidence of the workman that the Company is in the habit of arbitrarily fixing the permissible loss without any reference to the actual, or that the other workmen or any of them ever had similar grievance against the Company.

The Company having found that the workman's claim of loss of gold much in excess of the normal, deducted from his pay the price of the excess quantity of gold appropriated by him as loss in the course of making of the ornament. There is hardly anything irregular or unreasonable in the action of the Company which is admittedly a manufacturing jewellery firm of wide reputation employing quite a good number of workmen.

The Company's contention is that the said workman Kalipada Roy having started a jewellery shop of his own in a ground floor room in premises No. 80, Sree Gopal Mullick Lane, frequently absented himself from duty and used to devote his time in looking after his own jewellery shop and at the same time started claiming heavier loss of gold in the making of an ornament with a fraudulent motive to make wrongful gain to himself and wrongful loss to the employer. P.W. 2 Kalipada Roy who is the concerned workman had to admit existence of goldsmith shops in the aforesaid premises but he has denied his connection therewith. According to him one of the shops belongs to his friend Radha Raman Basak. He further admits that he frequently visits that shop. It is clear from the evidence of P.W. 3 Radha Raman Seal who is the owner of that premises that one of the ground floor shop rooms has been in occupation of this workman Kalipada Roy as a tenant thereof and who runs a jewellery shop and manufactures silver and gold ornaments. Kalipada Roy has been a tenant from Kartick 1365 B.S. and he has been paying rent for the room. In support of this he has produced the counterfoils of rent receipts granted to Kalipada Roy (vide Ext. C). This witness though happens to be a relation of P. C. Chandra and also an ex-employee of the particular firm, but I find no reason to disbelieve his evidence. He was in service of the Company sometimes back but he was discharged by the Management on account of some irregularities detected in his work. So, he is not expected to be thick and thin with the Company. There is no suggestion in his cross-examination that Kalipada Roy was not a tenant in respect of the shop room but it has been suggested that he is tenant jointly with another man, which fact is not in the evidence of Kalipada Roy himself. Therefore, there is no room for doubt that the workman Kalipada Roy has been running a jewellery shop of his own even at the time he was employed in the firm of the Company. Therefore, I find there is substance in the Company's case against the workman concerned. He having got his own separate business lost interest in his employment and whatever work he had to do as an employee he was doing not in the interest of the Company but in his own interest and to serve his own purpose. Since he was found out by the Company he was neglecting his job and was absenting in spite of repeated notices by the Company [vide Exts. A2, 1(d), 1(e), 1(f) and 1(h) (equal to A/2]. No doubt the workman replied to the said notices and alleged that attendance was not being recorded in spite of his regular attendance. The Company denied this allegation and at the same time came up with a good gesture in their letter [Ext. 1(i) equal to Ext. A], dated 24th April 1961. In that letter the Company gave the workman the latitude of recording his own attendance in his own handwriting in the khata to be maintained with the attendance clerk. In this letter it was also pointed out by the Company the fact of the workman's being engaged in work in another concern. Even after this letter the workman did not attend. So, the Company wrote another letter, Ext. A/1 or A/3, on 18th May 1961, asking him to show cause why he should not be dismissed for irregular attendance as well as for unauthorised absence. This letter of the Company was replied to by the workman on 27th May 1961 [vide Ext. 1(j)]. The Company, however, did not take any action as it appears from the evidence of D.W. 1 Benoy Kumar Chandra a partner of the firm. He was not cross-examined on this point. It is also in his evidence that he attended the conciliation proceeding before the Labour Commissioner when he made it plain that the worker is quite at liberty to resume his work. But in spite of that the workman did not care to return to duty. It was also made clear in the written statement of the Company in paragraph 9(b) that the workman is quite free to join his work of the Company but the workman did not comply. Therefore, from all these it was very clear that the workman was avoiding to resume his duty for no fault of the Company but for reasons of his own as disclosed from the circumstances I have already discussed. There was no refusal of employment by the Company as alleged by the Union. The workman, as it appears, was not interested in his employment under the Company but his interest has since been diverted to his own business and so much so that he does not care to know much about the present dispute. He admits in his evidence before this tribunal that he does not know the contents of the written statement filed by the Company and he does not know that the Company has all along kept the door open for him. He is at liberty to join his work at any time he likes but in spite of that he did not care to join.

Therefore, on a careful consideration of the entire facts and circumstances of this case I am unable to hold that there was any refusal of employment by the Company to the workman Kalipada Roy. It was a case of the workman's wilful absence from duty without any good and sufficient cause and as such he is not entitled to any relief for the period he remains away from his work. The Company having kept door open for him [vide paragraph 9(b) of the wr statement] it is up to him to decide this way or In the circumstances of the present case no spe order or direction of this tribunal is called for.

This is my award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by one Shri Rampujan Misir, an employee of Messrs. Hindusthan Motors Ltd., against the said Company. (Case No. 52 of 1961 under section 33A.)

Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

AWARD

This is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by Shri Rampujan Misir against his employer, Messrs. Hindusthan Motors Ltd. The complainant's case is that he was a permanent employee of the Company and that he submitted an application with a medical certificate for leave from 21st November 1960 to 5th December 1960. After the expiry of the said period, the complainant went to resume his duties with a fit certificate, but he was not allowed to do so. It is alleged that he was dismissed or discharged without any intimation whatsoever during his period of leave and especially during the pendency of an industrial dispute referred to this Tribunal by G.O. No. 2764-I.R.|IR|10L-68|60, dated 2nd June 1960.

The Company's case, on the other hand, is this: The present application, it is alleged, is not maintainable as there was no violation of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. During the period between 21st November 1960 and 3rd December 1960 no information whatsoever was received by the Company from the complainant and so the Company sent a letter on the 3rd December 1960 under registered post intimating to the complainant that on account of his absence without permission or any intimation, he was deemed to have left the service of the Company of his own accord as provided in the certified standing orders of the Company. Thus this being a case of voluntary abandonment or automatic termination of the services, the provisions of section 33 of the Act do not apply and there is no lawful ground for complaint under section 33A of the Act.

Other facts will appear from the body of the award that follows:

The points for determination in this case are—

(1) Whether the allegation of violation of the provisions of section 33 of the Act are true? If yes, whether there was any justification for the termination of the service or discharge of the complainant?

(2) What relief, if any, is the complainant entitled to?

Decisions

Point No. 1

Admittedly, the complainant, Shri Rampujan Misir, was a driver employed by the Company. He alleges that on account of his illness he applied with a medical certificate for medical leave from 20th November 1960 to 5th December 1960. But when he later went to join his duties with a fit certificate, he was not allowed to do it. It is more or less admitted by both sides that on or about 5th December 1960 Shri Misir went with a fit certificate to Shri Rungta or somebody else of the Management. It is also a fact that Shri Misir was refused employment in spite of his fit certificate. But the Management denies that Shri Misir submitted any leave application with or without medical certificate on any day before 3rd December 1960. So, before I discuss the legal aspect of the matter, I must consider and decide this question of fact. Shri Misir was living very close to the factory on the eve of his absence and his residence was only five minutes' walk from the factory premises. He alleges that he could not join his duties on 21st November 1960 due to pain in the stomach. Yet it is also true that no information regarding his illness was sent to the Management promptly. He alleges that he went to Chinsura, consulted a physician there, obtained a certificate and then presented a leave application with the medical certificate to Shri P. N. Rungta on 23rd November 1960. But Shri Rungta swears that no such leave application with medical certificate was ever presented to him by Shri Misir. No copy of any such medical certificate has been produced. The physician concerned also has not been examined. Shri Misir says that he sent an application for leave and Ext. 1 is the copy of the said application which was submitted in this connection. The Company's contention is that this so-called copy must be a fabrication for this case only. It appears that he submitted other applications also on different dates, but no copy thereof was ever retained. He cannot explain any special reason for keeping copy of this disputed leave application alone. He has not kept any copy of the alleged medical certificate also said to have been submitted with the leave application. Not only Shri Rungta denies on oath the receipt of any such application; even on 3rd December 1960, the Company intimated in writing that they received no intimation whatsoever regarding his absence. So, I am unable to believe that bona fides of Ext. 1. I find that in fact Shri Misir submitted no leave application with medical certificate as alleged on 23rd November 1960 or on any date during the relevant period, though he subsequently produced a certificate speaking of his illness and recovery.

So, the next question for consideration is whether in the circumstances the Management can be said to have violated the provisions of section 33 of the Act. The Management case is that this was a case of automatic termination of the service under the standing orders, and that the employer did not actually dismiss or discharge Shri Misir within the meaning of section 33 of the Act. Accordingly, it is urged that provisions of section 33 are not attracted at all in the present case. Section C(b)(4) of the Company's standing orders clearly lays down that "any workman who absents himself without permission for more than ten calendar days shall be deemed to have left the service of the Company of his own accord." So, if a workman absents himself for more than ten days without permission or any intimation, his services are automatically terminated. This termination does not await the exercise of discretion or voluntary action of the Management. No positive action need be taken by the Management in such a case. It is not a case of Management's discharge or dismissal for any offence or wrongful act charged. If the workman prays for leave and it is refused by the Management for any reason and the workman is discharged in the circumstances for his absence, the position becomes different. In that case it is to be seen if the refusal of leave is arbitrary and the discharge or dismissal, will be positive consequence of the management action. Only in such cases, the termination ceases to be automatic and becomes justifiable also in a sense. In the present case, I have already shown that for some reason or other Shri Misir failed to give any intimation of the reason of his absence or file any leave application for more than 10 days. So, in view of the said provisions of the standing orders, his services must be deemed to have automatically terminated and this termination does not attract the provisions of section 33 of the Act. The learned representative of the complainant urges before me that even in such cases of so-called automatic termination in accordance with the provisions of the standing orders, the Management is bound to give the workman an opportunity to show cause or explain the circumstances before he is finally discharged. Reliance is placed in this connection on two cases reported in 1954 I.L.L.J. 505 (Yeshwant Sitaram Ram vs. Goodlass Wall Ltd.) and 1951 II L.L.J. 314 (Buckingham Carnatic Mills vs. Their workers). But I may observe that the facts of these two cases were different from the present one, and so these decisions are no authority for the present case. If a workman goes on leave and then prays for extension of the leave on the ground of illness; and if the Management still refuses to allow the prayer for extension and discharges the workman, the action of the Management is nothing but discharge or dismissal. It cannot be a case of automatic termination, for the workman had prima facie done what he could possibly do under the circumstances. But if the workman absents himself without any intimation whatsoever for more than the period limited by the standing orders in this connection, the termination will follow by operation of the standing orders alone and automatically. So, I think, in the present case Shri Misir's negligence to report or intimate anything for more than ten calendar days entailed automatic termination, and even if he produced a medical certificate subsequently to show his illness and the Management refused to revoke the termination which was already an accomplished fact, it cannot be any longer considered to be a case of dismissal or discharge within the meaning of section 33 of the Act for the die was already cast. If the termination be due to the exercise of Management function or discretion, such termination may amount to discharge or dismissal and attract the provisions of the section. If termination is automatic and does not await Management decision, it is termination pure and simple and not discharge within the meaning of the section. So, I think, in the present case the Management cannot be held guilty of violation of the provisions of section 33 of the Act, and accordingly section 33A is not attracted at all. As the complaint itself does not lie, I am not called upon to decide if Shri Misir was really discharged during the period of his illness and whether there was any justification for such termination. The complaint therefore fails, for it is not maintainable at all under section 33A of the Act.

In view of the above decision, the applicant is not entitled to any relief.

The Government of West Bengal, Labour Department by order No. 4402-I.R.|IR|11L-32|60, dated the 13th August 1960, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947(XIV of 1947) the abovementioned dispute to this Tribunal for its adjudication.

This dispute was previously referred to the First Labour Court by Government order No. 757-I.R.|IR|11L-32|60, dated the 22nd February 1960, for adjudication which has been replaced by the Sixth Industrial Tribunal constituted under notification No. 3115-I.R./IR/3A-6/59, dated the 21st June 1960, and has in consequence been abolished by notification No. 3508-I.R.|IR|6A-9|59, dated the 11th July 1960.

The Schedule

Whether the dismissal of Shri Someswar Prosad is justified? What relief, if any, is he entitled to?

This reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, relates to dismissal of Shri Someswar Prosad (hereinafter referred to as "Shri Prosad"), a tank mender working in the Hindusthan Pilkington Glass Works Ltd., at G. T. Road, Asansol (hereinafter referred to as "the Company"). The workman is represented by Glass Factory Mazdoor Union, G. T. Road, Asansol (hereinafter described as "the Union").

It is the case of the Union that Shri Prosad had been working as a tank mender, Grade I. in the Glass Works of the Company for more than four years with a good record of service, that he was an active member of the Union, and as such, incurred the displeasure of the Company, that the Company with view to victimise him served a charge-sheet on him on 10th June 1959 making certain allegation that he had refused to carry out the lawful and reasonable orders of his superior, that the workman could not carry out the orders in view of the fact that it was not a part of his duty to blow the regenerator flue which he was required to do on 10th June 1959, that on receipt of the charge-sheet Shri Prosad gave his explanation, that thereafter the Management without holding any enquiry in presence of the workman and without giving him any reasonable opportunity to defend himself dismissed him from service by its order, dated 16th June 1959. The Union submits that the order of dismissal was unjust, unfair and mala fide and it was for an extraneous consideration. The Union prays for a declaration that the dismissal of Shri Prosad was unjustified and for a direction on the Company to reinstate him in his former job with all his wages and allowances for the period of his wrongful non-employment.

The Company, on the other hand, states in its written statement that is was never aware that Shri Prosad was a member of any Union. The Company states regarding the facts of the case that the workman under reference who was a tank mender, Grade I was asked by the Assistant Production Manager of the Company to blow the regenerator flue on 10th June 1959 which job formed a part of his normal duty as a tank mender. He was again asked by the Works Manager to blow the regenerator flue and he again refused to carry out the orders, that the workman having refused to carry out the lawful and reasonable orders of his superior to perform a very important essential operation, the Management had no other alternative but to issue a charge-sheet on 10th June 1959 to which he replied, that Shri Prosad was given a notice that an enquiry would be held and he was asked to attend the enquiry with his witnesses, that an enquiry was held in presence of the workman under reference in which the witnesses were examined in presence of the workman and that he was given all opportunities to defend himself, and that he being found guilty of gross misconduct in having refused to carry out the lawful and reasonable orders of his superior, the Company dismissed him from service by its order, dated 16th June 1959. The Company submits that the order dismissing the workman under reference from service was justified and lawful as it was found on enquiry that he had refused to carry out the lawful and reasonable orders of his superior when on duty.

It appears from the reply of Shri Prosad on the back of the charge-sheet (Ext. A) that he denied having refused to carry out the orders asking him to blow the regenrator flue. So his case at the time of giving his reply to the charge-sheet was that he never refused to blow the regenrator flue which he was asked to do by the Assistant Production Manager. But in the written statement it is stated in paragraph 4 that blowing the flue line with steam was never a part of the duty allotted to the workman under reference and that he wanted to carry out the order on condition that he was given a written order to blow the regenerator flue. So, the case in the written statement is somewhat different from the case of the workman under reference in his reply to the charge-sheet. P.W. 1 Shri Prosad stated before me that he was a tank mender and that the regenerator being attached to the tank was a part of the entire working of the tank. He further admits that the regenerator is sometimes cleaned with the aid of steam and that the tank menders and helpers were required to clean the regenerator with the aid of steam. So, it is clear from his evidence that it was a part of his duty as a tank mender to blow the regenerator flue which he was asked to do by the Assistant Production Manager and which he admittedly refused to do without having a written order from the Assistant Production Manager. O.P.W. 2 Mr. Saxena, the Assistant Production Manager, gave evidence that the workman under reference refused to blow the regenerator pipe when he was asked to do so by the Assistant Production Manager on 10th June 1959. He further said in his evidence that it was the part of a tank mender's normal duty to blow the regenerator fiue and the workman under reference was, therefore, not justified in refusing to carry out the orders to do the work which was a part of his normal duty. It appears fram Ext. B. a letter written by the Company to Shri Prosad that he was asked to attend the enquiry at 2-30 p.m. on 13th June 1959. In this notice he was asked to be present with evidence, if any. The enquiry was adjourned and it was held on 15th June 1959 in presence of the workman under reference as his signatures appear below the statements of witnesses and also below his own statement. So, it is far from true that the enquiry was held in the absence of Shri Prosad. It appears from the records of the proceedings (Ext. C) that the Company's witnesses were examined and Shri Prosad was asked to cross-examine the witnesses which he declined. O.P.W. 1 Shri Sen, who was the Personnel Officer of the Company at Asansol, stated that he recorded the evidence of witnesses in English and that he explained the statement in Hindi to the charge-sheeted workman who put his signature below the statement of witnesses. I am satisfied from the records of the proceedings that Shri Prosad attended the enquiry, that the witnesses were examined in his presence and that he was given every opportunity to defend himself. I am also satisfied from the evidence on record that Shri Prosad who was a tank mender was required to blow the regenerator flue which was a part of his duty and that he refused to carry out the orders of his superiors when he was asked to blow the regenerator pipe on 10th June 1959.

It is alleged by the Union that Shri Prosad was an active member of the Union and the Company in order to victimise him issued a false charge-sheet and dismissed him from service. P.W. 1 Shri Prosad admits that he was just an ordinary member of the Union. There is nothing to show that he was an active member of the Union or that the Company ever wanted to victimise him for any Union activity of his.

The Union examined two more witnesses. P.W. 2 Shri Jamuna Razzaq gave evidence stating that he was working in a separate section of the tank mending department. He admits that he has no idea as to how the regenerator pipe was cleaned or who cleans the regenerator. So his evidence is worth nothing. P.W. 3 Shri Arjun Nuniya saw Mr. Saxena and another officer talking to the workman under reference on 10th June 1959. He admits in his cross-examination that he did not see who was talking to P.W. 1 and he cannot say if Mr. Saxena or any other officer talked to Shri Prosad. His evidence does not help the Union in the list.

Considering all the facts and circumstances discussed above, I am satisfied that the workman under reference refused to carry out the lawful orders of his superiors while working in the factory on 10th June 1959, that he was properly charge-sheeted, that the enquiry was properly held and that the order of dismissal passed against him on finding that he was guilty of gross misconduct is justified and fair and the order of dismissal is found justified. The workman under reference is, therefore, not entitled to any relief. This is my award.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Indus Disputes Act of 1947 by the Government of W Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 384-I.R. 10L-48|60, dated the 25th January 1961, for de mination of the issue, namely:

"Whether the workmen are entitled to any bo for the accounting year 1959 payable in 1 over and above one month's basic wages ready distributed? If so, what should be quantum and mode of distribution thereof

In this disputed case, three separate written statements have been filed by the Unions—one by Unions Nos. (1) and (3) and one by each of the other two Unions. The gist of their contentions as per written statements is practically the same. It is averred that the Company has been making huge profits annually, but the workmen concerned are being paid poorly. Unions Nos. (1) and (3) claim bonus equivalent to four months' basic earnings for 1959 in addition to the customary Puja bonus already paid. These two Unions have stated that the Company paid bonus of one and half months' salary in addition to one month's salary as Puja bonus for 1959 to its head office employees. Union No. (2) has averred that the Company has been paying one month's basic wage as bonus before the Pujas every year irrespective of profit and loss; that in 1960 the company made arrangements for payment of similar customary Puja bonus but on the workmen's demand for three months' wages as profit bonus over and above the Puja bonus, an industrial dispute arose and the matter was referred by the union to the conciliation officer. In course of conciliation proceedings and in pursuance of the conciliation officer's letter to the Company the latter paid one month's basic wages as Puja bonus and also made an advance of one month's basic wages subject to adjustment after final settlement. The avertment of Union No. (4) is that Company's actual profits are more than what are shown in account papers; that the workmen have been getting Puja bonus as condition of service and are entitled to get five months' wages as bonus for 1959 in addition to Puja bonus. It is stated by all the Unions that the conciliation failed on account of the uncompromising attitude of the Company and hence the present reference.

In the written statement of the company, the following case has been made out. The company's trading position far from being satisfactory, is discouraging in every respect. The allegation that the Company's actual profits are more than what are shown in accounts is entirely baseless and incorrect. The accounts are properly maintained and duly audited. The Company paid one month's basic wages as bonus in the year 1959 as there was some profit to warrant payment, but it had never paid any bonus to its workmen for any year of trading loss, and the bonus so far paid is neither customary nor as a condition of service. The Company earned only a modest profit and it was only with a view to maintaining a healthy relation with the workers that it paid one month's basic wages as bonus though the profit does not warrant for any such claim on a strict calculation of available surplus. The Union's claims for three to five months' wages as bonus are misconceived, unrealistic and frivolous and are fit to be rejected. The statement of Union No. 2 that the advance of one month's basic wages was made subject to adjustment after final settlement is entirely misconceived. In fact, it has no connection with the question of adjusting this advance and it has no connection with the question of bonus. On proper calculation there would be no availabe surplus for distribution as bonus for the year in question.

Decision

It is the accepted principle that profit bonus may be given if there be adequate available surplus according to proper calculations by following the Full Bench Formula evolved in the case of Bombay Mill Owners' Association (1950 LLJ 1247-1952LAC433). According to the chart of calculations submitted by Unions Nos. (1) and (3) and adopted by other unions the adjusted gross profits would be Rs. 25,59,404 and the available surplus after deductions of prior charges (except return of working capital and the cost of rehabilitation) would amount to Rs. 11,76,587. On the other hand the Company has shown gross profit to the extent of Rs. 17,20,799 and the deficit of Rs. 1,96,890 after deduction of prior charges including rehabilitation cost of Rs. 2,79,145. It is to be seen whether and how far the parties' calculations are acceptable or modifiable.

The Company's audited balance-sheet for 1959 shows the net profit of Rs. 6,53,065. To this both parties have added back the sums of Rs. 5,48,717 and Rs. 5,32,000 for depreciation and provision for taxation respectively, the total amounting to Rs. 17,33,782. So far there is no dispute. The parties differ in other respects regarding other items.

The Unions have added back Rs. 4,56,066 towards miscellaneous expenses, Rs. 3,09,787 towards commissions, and Rs. 59,769 towards Workmen and Staff Welfare expenses. Thus according to the Unions, the adjusted gross profit comes out to be Rs. 25,59,404. The Company has excluded these three items and, on the contrary, subtracted the sum of Rs. 12,983 (i.e., Rs. 4,733 plus Rs. 8,250) as Extraneous Income. So, according to the Company, the adjusted gross profit is only the sum of Rs. 17,20,799. Regarding Commissions, the Company has put in papers, namely agreements (extracts), vide Exts. G|1 to G|7, to show payments of the same under contracts. So this is a legitimate expense and should not be added back. Exhibit G is the break-up showing details and sub-details of Miscellaneous Expenses. Stationery expenses seem to be very high. But the Company's Accountant at the Head Office (O.P.W. 3 Jyoti Prasanna Moulik) has deposed on this subject, and no question was put to him to dispute the correctness of the amounts per Ext. G. So this is also another item of legitimate expense and should not be added back. In Ext. G|8 the Company has shown about costs incurred for tiffin, canteen subsidy, etc., for the workmen and the staff. P.W. 1 Bimal Mitra, Secretary of the Unions Nos. (1) and (3) and the Planning Assistant of the Company, has deposed to deny tiffin allowance to the workers and to say that canteen is meant for the manual and clerical workers and no canteen subsidy is given to the workers. He further says in cross-examination that foreigners sometimes come to the factory but he does not know whether they are entertained there, and that the Supervisors, Foreman, Officers, etc., take tea at the canteen, whereas the witness and others get no allowance though they take tea at .03 nP. per cup. The Company's Commercial Manager (O.P.W. 1 Shri R. S. Jain) says that the expenses regarding tiffin, canteen, etc., to the extent of Rs. 40,000 and odd as per Ext. G|8 were incurred by the Company for the purpose of its normal business. Even then the balance of Rs. 19,769 remains unexplained. In view of these facts and circumstances and having regard to the evidence of P.W. 1 Bimal Mitra, I am disposed to give half of the amount of Rs. 59,769 in favour of each party without any prejudice to them. Thus a sum of Rs. 29,884 is liable to be added back towards gross profits. The gross profits so far would thus work out to be Rs. 17,63,666. From this shall be deducted Rs. 4,733 as provisions for liabilities no longer required and Rs. 8,250 as profit on sale of Fixed Assets (vide page 11 of the Balance-Sheet), i.e., in all Rs. 12,983 on account of Extraneous Income. The amount of gross profit up till now is thus Rs. 17,50,683.

There are some glaringly important items which ought to be taken into consideration, e.g., capital expenditure, expenses for expansion, etc., etc. In paragraph 5 of the written statement of the Sramik Union (No. 4), it is alleged that the Company spends large sum for capital and establishment expenses. In paragraph 5 of the Company's written statement this fact has been virtually admitted inasmuch as it is stated that the Company spends only necessary sum for its usual and necessary expansion and establishment expenses. Even this "necessary sum" has been left out by the Company in working out the gross profits. The balance-sheet shows an expenditure of Rs. 1,51,302 towards repairs of Buildings, Plant and Machinery and others. These are said to be capital expenses. Nobody deposes that these are not capital expenses, nor is there any explanation in regard to the sub-item "others". Making allowance of one-third in Company's favour, the balance of Rs. 1,00,868 is to be added back. From the balance-sheet it also appears that the Company set apart a sum of Rs. 1,00,000 for Development Rebate Reserve. In the absence of any evidence or explanation to the contrary, this amount is to be added back as well.

As per balance-sheet, the Company contributed Rs. 2,06,007 towards Provident Fund and paid Rs. 21,869 as gratuity in the year 1959. These are not prior charges and should be added back, although these are to be kept in view while distributing bonus, if any. In this balance-sheet the Company has shown expenditures of Rs. 94,09,526 and Rs. 5,07,234 on account of Consumption of Raw Materials and Consumption of Stores and Spares, the total amount being Rs. 99,16,760. It is not known how much of this was revenue expense and how much capital expense. There is no evidence in this respect. It may well be taken that at least part of this amount, if not the whole, was for capital expenses. In the absence of evidence and clear data, I take a very small portion of this total amount as capital expenses. Taking 5 per cent. of the amount, we get the sum of Rs. 4,95,838 which shall be added back. There is one other item of importance. From the balance-sheet it appears that the Company paid interest of Rs. 6,533 to Messrs. McLeod & Co. Ltd., for previous years. O.P.W. 3 gives an explanation saying that this sum was in respect of previous years 1956-1958 and that the matter was under discussion and was finalised in a general meeting and payment was made in 1959 as per details in Ext. G|6. Calculation of available surplus should be made having regard to the workmen in the relevant accounting year without taking into consideration the credits or debits referable to the working of previous years. If expenses in respect of previous years be excluded from Gross Profits of the year in question, the workmen of the relevant working year would stand deprived of their well-earned benefit and would have to get reduced bonus for the year concerned. So the above amount of Rs. 6,533 is not a legitimate expense for the year 1959 and must be added back.

In view of what has been found above, the adjust Gross Profit is found out to be Rs. 26,81,798 as giv in the table below:

	Rs.
Net Profit	6,53,06
Add back
Depreciation	5,48,7
Provision for Taxation	5,32,0(
Workmen and Staff Welfare Expenses	29,8
Repairs of Buildings, Machineries ..	1,00,8(
Development Rebate Reserve ..	1,00,00
Provident Fund Contribution ..	2,06,00
Gratuity paid in the year ..	21,86
Consumption of Materials and Stores	4,95,83
Interest paid for previous years ..	6,53
	26,94,78
Less
Extraneous Income	12,98
Adjusted Gross Profits	26,81,79

Having found out the adjusted gross profits as above I now proceed to see about available surplus, if any after deductions of Prior Charges. The first of thes items is notional normal depreciation. The Compan has deducted Rs. 5,22,289 (including multi-shif depreciation) on this particular head on the strengt of income tax assessments. The Unions, however have deducted an amount of Rs 2,21,454 according to calculations in their own way. In view of th evidence adduced, both oral and documentary, prefer to accept the figure supplied by the Company as supported by assessment orders, etc., vide Exts. A|1, B|6, H. and I. So the amount stated by the Company shall be the figure for deduction on t account.

The next item is income tax on taxable incon which is Rs. 21,59,509. Thus the amount of inco tax on this income at the usual rate of 45 per ce works out to be Rs. 9,71,779, which is to be deduct as a prior charge.

The Company is entitled to deductions on accou of returns on Paid-up and Working Capitals. Fro the balance-sheet the total value of Ordinary Share appears to be Rs. 40,00,000 and that of Preferenc Shares to be Rs. 6,94,800. On the former the Com pany claims usual 6 per cent. plus 2.57 per cent. ext under the new Finance Act and on the latter it clai 7 per cent. plus 2.10 per cent. extra under the Pr ference Shares (Regulation of Dividends) Act 1960. The Unions are not disposed to allow mo than 6 per cent. in each case. This objection see to be tenable in respect of Ordinary Shares, regarding the Preference Shares. I, therefore, all returns of Rs. 2,40,000 and Rs. 63,226, respectiv i.e., Rs. 3,03,226 in all on account of returns on Paid-up Capitals.

There is some dispute also in regard to the ret on Working Capital. From the balance-sheet (p 12) the total Capital appears to have b Rs. 41,26,417 including Rs. 1,25,000 as Sh Premium Account. The Company has claim return of 4 per cent. on this Capital, its case be that the total amount was utilised during the wh of the year 1959. The argument advanced on the sides of the Unions is that the Capital was not as large as claimed by the Company and it was not utilised for the whole of the year in question. The Company's Accountant (O.P.W. 3) has said in cross-examination that on the 1st January 1959 the Company had in hand and with Banks a total sum of Rs. 33,516. This also appears to have been the fact from page 18 of the balance-sheet. Out of this sum, Rs. 6,739 was with the Bank on Dividend Account and was not meant to be used by the Company except for making payment of Dividends. Admittedly, there was no other liquid cash in the hand of the Company on 1st January 1959. The Company's case, however, is that it had to overdraw money from the State Bank. Exhibit F shows details of Bank overdrafts. It might be that the Company had to borrow monies from the Bank for running its business. But that does not necessarily mean that the total Capital was used during the whole of the relevant year, particularly when the Bank overdrawals were not made about the same time at the beginning of that year. Considering these circumstances and facts, I allow return at 2 per cent. only instead of 4 per cent. and thus that total return becomes Rs. 82,528.

The last item of prior charge to be considered in this case is Rehabilitation cost. This question is not only the most important, but is also very much vexing. The Company has claimed Rehabilitation cost to the extent of Rs. 2,79,145. In support of this the Company has produced a chart (Ext. A|5), wherein it has shown total Rehabilitation charges to be Rs. 5,94,943 and Rs. 1,53,471 respectively for machineries, etc., and buildings. From these amounts, depreciation amounts of Rs. 4,03,919 and Rs. 65,350 on account of those properties were deducted and not Rehabilitation charges have been calculated to be Rs. 1,91,024 for plants and machineries, etc., and Rs. 88,121 for buildings, i.e., a total net amount of Rs. 2,79,145 has been calculated for the purpose of deduction from the gross profit. In further corroboration of these figures, the Company has put in charts (Exts. A|6, B|3, and B|6). In one chart (Ext. B) the Company has taken average multiplier for machineries to be 7.3. In another chart this average has been shown to be 2.00. The multiplier for the buildings has been shown to be 1.35 in Ext. B|5. I think, in view of the previous decisions by my learned predecessor in-office Shri P. K. Sarkar, the details of these calculations need not be gone into. The Company has calculated Rehabilitation charges on account of machineries and buildings by taking block years 1939, 1940-44, 1945-48, 1949-54, and 1955-58. In Ext. A|6, the total amount of annual Rehabilitation charges for machineries during all these block years has been calculated to be Rs. 5,94,943. In this chart also multipliers and divisors have been shown. Similarly, in respect of buildings, total annual Rehabilitation charges have been shown to be Rs. 1,53,471 for those block years (vide Ext. B|3).

On the other hand, the Unions refuse to concede to any amount of Rehabilitation on the ground stated in their chart, Ext. 1, thus:

> "Considering conduct and behaviour of the Company towards rehabilitation, conditions and circumstances, nature of plant and machinery, etc., and buildings, and work done, no rehabilitation of block is required; hence no cost on this head is chargeable".

In support of this contention it has been argued on behalf of the Unions that for previous years Rehabilitation charges were considered and duly granted by Shri Sarkar in reference to different block years and, as such, those block years should not again be taken into consideration; and it is also argued that the Company has not affected any Rehabilitation whatsoever during the bonus-year 1959 and, as such, nothing can be claimed by the Company on this head.

The Company has put in a chart (Ext. D) showing as many as 29 items of machines purchased since 1917 as being declared obsolete, and also purchase of new machines in their places in 1955 and 1956. The new prices are many times higher than the prices of original machines. The types of new machines are of very much improved nature and their productive capacity is also larger. In course of argument Shri Bose, Counsel for the Company, stated before me that this chart was produced not for basing claim of Rehabilitation charges, but for showing that many items of old machines were out of work. Obviously, the purchase of new machines was, in the circumstances, by way of expansion and, therefore, the prices of new machines are to be excluded from consideration in respect of the question of Rehabilitation charges. Shri H. G. Rao (O.P.W. 2), that Works Manager of the Company, has said in his cross-examination that he submitted report for replacement of old machines about one year before his deposition and got sanction for replacement in part, and that was effected in course of one year prior to his deposition. It is clear, therefore, that there was no rehabilitation actually effected by the Company in 1959. But this alone would not dis-entitle the Company to make claim for Rehabilitation in the present case. In the previous award of Shri Sarkar, bonus was granted for 1952, and 1954, and rejected for 1953 and 1954. The Rehabilitation costs were considered and calculated by taking into account the different block years from 1939 to 1955. In respect of previous claims for bonuses for 1957 and 1958 Shri Sarkar ignored about the question of Rehabilitation charges inasmuch as there was found deficit for each of those two years, even without going into the question of Rehabilitation charges. I, therefore, consider in the circumstances, that the calculation of Rehabilitation charges should be taken into account with reference to the years 1957 and 1958.

In Ext. A|6, the annual Rehabilitation charges have been shown to be Rs. 1,87,464 for plants and machineries for the block period 1955-58 and Rs. 33,603 for buildings for the same block period. Even by taking into account these amounts as annual Rehabilitation charges for the particular year in question, the total would work out to be Rs. 2,21,067. The Company itself deducted depreciation amounts from the total figures shown in those two charts. The proportionate depreciation amount would work out to be, approximately, Rs. 25,000. Thus, deducting this amount from Rs. 2,21,067 the net amount of Rehabilitation charge would be Rs. 1,96,067. It is to be noted, however, that in pursuance of the findings of Shri Sarkar, the Company took the life of machines to be 25 years, and that of the buildings to be 30 years, and calculated the figures accordingly in their own way. Any way, in my own view, I think it reasonable and proper that the real amount for Rehabilitation charges to be deducted in the present case should be Rs. 1,96,067, as stated above.

I now proceed to find out the amount of available surplus, if any, in this case:

	Rs.
Adjusted gross profit	26,81,698
Deduct
Notional normal depreciation ..	5,22,289
	21,59,509
Income Tax	9,71,779
	11,87,730
Return on paid-up capital ..	3,03,226
	8,84,504
Return on working capital ..	82,528
	8,01,976
Rehabilitation charges ..	1,96,067
	6,05,909

The available surplus having been found as above to be Rs. 6,05,909, it is to be seen now what amount of bonus can be allowed for the workmen for the relevant year. According to the Unions, as averred in their written statement, the annual basic wages of all the workmen concerned would be Rs. 1,25,000, whereas the Company in its chart (Ext. A) has shown this figure to be Rs. 1,63,859 per year. In the special circumstances of the case, and in the absence of any definite proof on the side of the Unions, I accept the figure as submitted by the Company in Ext. A. It will appear now that two months' basic wages can be distributed as bonus for 1959 having, of course, in view of the fact that the Company had contributed good sums towards Provident Fund and Gratuity for the workers. It is also to be noted that the full amount of two months' basic wages would not have to be paid by the Company inasmuch as all workers will not get full one month's wages in consideration of their different length of service. Two months' basic wages would amount to Rs. 3,27,718. Deducting this amount from the said available surplus, the Company will have in hand an amount of Rs. 2,78,191. To this is to be added rebate of Income Tax to the extent of Rs. 1,47,000, approximately. Thus, ultimately, the Company will have for its own purpose a total sum of Rs. 4,25,191.

The Company already paid one month's basic wages to its workmen as bonus for the year under reference. That was an unconditional payment. The Unions stated about payment of Puja bonus as of right in their written statement. That is not the issue before me, and I refrain from making any observation in regard to the question of Puja bonus. Excluding the unconditional payment of one month's basic wages, I consider it proper to distribute bonus of basic wages for one month more in the following manner:

1. Those who worked for 240 days shall get the full amount of one month's basic wages as bonus.
2. Those who worked for over six months and less than 240 days shall get half of this amount as bonus.
3. Those who worked for three months to less than six months shall get one fourth of the full amount of bonus granted.
4. No bonus shall be paid to those who worked for less than three months in the year concerned.
5. As regards piece-rated workers, the same manner of distribution will apply by taking the monthly average basic earnings during the year as the standard.

Award is passed accordingly.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Dwarkin & Sons (Private) Ltd., Baguiati Road, P.O. Deshbandhu Nagar, Calcutta-28, and their workmen represented by Dwarkin & Sons Employees' Union, 138|B Upper Chitpur Road, Calcutta, c|o Bharat Bottle Stores. (Case No. VIII-21|62.)

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri P. C. PAL, Judge.

Appearances:

For the Company: Shri C. L. Ganguli, Advocate.

For the Union: Shri H. L. Roy, Advocate.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act of 1947 by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 346-I.R.|IR| 11L-19|62, dated the 1st February 1962, for adjudication of the issues, viz:

(1) Wages.

(2) Dearness allowance.

This case made out in the written statement of the Union is this: The Company is the biggest manufacturer of musical instruments, namely, harmonium and organs in Calcutta, employing more or less 35 workmen in different categories in the factory and about 12 or more at the Company's showroom and office at Esplanade, Calcutta. The management deals with the employees capriciously and arbitrarily. The Company is very prosperous and is very strong and stable financially. There is no scientific policy of wage fixation. No dearness allowance is paid to the workmen. The Company earns more than 100 per cent. profit but the workers are paid very low wages, much below the subsistence level. The workmen do not get even the need-based minimum wages to keep up efficiency and health. In the face of mounting cost of living index and extremely high expense ratio, the payment of dearness allowance has become absolutely necessary. But the Company has been very callous and indifferent in these respects. The Union placed a charter of demands including claim of wages and D.A. on 16th February 1961, but without any response from the Company. Then the dispute was raised. Conciliation failed and the present reference has been made. In the circumstances the Union claims 25 per cent. increments in the least in the wages and a flat rate of Rs. 40 as D.A. for each workman.

The Company's averments contained in its written statement are as follows: It is not true that the Company is the biggest manufacturer of musical instruments. It is at present a small concern, and the demand for musical instruments is much lesser in market. The allegation about arbitrary behaviour of the Company is absolutely untrue. The financial position of the Company is unsound. No profit could be earned for the year 1960-61. The cost of production is much higher than the present market value by reason of exorbitant labour cost, and as such the Company could not be gainer. The Company is unaware if any other concern in the line pays higher wages at all. The wages of the workmen of this Company are fixed according to quality of work of each individual hand. The Company pays wages commensurate with the region-cum-industry basis. No separate D.A. is paid to the workmen as the wages include such allowance. The financial condition of the Company would not admit of any further increment of wages and separate D.A. It is untrue that the Company makes 100 per cent. or more profit at all or that the workers are paid below the subsistence level. For all these reasons the claims of the Union must fall through.

Decision

Issues Nos. (1) and (2)

These two issues are taken up and considered together as they are interlinked inasmuch as admittedly the present wages of the workmen include D.A. and there is no payment of separate D.A. at all.

Both the issues appear to have been framed somewhat vaguely. This has enabled the parties to make out their respective cases according to their own choices. As for the case made out in the written statement of the Union as well as during the hearing of evidence and arguments, it was contended on behalf of the Union that it substantially claimed fixation of need-based minimum wages. The claim for fixation of minimum wages cannot stand good in the present case inasmuch as wages have already been fixed. On the other hand the Company construes the issue to mean increment in wages and contends that the Company has been paying some sort of increments from time to time and hence no further increment should be granted. The Company lays stress on financial difficulties. As D.A. is included in the present wages, there is certainly no question of considering the question of paying separate D.A. I have already seen that there cannot be, strictly speaking, any question of fixing any minimum wages. The only question in this connection is to see whether and how far any increment in wages can be granted. As D.A. cannot be considered separately without proper apportionment, there could be no proper question of increment of D.A. in case some increment in wages may be granted.

Admittedly, the present issues relate to the workers of the Company's factory at Baguiati, but not to the employees at the showroom at Esplanade in Calcutta. The Company has submitted a chart as Annexure D to its written statement (also Ext. A) showing its total factory workers to be 33 and also showing the wages in hourly rates and increments from time to time from January 1950 to January 1962. The workers concerned are hourly rated employees. It is also an admitted fact that they have been given increments on a number of occasions, though the rate of increment might not have been very high. It is a fact that in or about 1960 the Company shifted its factory from the Shambazar area in Calcutta to Baguiati in Dum Dum area. It is given in evidence on the side of the Union that on account of this shifting of the factory the workers have to incur additional expenses as tram and bus fares. This is not a very cogent reason for claiming increment in wages. Some workers in one direction may have to incur some additional expenses whereas other workers in other direction may have to incur somewhat less expenses. It is in evidence that about the time of that shifting of the factory the Company granted a general increment in the hourly rates of wages. So, in view of the above, I do not think that the Company is behaving badly or unsatisfactorily with its factory employees.

The Union has examined three of the concerned workmen, whereas the Company has examined its Manager. The relevant and important evidences, transpiring from the depositions of the aforesaid persons, are what has already been discussed by me. The Union has put in Company's catalogue for 1961 (Ext. 1). It has no probative value as it is concerned only with the prices of the products of the Company. The Company has supplied charts. Annexures B and C to its written statement (Ext. B and C respectively) to show production cost in comparison with the market value from 1957-58 to 1961-62 and also cost of manufacture of harmoniums and organs in general. It appears from the evidence that some finished goods are occasionally purchased by the Company from the market and sold to its customers such articles being represented as its own production. By such transactions the Company may earn some extra profit but the workmen of the factory cannot claim any increment of wages out of such profits as it is entirely without any concern of the workmen's labour.

The Company has put in balance-sheets for 1958-59, 1959-60, and 1960-61 (Exts. D, D|1, and D|2). They show net profits of Rs 1,418 for 1957-58, Rs. 2,585 in 1958-59, Rs. 3,990 in 1959-60 and Rs. 226.25 nP. in 1960-61. These are not large profits in any way, and the prifits in the last mentioned year is quite insignificant. From these and other facts it is obvious that the financial position of the Company is poor and not sufficient for making any allowance to the concerned workmen by way of any slight increment in their wages.

Considering the whole issues in the above light, I hold, in the result, that the Union has failed to prove its case and there shall be no relief to it. Both the issues are disposed of accordingly.

This is my award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between the Marwari Relief Society (Puri Methai Dokan), 4 Jagmohan Mallick Lane, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by the Marwari Relief Society Mazdoor Union, 90 Lower Chitpur Road Calcutta-7. (Case No. VIII-303 of 1961.)

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri P. C. PAL, Judge, Second Industrial Tribunal

Present for the Society: Shri K. K. Mitra, Advocate

Present for the Union: Shri Lenin Roy, Advocate

By Government order No. 5528-I.R.|IR|11L-311(A)|61, dated the 16th September 1961, an industrial dispute between the Marwari Relief Society (Puri Methai Dokan), hereinafter briefly described as the Society, and the Marwari Relief Society Mazdoor Union, hereinafter briefly described as the Union, was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication of the issues, viz:

(1) Increment of wages and fixation of grades and scales of pay.

(2) Gratuity for the period not covered by Provident Fund.

The written statement of the Union contains the following case: The Society is a very big, well established, long-standing and highly prosperous concern, and carries on various business having several manufacturing departments. The name of the Society is misleading in so far as it suggests merely relief work. The Puri Methai Department is a manufacturing department which manufactures various kinds of sweetmeats and eatables, and earns huge profit every year. In spite of highly prosperous condition of this department, the workmen employed there are not treated well in regard to wages, gratuity, etc. The formation of the Union has not been taken in good grace by the Society. The financial soundnesss and capability of paying much higher wages to the workmen is beyond any shadow of doubt. The Management did not take any notice of the charter of demands submitted in February 1961. The workmen have been working at very low rates of wages, and have been in constant debts. They are unable to save any portion of their income, and would be left to very much distress in old age. The Management should be directed to pay increments to the hard-working and suffering workmen, and there should be introduced proper grades and scales of pay. They should also be allowed gratuity at the rate of one month's wages for each year of service for the period not covered by the Provident Fund Scheme.

The Society's avertments in the written statement are as follows:

The order of reference is ultra vires of the Industrial Disputes Act. The Society is a non-profit making charitable institution and is not covered by the definition of "industry" and. hence, the reference is void and illegal. On similar issues there is an award passed by the Fourth Industrial Tribunal and published in the "Calcutta Gazettee" on 14th May 1959, which is still binding upon the parties and, as such, this reference is hit by the principle of res judicata. There has been no material change of circumstances since the passing of the aforesaid award, nor any material change of circumstances has been pleaded in the Union's written statement, and hence the case of the Union must fall through. The Tribunal has no jurisdiction to try this matter at all. The written statement of the Union contains false and baseless statements. The object of the Society, as would appear from the Memorandum of Articles of Association of the Society, is to do charitable work amongst the needy and poor people in various ways. The society always suffers from chronic deficits to meet which donations and subscriptions are realised from various sources, but still there are deficits, as the balance-sheets will prove. It is absolutely untrue that the Society earns any profit by making any business. The affairs of Puri Methai Dokan should not be considered in isolation inasmuch as it has been only one of the departments of the Society. This sweetmeat shop has itself some charitable mission behind it because sweetmeats and puris are prepared with pure ghee and sold at relatively cheaper prices for the sake of the poor and middle-class people. The financial position of the Society is deplorable, and it is increasing day by day. Any further increase in the shape of expenses would seriously affect the charitable and welfare activities of the Society. The claim for increasing wages and introduction of grades and scales of pay is absolutely untenable, particularly, when the same question had already been adjudicated upon. By the said award a general increment at a flat rate of Rs. 5 per month was granted to all the employees of the Society. No further increment is called for in the circumstances. By the previous award a similar claim for gratuity was rejected and this question ought not to be agitated again. The Union's claim for gratuity is illegal and baseless.

Decision

Before taking up the specific issues, I first deal with the general legal objections taken by the Society as to the non-maintainability of the present reference. The Society's objections are: (i) There was a previous award on similar issues decided by Shri M. N. Gan, which was published in the "Calcutta Gazette" on 14th May 1959, rejecting the claims of the Union, and that award is binding upon the parties; (ii) material change of circumstances since the previous award has not been pleaded; and (iii) any slight increase in wages would create disaster and unsettle everything, as there would be series of actue agitations in every department which state of things is not contemplated by the industrial laws, and, hence, the reference is ultra vires. The Union's case is that the previous award has been duly terminated by notice according to law; that the demand-charter sufficiently suggests allegation of change in the circumstances; since the previous award, and there is also proof of such change of circumstances; and that the Society's contention as per its written statement that it is only a charitable institution, and not a profit-making concern, is totally untrue, and the objection as to what may or may not happen in future if increments in wages are given is absolutely futile.

At the time of argument Shri Moitra, on behalf of the Society, did not press the first objection as the Union furnished a copy of termination-notice (Ext. 4). As to the second objection, I think, the Society has not made out a good case. There was a charter of demands in February 1961, and that is sufficiently suggestive of an allegation of change in the circumstances. There is evidence on the Union's side to say that the workers are paid very low wages with which they are quite unable to maintain themselves and their families, as prices of articles have gone up. Shri Roy, on behalf of the Union, has referred to the Consumer Index Numbers as published in the "Calcutta Gazette", dated 25th June 1959 and 28th June 1962. The Index Numbers in those two years for May 1959 and April 1962 have been shown to be 142 and 157, respectively, the base-year figure being 1944=100. These things can very well be taken notice of judicially. The above figures convincingly and obviously show material changes in the cirumstances since the previous award, and no other proof is necessary. The third objection is nothing but Shri Moitra's own views about apprehension of agitations in future if increments are allowed at present. There is no substance in a contention like this. Besides, the affairs of the Puri Methai Dokan certainly come under the definition "industry" as a sweetmeat shop is undoubtedly a business concern, even if there may or may not be any motive for doing charitable work. Considering all things, therefore, I reject all the legal objections raised on behalf of the Society as being futile and untenable.

According to the Society, it has been paying a flat rate increment of Rs. 5 to each of the workmen in terms of the previous award of 1959, and no further increment can be granted in view of the deplorable financial position of the Society. It is argued on behalf of the Union that the Puri Methai Shop was not a party in the previous award, and the workers thereof are not getting any increment under that award. This objection on behalf of the Union is utterly unsubstantial as the award itself as well as the Union's statement in the previous reference case would show. Further, the Society has put in a chart to show that all the workers of the sweetmeat shop are getting an extra sum of Rs. 5. The Union has not explained why and how this sum is being paid to these workmen. Consequently, I may at once take that this extra sum is really an increment given at a flat rate under the aforesaid award. The question is whether any further increment is or is not to be paid to the workmen of this sweetmeat shop of the Society. To come to a right decision in this respect it is quite necessary to go into the question regarding the financial position of the Society.

The object of the Society is said to be doing charitable works and not to make any profits. I am referred to clauses 3(c) and (f) of the Memorandum of Association of the Society. This clause enumerates about the Society's object of doing charitable works for the suffering humanity and to help the deserving and the poor persons. The evidence adduced on the side of the Society including the balance-sheets (both general and special) did not disclose so much of acts of charity as mentioned in the above clause, such instances being very few. On the other hand, clause 4 of the said Memorandum shows that the profits, income, etc., of the Society might well be paid in good faith as remuneration to any servant of the Society in return for any services actually rendered. Thus the Society appears to have in view some prospect of making profits. In the circumstances, the Society may be taken to have been doing partial charitable works, not that it is not a profit-making concern at all.

O.P.W. 1 Shri Satyanarayan Dhandania, Manager of the Puri Methai Shop, has deposed to the effect that the daily sale proceeds of this shop would be Rs. 700 to Rs. 800, that annual profit is between Rs. 10,000 to Rs. 20,000 and this shop never incurred any loss. According to his statement, the average annual profit would be about Rs. 15,000. The special balance-sheets, i.e., the balance-sheets concerning the sweetmeat shop itself show annual sale proceeds of Rs. 3,10,000, Rs. 3,77,700 and Rs. 4,00,398 respectively in the years 1959, 1960 and 1961. The average daily sale proceeds would thus amount to be over Rs. 1,000, not Rs. 700 or Rs. 800, as spoken by O.P.W. 1. These particular balance-sheets further show profits of the sweetmeat shop to have been Rs. 18,579.53, Rs. 12,057.41 and Rs. 22,267.25 during those three years respectively. The average annual profit would thus amount to Rs. 17,634.73, which is much higher than Rs. 15,000 according to O.P.W. 1's evidence. Thus, it appears that this sweetmeat shop earns much profits annually.

The case of the Society is that the profits arising out of the sweetmeat shop should not be taken into consideration in isolation for this particular unit alone. It is said that this shop is a part of the entire Society which comprises several other units as well, and that the general accounts concerning all the units together should be taken into consideration, and in that case it would appear that the Society has always deficits generally. According to the arguement advanced on behalf of the Union, the sweetmeat shop is an independent establishment. The Union's contention is that the workers of this establishment are non-transferable to any other department of the Society, that this sweetmeat shop has its own accounts and balance-sheets, that the parent Society will not be least affected if this shop establishment is closed down, and that one such unit of the Society may well exist without the existence of the other units. It is further said that the management of the shop is separate, accounts of this shop are separate, and the general and special balance-sheets are audited by different auditors, indicating that the sweetmeat shop can well be treated as an independent establishment. As against this, the Society has put in a copy of a letter, dated 24th November 1960, from the Assistant Secretary, Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, addressed to the Secretary of the Union (Ext. A) and the case reported in F.L.R., 1962, Vol. V, page 109. It appears that the Union raised a dispute against the Society by claiming bonus for the employees of the sweetmeat shop for the year 1958-59, but the Government refused to make a reference by stating that the sweetmeat shop was not an independent establishment, but a constituent part of the Society, and it had not been proved that the Society as a whole made any profit during that year, and the earnings from the shop would not be considered separately for payment of bonus. Against that order the Union moved the Hon'ble High Court of Calcutta under Article 226 of the Indian Constitution. That case was, however, dismissed by the Hon'ble Court on the findings that on the materials on record there was functional integrality between the sweetmeat shop and the other departments of the Society, and that the consideration of the State Government in refusing to make the reference was the overriding consideration that the Society had made no profits out of which bonus could be paid. In evidence before me, the Union Secretary said they contemplate preferring an appeal against that decision of the Hon'ble High Court. It is, however, to be noted that details of facts, circumstances and evidence have been supplied before this Tribunal by both parties, whereas all such materials do not appear to have been supplied in the case under section 226 of the Indian Constitution. Moreover, it does not appear that there was any independent finding that the Society had made no profit. That matter arose out of a demand for bonus. It appears to be an accepted principle that the different units of a particular industry are to be taken into consideration together for the purpose of understanding whether and how far the claim of bonus can be granted. But, in my view, there ought to be some difference in principle when the question relates to wages and increments thereof in regard to a particular unit or establishment of an industry. It has been seen above that the sweetmeat shop has been earning huge profits annually. If this establishment is considered in isolation of other units, the Union's claim may, at least to some extent, be granted in view of the profits made by the particular unit.

O.P.W. 2, Shri Jagannath Prosad Sarma, the Chief Accountant of the Society, who works at the Society's Head Office, has stated in his deposition that Rs. 700 is taken every month from the sweetmeat shop to the Head Office and spent towards the charges for General Manager, Accountants and the Cashier of the Head Office, as well as over miscellaneous charges including stationery, telephone, etc. It is in evidence on the side of the Society that the profits of this shop cannot be utilised for the employees of this particular establishment. In this connection I may well refer to one important fact. The Society had a department called Papar Producing Department which was closed one or two years ago. The Chief Accountant has deposed to the effect that no money whatever was taken from that particular department for meeting charges as mentioned above, the reason being stated that that unit had separate management. If this Papar Producing Department had a separate management, there can be no reason to say that the sweetmeat shop has no independent management, particularly when O.P.W. 1 is the Manager of this shop and himself keeps the shop accounts which are said to be daily sent to the Head Office. It is said in argument for the Society that the accounts of the sweetmeat shop are maintained at the Head Office. O.P.W. 2 also says that they maintained accounts of the Papar Producing Department at the Head Office.

The conditions being said to be practically similar, it is not understood why and how the sweetmeat shop which yields large profits annually should be considered as a part and parcel of the entire Society for the purpose of wages of the employees of this particular shop. The preparation and maintenance of separate balance-sheets by different auditors is also very much suggestive in favour of the Union. From all these facts and circumstances, it may well be said that the sweetmeat shop has its independent establishment, at least, so far as the question relating to wages, gratuity, etc., are concerned. In that case, it is quite obvious that this establishment earns enormous profits by itself.

The question should also be considered by taking the sweetmeat shop as an integral part of the whole Society. Taking the figures for the purpose of illustrations, from the balance-sheet of 1959, it appears that a sum of Rs. 6,869.88 has been shown as deficit for the year. According to the argument advanced on behalf of the Union, the method of accountings is unfair and improper. Shri Roy has argued that the receipts of very large amounts of money from different sources have not been shown in the column for the total income for the year. O.P.W. 2 has said that the total amount of Rs. 11,614 received as life membership subscriptions has not been included in the credit side of the profit and loss account for that year, the amount having been transferred direct to the general reserve fund. The balance-sheet shows that many other items of income from other sources were similarly left out of the relevant column of total income. The same thing admittedly happened in regard to similar other items of large sums of money in the years 1960 and 1961 as well. Thus it appears, the Society has been gradually increasing its General Reserve Funds, without showing the total annual income in the aforesaid manner, it is contended by Shri Moitra on behalf of the Society that some such items are not shown in the relevant column as they are not revenue income, and that some receipts are for specific purposes. This contention does not seem to hold good in view of the fact that most of the items appear to be revenue income, and the Society appears to have built a consolidated General Fund. This would be evident from the fact in the balance-sheet the alleged deficit have been set off against the amount of General Reserve Fund. There is also no substance in saying that capital incomes are to be shown in the relevant column of total income of the year concerned. If, therefore, the aforementioned large sums of money were properly shown in the last column of total income of the balance-sheets there would appear large profits annually and there would be no question of any deficit at all in any year. Besides, it appears that the Society has been enormously increasing its Reserve Funds from year to year by throwing into it large sums of receipts from various sources. In the circumstances, it would not do to say that the Society is running at any loss. On the contrary, as found from above, the financial position of the sweetmeat shop (as well as the Society as a whole) is very sound and stable and would certainly admit of some increments to the workmen concerned. It may be noted here that though the Society means to say that it has to take Rs. 700 per month from the sweetmeat shop for meeting charges for the General Manager and the Accountants of the Head Office. In that case the Society could take only Rs. 8,400 annually but the Society used to take actually larger sums of money from this shop. In one particular year (1959) the Society took Rs. 18,579.73 from this shop. Yet it is said that the workmen of the sweetmeat shop are not entitled to share in its profits as wages, etc. The action of the Society appears to be based on some selfish motive by depriving the poorly paid workmen of their legitimate demands for increment of wages.

The Society's chart (Ext. D) shows that there are one mistry drawing Rs. 85 a month, nine helpers drawing Rs. 58 each per month, one store coolie getting Rs. 55 per month, 14 bearers getting Rs. 50 each per month, and one vegetable-cutter drawing Rs. 50 per month. These 26 workmen appear to be poorly paid. The Union cited instances of higher wages paid by similar concerns, such as, Biswa Bandhu Bhandar, Hind Jalpan, etc. P.W. 2 Aswini Kumar Ghosh is the Head Karigar of Biswabandhu Bhandar. He says that he gets a monthly pay of Rs. 105 along with an informal or secret payment of Rs. 25, whereas his Assistants get Rs. 75 per month, and the bearers get Rs. 50 each per month. P.W. 3, Durga Prosad is the tea-maker of the Hind Jalpan. According to him, the head mistry gets a pay of Rs. 300 and the assistant Rs. 150 to Rs. 200, himself Rs. 80, and the bearers Rs. 55 to Rs. 125 per month. Both of them also have deposed that they get in addition to their wages free foodings and refreshments daily. P.W. 4 Sitaram Mistry is the Head Karigar or Haluikar of the Puri Methai Shop of the Society. His evidence is that the workers of this shop do not get free food or free refreshment at all. The transactions of Biswa Bandhu Bhandar and Hind Jalpan may be larger in scale than that of the Puri Methai Shop, but the workers of those two concerns get not only much higher wages, but also amenities like free fooding and refreshments which were denied to the workers of the Society's shop. The present wages of the workmen of the shop, as stated already, included the increment of Rs. 5 previously granted by Shri M. N. Gan. But still these wages are very small not only in view of the present economic crisis, but also in comparison with the wages earned by the workers of similar concerns referred to above.

The Union demanded grades and scales of pay as follows:

Helper—Rs. 75—4—115 (10 years).

Bearers (boys)—Rs. 70—3—100 (10 years).

Mistry or Haluikar—Rs. 100—5—150 (10 years).

I have already seen that the average annual income for 1959 to 1961 was Rs. 17,634.73. If the scales demanded by the Union be granted, then the whole of this average income may be consumed for payment of increased wages to the workmen. This should not be done in the present case.

Considering all the facts and circumstances together, I am disposed to grant increments to the workmen concerned as stated below. This shall take effect from the date of publication of this decision in the "Calcutta Gazette." In the special circumstances and in the absence of any cogent evidence or materials I refrain from granting grades and scales of pay as such as demanded by the Union:

Present wages.		Wages granted.
Rs.		Rs.
85	.. ..	100
58	.. ..	70
55	.. ..	67
50	.. ..	62

Issue No. 2

The Union claims gratuity for the period not covered by the Provident Fund Scheme at the rate of one month's wages for each year of service. A similar claim for gratuity was previously rejected by Shri Gan. I also did not find any cogent and sufficient reason to allow this claim, particularly, when some increments have been hereby allowed to the workmen. So the claim for gratuity stands rejected.

Award is passed accordingly.

No. 6314-I.R.|IR|7L-9|60.—12th November 1962.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 666-I.R.|IR|7L-9|60, dated the 19th February 1960, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Prem Chand Jute Mills, P.O. Chakkashi, district Howrah, and their workmen represented by Premchand Jute Workers' Union, P.O. Fuleshwar, district Howrah, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order, being a matter specified in the Second Schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred to the Second Labour Court for adjudication;

And whereas during the pendency of proceedings before the said Second Labour Court, Shri Sindhu Samal, a workman of the said Company, made a complaint in writing to the said Second Labour Court against the said Company alleging that the said Company had dismissed the said workman concerned in such dispute;

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred by section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the said Second Labour Court has adjudicated upon the said complaint and submitted its award to the State Government;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, filed by Shri Sindhu Samal, 132 Dharamtolla Road, P.O. Salkia Howrah, a workman of Messrs. Prem Chand Jute Mill, Chakasi, Howrah, against the above Company. (Case No. 6 of 1961 under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act.)

Award

An industrial dispute between Messrs. Prem Chand Jute Mill (hereinafter referred to as the Company) and their workmen was referred to this Court by the Government of West Bengal by their order No. 666-I.R.|IR|7L-9|60, dated 19th February 1960, for adjudication. During the pendency of that dispute Shri Sindhu Samal, a workman of the above Company, filed a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act against that Company before this Court.

The facts of the case, in brief, are as follows:

On 23rd February 1961 the Company issued to Shri Sindhu Samal a charge-sheet on the following charges:

(1) You have been habitually quarrelling with the Line Sirdar and not working properly.

(2) Today also you quarrelled with the Line Sirdar and behaved most insolently with the Department Overseer during working hours of the Mill.

(3) You were also previously charge-sheeted and then warned for similar offence.

He gave explanation to the charge-sheet denying the charges. An enquiry about the charge-sheet was held on 27th February 1961 and thereafter he was dismissed on 1st March 1961 on the above charges.

The case of the complainant Shri Sindhu Samal, in brief, is that the Company has contravened the provisions of section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act by not applying for approval of its action in dismissing him. As to the merits of the dismissal his case is that the allegations mentioned in charge-sheet are baseless, that a mock enquiry was held in which he was not asked anything nor was he allowed an opportunity of self-defence by cross-examining any witnesses of the Company or by being asked to put in evidence and that as such his dismissal is unjustified.

The Company admits that it did not apply to me for approval of its action in dismissing the complainant. So I hold that the present complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act is maintainable.

As to the merits, the Company contends that a proper enquiry was held in which he was given every opportunity of self-defence. At the enquiry the charges mentioned in the charge-sheet were proved. The management considered his past record of service which shows that he was guilty of misconduct on different occasions for which he was warned. So the management rightly came to the conclusion that he deserved to be dismissed and accordingly dismissed him.

So the first question that comes for decision is whether a proper enquiry was held by the Company and whether the finding of the enquiry can be supported. Shri Sindhu Samal has admitted in his written statement and also in his evidence before me that he was present at the enquiry. He says that he was not given any opportunity to defend himself at the enquiry. But O.P.W.1 Shri Thakurdas Banerjee, the Labour Officer of the Company who held the enquiry, says that after Shri Sindhu Samal came to the place of enquiry, the charge-sheet and his reply were shown to him and he accepted them to be correct. He was then asked whether he had any further statement to make, he replied in the negative. Thereafter witnesses on behalf of the Company were examined. Shri Sindhu Samal was asked to cross-examine them; he cross-examined some of them. Thereafter he was asked to produce witnesses on his behalf; he did not produce any witness. He was asked to sign the proceedings of the enquiry; but he declined to do so. There is nothing in evidence to disbelieve this witness. The representative of the complainant has argued that the proceedings of the enquiry do not show that Shri Sindhu Samal was asked to sign the proceedings of the enquiry; but the proceeding of the enquiry Ext.D clearly show that the proceedings of the enquiry were read out and explained to Shri Sindhu Samal and he was asked to sign them, but that he refused to do so in presence of the witnesses. So the absence of any signature of Shri Sindhu Samal does not show that the enquiry was not properly held. As I believe the evidence of O.P.W.1, I hold that the enquiry was properly held and that there is no substance in the contention of the complainant that he was not given any opportunity of defence at the enquiry. Evidence adduced at the enquiry has proved all the three charges mentioned in the charge-sheet. It has been argued by the representative of the complainant that though the Departmental Overseer has stated in his evidence at the enquiry that Shri Sindhu Samal used some abusive words towards him, there is no mention of these words in his report to the Manager (Ext. G). But that is a matter that fell to be considered by the Enquiring Officer. If in spite of the non-mention of these words in Ext. G, he believed that evidence of the Departmental Overseer at the enquiry, it cannot be said that his finding in that respect is perverse. Moreover the report of the Departmental Overseer (Ext. G) was meant to be a short report about the conduct of the complainant; the absence of the abusive words therefrom does not show that the abusive words were not used. Further the Departmental Overseer has been corroborated by another witness at the enquiry. Another argument adduced by the representative of the complainant is that the Line Sirdar who is the main witness at the domestic enquiry has not been produced before me; but the Company is not required to produce every witness of the domestic enquiry before me. As the Company has convinced me by the evidence of O.P.W.1 that the enquiry was properly held, non-production of any other witness before me does not weaken the case of the Company. The representative of the complainant has assailed the enquiry also on the ground that the Labour Officer who issued the charge-sheet held the enquiry, the suggestion being that he is both the prosecutor and the judge. But it must be remembered that the Labour Officer was not at all involved in the incident; he simply issued the charge-sheet under order of the Manager. The real prosecutor in this case is the Line Sirdar or the Departmental Overseer. So holding of the enquiry by the Labour Officer has not in any way vitiated the enquiry.

It is the case of the Company that when the Line Sirdar asked Shri Sindhu Samal to "size" his machine and to cut the "jam", he refused to do so and quarrelled with the former. The complainant has contended before me that the work which he was asked to do was not a part of his duty and that he was asked to do it after the whistle for closing of work was sounded. He has produced a witness in support of this contention. The Company has adduced evidence before me to rebut that contention. It is also worth to note that Shri Sindhu Samal did not raise any such plea at the domestic enquiry. So the evidence on this point before me cannot be considered to rebut the finding of the domestic enquiry. Moreover, even if this contention of the complainant be accepted as true, that does not justify his insolent behaviour and use of abusive words towards his superiors, viz., the Line Sirdar and the Departmental Overseer.

In view of the above considerations I hold that the dismissal of the complainant Shri Sindhu Samal is justified. As such he is not entitled to any relief.

No. 6296-I.R.|IR|10L-63(A)|61.—12th November 1962.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 4932-I.R.|IR|10L-63(A)|61, dated the 11th August 1961, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Power & Machinery Construction Co. (P.) Ltd., 14 Paymental Garden Lane, Calcutta-15, and their workmen represented by West Bengal Engineering Workers' Union, 48 Dharamtola Street, Calcutta-13, regarding the issues mentioned in the said order being matters specified in the second and the third schedules to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947). was referred for adjudication to the Second Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Second Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an Industrial Dispute between Messrs. Power Machinery Construction Co. (P.) Ltd., 14 Paymental Garden Lane, Calcutta-15, and their workmen represented by West Bengal Engineering Workers' Union, 48 Dharmatolla Street, Calcutta-13. (Case No. VIII-264|61.)

BEFORE THE SECOND INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:
Shri P. C. PAL, M.A.,LL.B., Judge,

Appearances:

For the Company: Shri Sailendra Kumar, Director of the Company.

For the Union: Shri Fatick Ghose, General Secretary of the Union.

This is a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act of 1947 by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 4932|I.R.|IR|10L-63(A)|61, dated the 11th August 1961 for adjudication of the following issues, namely:

Issues

(1) Whether the termination of employment of Shri Sadhan Kumar Putatundi is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

(2) Whether the workmen are entitled to wages for the 21st January 1961, the 23rd January 1961, and the 26th January 1961?

After the parties put in their respective written statements in usual course and all tadbirs were made by them, the case was finally fixed for hearing on 17th October 1962. On that date the parties came to an amicable settlement regarding all the issues involved and put in a joint petition of compromise. I have heard both parties' representatives and gone through the terms of settlement, which are accepted as being quite fair and reasonable. Accordingly, an award is hereby passed in terms of settlement as per position of compromise, which shall form part of this Award as an annexure thereto.

Requisition

NOTIFICATION

No. 11206Reqn.—7th September 1962.—Whereas the properties specified in the schedule below were requisitioned by an officer of the State Government on behalf of the Central Government under sub-rule (1) of rule 75A of Defence of India Rules;

And whereas the said properties were subject to requisition under section 3 of the Requisitioned Land (Continuance of Powers) Act, 1947 (XVII of 1947) and were acquired for the purpose of the Central Government under section 5 of the said Act before its repeal by the Requisitioning and Acquisition of Immovable Property Act, 1952 (XXX of 1952);

And whereas the acquisition of the said properties was not inconsistent with the provisions of the Requisitioning and Acquisition of Immovable Property Act, 1952 (XXX of 1952) and, as such, was deemed, by virtue of clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 21 of the said Act XXX of 1952, to have been made in accordance with the provisions of the said Act;

And whereas no agreement fixing the amount of compensation payable for such acquisition can be reached;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 8 of the Requisitioning and Acquisition of Immovable Property Act, 1952 (XXX of 1952),) read with section 24 of the said Act and section 6 of the Requisitioned Land (Continuance of Powers) Act, 1947 (XVII of 1947) and with the Government of India, Ministry of Works, Housing and Supply notification No. 1608-EII/53 (S.R.O. 904), dated the 9th May 1953, the Governor is pleased to appoint Shri B. Banerjee, District and Sessions Judge, Nadia, who is qualified for appointment as a Judge of a High Court, an Arbitrator for the determination of the amount of compensation payable in respect of such acquisition of the said properties and the person or persons who are entitled to the compensation and if the Arbitrator finds that more persons than one are entitled to the compensation, also for apportionment of such compensation.

LABOUR DEPARTMENT

ORDERS

No. 4480-I.R./IR/8L-14(D)/61.—3rd October 1962.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 6400-I.R./IR/8L-14(D)/61, dated the 3rd November 1961, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Kesoram Cotton Mills, 42 Garden Reach Road, Calcutta-24, and their workmen represented by Garden Reach Textile Workers' Union, Q-77 Akra Road, Calcutta-24, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order being a matter specified in the third schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the First Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said First Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Kesoram Cotton Mills, 42 Garden Reach Road, Calcutta-24, and their workmen, represented by Garden Reach Textile Workers' Union, Q-77 Akra Road, Calcutta-24. (Case No. VIII-348/61.)

BEFORE THE FIRST INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri S. N. GUHA ROY, Judge, First Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances:

For the Company: Shri S. K. Basu, instructed and assisted by Shri K. P. Mukherjee.

For the Union: Shri Patit Paban Pathak, instructed and assisted by Shri Arun Sen and Ramen Banerjee.

In this reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Kesoram Cotton Mills and their workmen represented by Garden Reach Textile Workers' Union made by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 6400-I.R./IR/8L-14(D)/61, dated the 3rd November 1961, the only issue is whether the Fancy Jobbers of Weaving Shed are entitled to get the same rate of wages as the Weaving Line Jobbers and, if so, from what date and, if not, what should be their rate of wages.

The Union's written statement is to the effect that there are altogether 41 workmen engaged in the mills in the category known as Fancy Jobbers and there is a list of these workmen in Annexure A to the statement. These Fancy Jobbers are, according to the Union, a set of skilled workmen in the Cotton Textile Industry, their work being primarily to fit, attend and manage the working of the looms fitted with dobby and jacquard machines for the purpose of translating the intended designs into the textiles to be manufactured. There is another category of workmen in the Weaving Shed known as Line Jobbers whose duty, according to the Union, is to attend looms running in their lines and the wages of the Line Jobbers average monthly between Rs. 250 and Rs. 325 according to the award of the Cotton Textile Tribunal in 1958. According to the Union, the work of the Fancy Jobbers involves much greater skill than that of the Line Jobbers and yet the wages of the Fancy Jobbers vary from Rs. 100 to Rs. 150 inclusive of D.A. though many Weavers working under the Fancy Jobbers get more than Rs. 200 per month. It is also stated in the Union's written statement that in many other mills in West Bengal the Fancy Jobbers are being paid more wages than the Line Jobbers of the Weaving Shed. The Union, therefore, claims for the Fancy Jobbers a scale of pay of Rs. 250—10—350 per month plus D.A., etc., as per agreement, dated 1st March 1961.

On behalf of the Company a preliminary statement was filed first, raising certain preliminary objections to the Tribunal's jurisdiction and the maintainability of the present reference. The Union filed a reply to it. On these the parties were heard and the matter is dealt with by order No. 11, dated 1st February 1962, which speaks for itself and need not be repeated here. On that application two points were raised on behalf of the Company, relating first to the jurisdiction of the State Government to make a reference and secondly to the necessity and propriety of adding as parties to this reference the other Cotton Textile Mills of West Bengal which were parties to the award of 1958. The first was not specifically raised in the application and so on behalf of the Company this point could not be raised during the arguments on the preliminary statement. Arguments, therefore, had to be confined to the second point and the Company's prayer for adding the other mills, as prayed for, was rejected.

Thereafter, the Company filed its final written statement in which it asked for permission to treat as a part of it the preliminary statement it had already filed with all the annexures. In this written statement also certain preliminary objections were raised, namely, first that the order of reference is legally invalid because first it is ultra vires the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act in view of the continuation in force of the award of 1958, secondly because the reference contravenes the provisions of Article 14 of the Constitution so as to be prima facie discriminatory as between Kesoram Industries and Cotton Mills Limited on the one hand and the other Textile Mills which were parties to the award of 1958 on the other and thirdly because the Fancy Jobbers having accepted without any protest all the benefits including bonus which to them under the provisions of the award of 1958 are precluded from alleging that their case was not covered by the same award. In the written statement the Company then proceeds to deny that it had 41 Fancy Jobbers. According to it, only 31 of the persons named in Annexure A to the Union's written statement were actually employed as Fancy Jobbers in the mills and the names of these 31 persons were given in Annexure "X" to the Company's written statement. Subsequently, however, during the hearing, this list was further enlarged by the Company by an application, dated the 4th of September 1962, in which all but two, namely, Santi Ranjan and Khagen, were by implication accepted as Fancy Jobbers, it being distinctly stated in the application that out of the 41 persons stated by the Union to be working as Fancy Jobbers only Santi Ranjan and Khagen do not perform the work meant for Fancy Jobbers. So the point in dispute on that score was narrowed down to two persons only, namely, Santi Ranjan Das and Khagendra Nath Shaw. As regards the nature of the work of Fancy Jobbers the Company alleges in the first place that Fancy Jobbers have no workmen under their control and they are not called upon to supervise anybody's work; in the second that the dobby or jacquard machines which a Fancy Jobber has to look after vary from 50 to 60 and he has only to look after them in case of the breakdown of dobby and jacquard machines and such breakdowns were not frequent; thirdly that a Line Jobber is a piece-rated workman and recognised as such in the Cotton Textile Industry whereas Fancy Jobbers are time-rated workmen. The sum and substance of the Company's written statement on this point is that the Line Jobbers have a much higher workload than the Fancy Jobbers, because the Fancy Jobbers in course of eight hours' duty per day have to set dobby machines or jacquard machines for fancy figuring very rarely as changes of sets are effected actually after the manufacture of a fancy-figuring is completed which may take sometimes several days whereas a Line Jobber has to look after a number of looms, to control, direct and supervise the work of all the Weavers operating these looms and so also to see to the looms being kept running and if necessary he has also to do running repairs of those looms and the break down of those looms is more frequent than that of a few dobby and jacquard machines.

On the date of hearing, i.e., 6th August 1962 Shri P. Pathak on behalf of the Union filed an application for appointing an expert as assessor and also for local inspection by the Tribunal. This matter is dealt with by order No. 22, dated 6th August 1962. I reserved orders as regards his prayer for local inspection till the evidence was heard. At the conclusion of the hearing he renewed this prayer. I did not think any useful purpose could have been served by my inspecting the working of the mills for a few hours for finding out what should be the rate of wages of Fancy Jobbers, particularly when the evidence of the experts examined on both sides has agreed on one point, namely, that both the Line Jobbers and the Fancy Jobbers are skilled workmen but the nature of the skill required for each type of work is entirely different and the duties of the Fancy Jobbers and the Line Jobbers are not really comparable. In view of this agreement among the experts, on both sides, it was really unnecessary for me to inspect the mills. Besides, from a brief inspection for a few hours only, it is quite impossible for a layman like me to arrive at any clear idea of the nature of the duties of these two categories of skilled workmen in the mills. I did not accordingly inspect the mills as prayed for by Shri P. Pathak and I told him why I did not do so at the conclusion of the hearing.

On behalf of the workmen six witnesses were examined altogether including Shri Arun Sen, General Secretary of the Union and an expert Shri Ram Ranjan Chatterjee, the Managing Director of Kalyani Spinning Mills and on behalf of the mills there were only two witnesses, both of whom were cited as experts, one of them Shri Subodh Chandra Das Gupta being now the General Manager of Victoria Cotton Mills, Ghusury, Howrah, and the other Shri G. M. Pujari, Assistant Chief Officer of Kesoram Cotton Mills.

Before I go into the preliminary questions raised in this case, it is necessary to dispose of the dispute between the parties as regards the two men, who are claimed on behalf of the Union to be amongst the Fancy Jobbers of the mills and who, according to the mills, are not Fancy Jobbers. These two men are, as already stated, Santi Ranjan Das and Khagendra Nath Shaw. On behalf of the Union these two men were examined. Santi Ranjan is witness No. 3 for the Union. The employment book of Santi Ranjan Das is Ext. 3. In the second page of this exhibit there is on top the following entry:

T. No.	F.J.
	53 L.J.

Santi Ranjan explained this by saying that he started as a Line Jobber and worked as such for one year in 1952 and thereafter he become a Fancy Jobber. It is also his evidence that he has been working on a jacquard machine. In his cross-examination he further says that he first entered the employ of the Company in 1948 as a Fancy Jobber and at that time he was merely an apprentice Fancy Jobber. He worked as such for two years and thereafter he began to be employed as a substitute Fancy Jobber and worked as such up to 1951. He became a substitute Line Jobber in 1952 and he worked as such for one year. At that time he was employed on a piece rate and his daily wages came to about Rs. 7. He worked like that for about a year. Then he got a permanent job as a Fancy Jobber on jacquard machine. When he was first employed permanently as a Fancy Jobber his basic pay amounted to about Rs. 25 and in all he used to get about Rs. 65 per month. There is no suggestion in his cross-examination that what work he does if he is not a Fancy Jobber, although a number of questions appear to have been put to him about the nature of the work of Fancy Jobbers. Shri Durgapada Ganguly, who according to himself and Santi Ranjan is the Head Fancy Jobber on the jacquard machine, also says that Santi Ranjan is a Fancy Jobber working on a jacquard machine. The only witness examined on the side of the mills from amongst the mills' employees is Shri G. M. Pujari. He does not appear to have been questioned at all as regards Santi Ranjan or as regards Khagen. The evidence, therefore, as regards Santi Ranjan is ex-parte and the fact that he has been marked F.J. in his employment book although he was first marked L.J. goes to indicate that he is a Fancy Jobber.

Shri Khagendra Nath Shaw is witness No. 5 for the Union. He also claims to be a Fancy Jobber on a jacquard machine. He claims to have been first appointed in 1953 as an apprentice in the Jacquard Department and there he worked for about two years, and then he used to learn the work of a Fancy Jobber on a jacquard machine. Exhibit A is an attendance card of Khagen for July 1962. This Ext. A, however, does not directly show whether he is a Fancy Jobber or anything else. It shows first of all that it is a substitute attendance card, that is, the attendance card of a workman who is working as a substitute. There is also an endorsement in a part of the card showing that he is a Weaving Department daily hand (WVG.DT.DH). Then it shows that his departmental in-charge was Shri G. P. Bire. Three of the signatures of Shri G. P. Bire appear on the reserve of Ext. A. During the cross-examinetion of Khagen, Shri G. P. Bire was produced by the Company in Court and Khagen pointed him out as his superior officer and he distinctly stated that Shri G. P. Bire would be able to say all about his work. It was suggested to him on behalf of the mills that he was merely a dobby fitter but he denies this. Shri G. P. Bire who was produced in Court for identification by Khagen Shaw was duly identified by him as his superior officer but the Company did not produce him as a witness nor did the Company produce any other evidence to show that Khagen was actually a dobby fitter and not as he claimed, a Fancy Jobber working on a jacquard machine. Thus, as far as Khagen is concerned, he was clearly not a permanent workman though as a substitute or badli workman he was attached to the Weaving Department as a Fancy Jobber. On the evidence, therefore, it must be held that all the workmen mentioned in Annexure A to the written statement except Khagendra Nath Shaw were permanent Fancy Jobbers of the mills and Khagen was a substitute Fancy Jobber only and not a permanent Fancy Jobber in the Weaving Department.

I have already said that about the 39 other workmen mentioned in the list in Annexure A to the written statement of the Union there is no dispute between the parties. Consequently it must be held that all the workmen except Khagen mentioned in that list are employed as permanent Fancy Jobbers in the mills and Khagendra Nath Shaw is only a substitute Fancy Jobber.

On the pleadings two additional issues were framed, namely, (1) whether the present reference is maintainable in law in view (i) of the award between the same parties and published in the "Calcutta Gazette" of 10th June 1958 on the issue of basic wages and grades and scales of pay for all categories of workmen including the clerks in the Cotton Textile Industry and (ii) of the terms of the agreement, dated 1st March 1961; (2) whether the present order of reference offends the provisions of Article 14 of the Constitution and is discriminatory?

I shall now take up these two preliminary issues which are evidently interconnected. The first is based on the award of 1958 and also an agreement forming Annexure A to the preliminary written statement of the Company. The award of 1953 is Ext. D. It appears from the award itself that a good many Cotton Textile Mills including the Kesoram Cotton Mills in West Bengal were parties to that dispute. The issues referred to the Tribunal included the revision of basic wages, grades and scales of pay for all categories of workmen. In the body of the award Weaving Line Jobbers were specifically dealt with. Under the award each Line Jobber was entitled to 10 per cent. of the earnings of the Weavers under him up to 52 looms in a line and for a higher number of looms the percentage might be 9 or 10 in suitable cases and there were certain other directions given in that part of the award. Then in Appendix VII, the basic wages of the time-rated workers were laid down and in Appendix VIIA the basic wages of piece-rated workmen were laid down. Admittedly Fancy Jobbers are time-rated workmen but there is no specific mention of Fancy Jobbers in the list of workmen mentioned in Appendix VII, whereas in Appendix VIIA there is a specific mention of Line Jobbers. This award referred to an earlier award of 1948, Ext. 5. In the earlier dispute also the question of minimum basic wages of different categories of workmen and employees and allowances for piece raters of different departments was included as point No. 2. This award appears to have fixed the basic pay of unskilled workers at Rs. 20-2-6 pies per month of 26 days and its Appendix B shows what would be the minimum pay of different categories of time raters. In this Appendix B, the letter "N" represents the minimum basic wages for unskilled workers and then for skilled workmen a differential is added to N. That is how the basic wages of different types of time-rated workers are fixed. In Appendix B there is no mention of either Line Jobbers or Fancy Jobbers. Appendix B(1) fixed the basic wages of piece-rated workers. There a Weaver's pay has been fixed at N+Rs. 16 and a Line Jobber's wages were fixed at 8 per cent. to 10 per cent. of the basic wages earned by the Weavers under him depending on the number of Weavers. The award of 1958 practically takes the earlier award as its model and though it makes some alterations, Appendices VII and VIIA of Ext. D are practically verbatim representations of Appendices B and B(1) of Ext. 5. The same basic wages were fixed by the award of 1958 for the Weavers and Line Jobbers as by the earlier award. It is, therefore, clear that in neither of the two awards Fancy Jobbers were expressly dealt with. I asked Shri S. K. Bose, the representative of the mills, as to how the Fancy Jobbers were actually fitted into either of the awards and he told me that as there was no clear provision for the Fancy Jobbers in either, there could be no question of their being fitted into the scheme of either as regards basic wages and their wages, therefore, continued to be the same as they were before the award of 1958. As already pointed out, the 1958 award did not raise the basic wages of either the time-rated or the piece-rated workmen, from the figures at which they were fixed by the award of 1948. Evidently, therefore, the fact that there was no mention of the Fancy Jobbers specifically in the award of 1958 did not really matter to them so far as their basic wages were concerned because all other workmen also continued to receive the same wages awarded to them in 1948. At the same time, the fact remains that while many other time-rated categories of workmen were duly conisdered specifically in the award of 1948 and their basic wages fixed, the Fancy Jobbers as such were not considered either expressly or even by implication, as is evident from the fact that they could not be fitted into any of the provisions of the award, as admitted by Shri Basu. But quite apart from this, the question arises whether the award itself is a legal bar to this issue of the basic wages of Fancy Jobbers being considered in this reference.

As it was not specifically dealt with, I do not see how it can be a legal bar. It could be a bar if only the principle of constructive res judicata is applicable to industrial disputes, but for obvious reasons that principle cannot be extended to such disputes. In the first place, before an Industrial Tribunal a fresh point of dispute cannot be for the first time raised because an industrial dispute comes to an Industrial Tribunal generally after it has passed through certain familiar preliminary stages. First, there is a dispute between the management and the workmen in the shape of a demand on behalf of the workmen and refusal on the part of the management. Then this dispute is referred to the conciliation machinery under the Industrial Disputes Act and then it comes to a Tribunal. Thus when a dispute comes to an Industrial Tribunal it has already received a concrete shape and the issue itself is framed by the appropriate Government when a reference is made to an Industrial Tribunal. The principle of constructive res judicata means that points which might have been raised by a party either as a claim or in defence but which are not raised cannot be pleaded in a separate proceeding between the same parties. That principle, if it is to be applied to industrial disputes, could be applied at best to an industrial dispute when it has already come before a Tribunal. This principle is obviously inapplicable to an industrial dispute at the earlier stages, i.e., before it has reached the Tribunal because at those stages legal technicalities hardly weigh with the parties who are far from all familiar with such technicalities. But regard being had to the fact that the real genesis of the dispute is in the earlier stages when claims and counter-claims are made, it is at once obvious that if a point is not made in the earlier stages it cannot be made at the later stages when the dispute has reached the Tribunal and consequently to apply the principle of constructive res judicata to such disputes when they have reached an Industrial Tribunal would be to compel the parties to make all possible claims in a dispute from the very earliest stages. Instead of bringing peace to industry it is likely to widen the area of dispute by increasing the number of points in a dispute. I am inclined to think that the extension of the principle of constructive res judicata to industrial disputes would be quite unjustified from this point of view and no authority could be shown to me on behalf of the Company that such a principle has ever been extended to an industrial dispute in any case.

As the award of 1958 or for the matter of that the award of 1948 did not provide specifically for the basic wages of Fancy Jobbers, though the dispute covered the question of basic wages of all categories of workmen and as their is nothing in the award from which it can be said that the award provided for the Fancy Jobbers even by implication, there is no question of that award barring a consideration of this matter on this reference on the principles of res judicata nor is there any question of the non-termination of that award by a notice under section 19 being a bar to its consideration. The agreement referred to in the second part of issue No. 1 is an agreement, dated 1st March 1961, between the employers in the Cotton Textile Industry in West Bengal represented by the Bengal Mill Owners Association on the one hand and the Trade Unions in the Cotton Textile Industry represented by the Four Central Trade Union organisations in West Bengal on the other. The first part of this agreement relates to the merger of a part of dearness allowance with the basic wages and about Kesoram Cotton Mills it is specifically mentioned that as they pay a higher dearness allowance than any other Textile Mill in West Bengal their workmen are to get their D.A. according to the agreement and 3/4ths of the D.A. the different categories of workmen are getting would be merged in their basic wages and then there is an agreement about the mode of payment of wages and D.A. of the workmen. Then there were certain other terms which are not materials for our purpose. This agreement also does not either expressly or by implication deal with the question of the emoluments of Fancy Jobbers as such though the terms regarding the merger of a part of dearness allowance with basic wages apply to them as much as to others. Consequently neither the award of 1958 nor this agreement of 1961 seems to me to be a legal bar to the question of the emoluments of Fancy Jobbers being considered on this reference.

Shri S. K. Bose on behalf of the Company also argued as part of additional issue No. 1 that the raising of this dispute practically amounts to a prayer for a reclassification of the workmen and also for a change in the differential as laid down by the Major Textile Tribunal of 1958, because there was no classification of Fancy Jobbers as such. It is certainly true that in the Textile Award of 1948 or for the matter of that in the corresponding award of 1958 there was no classification of workmen as Fancy Jobbers. It is equally true that they could not be fitted into any of the categories of time-rated workmen expressly mentioned in both the awards. It appears from the awards of 1948 and 1958 that the workmen were first classified under two main heads, namely, time-rated and piece rated workmen and then under each of these two main heads there were some categories of workmen levelled as skilled workmen and some other categories labelled as unskilled workmen. There was a category named Line Jobbers but there is no category named Fancy Jobbers. The fixation, therefore, of the basic wages of principles will certainly have the effect of adding a new category to the categories already existing and to that extent there will be not a re-classification but merely the removal of an omission in the existing classification. I do not find however amongst the issues mentioned in the award of 1958 or amongst the points mentioned in the award of 1948 any specific issue regarding the classification of a workman. But of course the question of classification is involved in issue No. 1 of the award of 1958 which deals with the revision of basic wages and grades and scales of pay for all categories of workmen and in point No. 2 of the award of 1948 for minimum basic wages for different categories of workmen. But then the question of classification comes in only incidentally and not as an issue itself. As far as I can make out from the awards the Tribunals did not proceed to adopt any principle of classification of their own but merely accepted the existing classification as presented before them. The award of 1958 appears to have followed verbatim categories of workmen mentioned in the earlier award. Consequently if Fancy Jobbers are treated is a new category of workmen because they are a category by themselves, it cannot possibly mean any modification of that award except to the extent of probably making good an omission due perhaps to the omission in the pleadings of either of the parties.

My answer therefore to additional issue No. 1 is that neither the award of 1958 nor the agreement of 1961 is legally a bar to the issue referred to this Tribunal on this occasion being considered.

On the question of discrimination which is the second part of additional issue No. 1 Shri Bose argued that since the Major Award of 1958 controls all the Textile Mills in West Bengal, the Government by making the reference about the emoluments of Fancy Jobbers of one mill only discriminated against this particular mill and thereby offended Article 14 of the Constitution. I have already said that the Fancy Jobbers were not specifically dealt with in either of two awards and the question now referred cannot be said to have been dealt with in either of the award expressly or by implication. There can therefore be no question of singling out any one of the mills for the purpose of making a reference. It is obvious that the reference had to be against Kesoram Cotton Mills Ltd. only because this dispute arose only between a section of the workmen of Kesoram Cotton Mills Ltd. and the Kesoram Cotton Mills Ltd. That being so what appears to have made the State Government refer the dispute between a section of the workmen of the Kesoram Cotton Mills Ltd. and the Kesoram Cotton Mills is the fact that the dispute was between Kesoram Cotton Mills Ltd. on the one hand and a section of its workmen on the other. The Government no doubt was entitled under section 10(5) to include other mills in this reference either at the time of making this reference or at a later stage before the submission of the award, provided that it was of opinion that a dispute either existed or was apprehended in such other mills. There is nothing before me even to suggest that that the Government had any materials for such an opinion. In these circumstances no question of discrimination can possibly arise. This issue must accordingly be answered in the negative and in favour of the Union.

Issue No. 3

Now I come to the main issue in the case. I have already said that the Union demanded in its written statement a scale of pay of Rs. 250—10—350 plus dearness allowance, etc., as per agreement, dated 1st March 1961. But Shri Arun Sen, General Secretary of the Union, reduced this claim even in his examination-in-chief to the wages of the Line Jobbers. Three of the other witnesses of the Union also have asked for the same wages as the Line Jobbers get at present. The expert cited on behalf of the Union, Shri Chatterjee, recommends at page 5 of his report Ext. 4 that the Fancy Jobbers should get 25 per cent. less than the Line Jobbers and his concrete suggestion is that senior Fancy Jobbers over six years of service should get between Rs. 150 to Rs. 175 and the Head Fancy Jobber, if any, should get Rs. 185 per month. According to him six Fancy Jobbers were getting between Rs. 84 and Rs. 100; 20 Fancy Jobbers between Rs. 101 and Rs. 113; seven Fancy Jobbers between Rs. 113 and Rs. 130; nine Fancy Jobbers between Rs. 131 and Rs. 143; and two Fancy Jobbers between Rs. 144 and Rs. 164 and his suggestion is that the Fancy Jobbers up to six years should get Rs. 150 per month, Senior Fancy Jobbers over six years should get between Rs. 150 and Rs. 175 per month and the Head Fancy Jobber Rs. 185 per month. According to him the average earnings of the Line Jobbers of course in basic wages vary between Rs. 200 and Rs. 225 per month. The evidence of Shri Pujari, second witness for the mills, is that the wages of Fancy Jobbers and the Line Jobbers mentioned at page 5 of the report of Shri Chatterjee are correct. Of course, the report of Shri Chatterjee does not contain any mention of the wages of Line Jobbers at page 5 but this is at page 4. But as Shri Pujari admits the wages as given by Shri Chatterjee to be correct it must be taken that the Line Jobbers are getting on an average Rs. 200 and Rs. 225 per month as their basic wages, whereas the wages of Fancy Jobbers vary between Rs. 84 and Rs. 164, the largest number 26 getting between Rs. 84 and Rs. 113. Shri Chatterjee's report indicates that there are altogether 44 Fancy Jobbers employed in the mills but even according to the Union there are only 41 Fancy Jobbers. Evidently then, this number of Fancy Jobbers, as given by Shri Chatterjee and not contested on behalf of the mills, includes substitute workmen working as Fancy Jobbers in the mills and as a matter of a fact even amongst the 41 mentioned in the Union list there is one, namely, Khagen who is a substitute workman only and not a permanent workman. Shri Chatterjee at page 2 of his report mentioned 36 as the number of Fancy Jobbers working in three shifts in the mill and in his examination-in-chief itself he stated that at page 2 of his report he gave the total number of Fancy Jobbers actually employed in the mills for work on six days in a week in three shifts and apart from these 36 there might be others so as to enable the mills to give these men one day off in a week and he stated in his cross-examination that he gave this figure of 36 on information supplied by the management because it is impossible to find in a shed where there are 2,000 looms how many Fancy Jobbers were actually working in the mills. Evidently, therefore, the 44 Fancy Jobbers mentioned by Shri Chatterjee at page 5 include, as far as I can make out on the evidence, four substitutes, 40 being the number of permanent Fancy Jobbers as already found by me. The substitutes must be amongst the lowest paid of the Fancy Jobbers and consequently out of 44 Fancy Jobbers, permanent and substitutes, there are 26 drawing between Rs. 84 and Rs. 113 as basic wages. The other 18 who draw between Rs. 113 and Rs. 164 must all be permanent workmen.

The question now is whether there is anything in common between Line Jobbers and Fancy Jobbers so as to make their work comparable. The experts of both sides agree that the work of the Fancy Jobbers is quite different from that of the Line Jobbers. Shri Chatterjee says even in his examination-in-chief that the "duties of the Line Jobber and the Fancy Jobber are entirely different. The Line Jobber is requierd to see to the efficiency and the production of a certain number of looms entrusted to him. He is primarily responsible for the production and for the gaiting up of the looms, for mending the warp breakages and doing such other things as are directly connected with or have a bearing on the production of the loom. The duties of the Fancy Jobber are to interpret the fancy designs for the dobbies or jacquard attached to a loom. The Fancy Jobber after getting the design to be put on a particular class of cloth sets it in the cards, i.e., on the jacquard machine or pegs it for the dobby machine. He thereafter, laces the entire cards of the jacquard and puts them up on the top of the machine, i.e., loom. Similarly he takes the pegged cylinders and puts them on the dobby attachment. He finally runs the loom to find out if the required design has been correctly transferred to the fabric. His duty thereafter is to maintain and see the efficient working of those dobbies or jacquards of his section." He further states that the Fancy Jobbers' work is more or less intelligent work and it is very difficult to stipulate the time required to be an efficient Fancy Jobber or a Line Jobber and it all depends on the individual's skill and intelligence and it will take approximately one to two years to become a full-fledged Fancy Jobber to attend to all the duties of a Fancy Jobber. He later also says that the Line Jobbers are required more or less to handle men and machines and the Fancy Jobbers individually have to work on the interpretation of designs, i.e., they require more individual intelligence. The Fancy Jobber's work is skilled work and is classified as skilled work. The Line Jobber's work is skilled work and is classified as skilled. A Line Jobber is paid on efficiency, i.e., is a piece-rated worker. A Fancy Jobber is time rated, i.e., he draws monthly fixed pay. This is also the evidence of the experts examined on behalf of the employer. It is agreed amongst the experts that the duties of the two categories of workmen, Fancy Jobbers and Line Jobbers, are entirely different in their nature and it is also agreed that while Line Jobbers are piece-rated workmen and Fancy Jobbers are time rated, there is really no basis of comparison between the two. It seems strange, therefore, that while recognising this, Shri Chatterjee did try to suggest certain figures for the wages of Fancy Jobber in terms of 25 per cent. less than the wages of Line Jobbers. If there is no basis for comparison between the two the wages of the one class do not obviously provide any standard for the computation of the wages of the other. That being so, the wages of Fancy Jobbers have to be determined on a different basis altogether. The question is what that basis should be.

The experts examined on behalf of the employers do not question the validity of Shri Chatterjee's opinion that the work of Fancy Jobbers is skilled. What they appear to have contested are first the correctness as regards certain items of the work of Fancy Jobbers in Shri Chatterjee's enumeration and secondly, that the workload of the Fancy Jobbers is much less than that of the Line Jobbers because though Fancy Jobbers have to put in eight hours' duty daily in a shift, they have to sit idle for most of the time and actually they have to work for two or three hours out of eight hours whereas Line Jobbers have to work out of eight hours nearly seven and half hours. About the skill of the Fancy Jobbers, therefore, there is no dispute amongst the experts. Shri Durgapada Ganguly, Head Fancy Jobber working on a jacquard machine, admits in his cross-examination that the work which is specified in his examination-in-chief a Fancy Jobber on a jacquard machine has to do at the time when a new design has to be worked out. Santi Ranja Das says in his cross-examination that until design is changed the same set of the jacquar machine continues, and usually a pattern goes fo three or four months but if a pattern is not change Fancy Jobbers have to repair such machines whe they go wrong, Sushil Kumar Paul is a Fancy Jobbe working on a dobby machine. He specifies th nature of the work of those who work on dobb machines, but does not say anything as to how lon a design on a dobby machine runs but a desig whether on a dobby machine or a jacquard machir may well be supposed to run some time and th bulk of the work of Fancy Jobbers whether o jacquard or dobby machines must necessarily b when new designs are introduced. It is not that the sit idle all the time between the introduction of on design and another. They have to do other item of work meanwhile. Necessarily, therefore, the work, whatever it is, could not impose on them th same physical and mental strain as the work o those who have, for the efficient discharge of the duties, constantly to be on their toes. From thi point of view I am inclined to think that the deman of the Union of the same wages for the Fanc Jobbers as for the Line Jobbers is not justified, an actually on this point all the experts are agreed though Shri Chatterjee's estimate of what the wage of the Fancy Jobbers should be is much higher tha that of the experts examined for the mills who b putting the workload of the Fancy Jobbers at tw and half or three as against seven and half hours o the Line Jobbers seem to suggest the propriety o the existing wages.

On what basis then should the wages of the Fancy Jobbers be determined? The materials on the record do not suggest any basis, presumably because the Union has throughout proceeded on the basis of a comparison between two types of work which are really not comparable. The mills were naturally more anxious to expose the weakness of the position taken by the Union than to place before the Tribunal materials for a correct decision. Would the Tribunal in this situation be justified in refusing to modify the existing structure of the wages of the Fancy Jobbers by making an award? Naturally, it would, if satisfied that the existing wages do not appear to be prima facie unjust. In this case, however, the scales of wages disclosed in Shri Chatterjee's report and accepted as correct by Shri Pujari in his evidence do seem to suggest an inadequate reflection of the employers' recognition of the skill involved in the work of the Fancy Jobbers and from that point of view, I think a modification of the existing wages of the Fancy Jobbers would be amply justified.

The question still remains how to decide what should be a proper basis in the absence of proper materials. The scales suggested by Shri Chatterjee appear to me to be unacceptable first because he has while conceding that the work of the Line Jobbers is not really comparable with that of the Fancy Jobbers, yet proceeded to calculate the wages of the Fancy Jobbers in terms of a proportion of the wages of the Line Jobbers; and secondly, because in one part of his report, he oberves that an "efficient Fancy Jobber should get at least Rs. 150, i.e., 25 per cent. less than the Line Jobber" and in another part, he measures efficiency in terms of years of service, anybody up to six years' service being considered efficient for this purpose. In his evidence, he has admitted that the efficiency of a Fancy Jobber depends on his individual intelligence. In these circumstances, I think what this Tribunal can do is to give this class of workmen a rise in their basic wages by a fixed percentage. A rise of 25 per cent. over the basic wages will raise the minimum to Rs. 105 and the maximum to Rs. 205. Shri Chatterjee's minimum is Rs. 150 and his maximum Rs. 185. I think it will be fair to both sides if the existing basic wages of the Fancy Jobbers be raised by 25 per cent. subject to a maximum of Rs. 185, Unsatisfactory as this method is, the Tribunal had hardly any option but to adopt something like this for giving this class of workmen of the mills some recognition for the skill involved in their work. It is expected that the Rationalisation Committee of which Shri Chatterjee is a member would shortly complete its work and standardise the workload and scales of wages of this and other categories of the workmen of the mills.

I am not, however, convinced that there is any adequate case for giving the award retrospective effect. It will have effect from the date when it comes into force.

My award accordingly is that the work of the Line Jobber and the Fancy Jobber not being a tall comparable, the wages of the Fancy Jobbers cannot be fixed in terms of those of the Line Jobbers and that there being no adequate data before me for fixing their wages on a proper basis though I feel satisfied that the skill involved in their work should be better reflected in the wages than at present, their basic wages should be raised by 25 per cent. subject to a maximum of Rs. 185.

Taken at my dictation and corrected by me.

No. 4494-I.R./IR/11L-470/61.—3rd October 1962.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 4711-I.R./IR/11L-159/60, dated the 1st August 1961, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Hindusthan Lever Ltd., Ilaco House, 1 & 3 Brabourne Road, Calcutta-1, and their workmen represented by the Hindusthan Lever Mazdoor Union, c/o Hindusthan Lever Ltd., Ilaco House, 1 & 3 Brabourne Road, Calcutta-1, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order being a matter specified in the second schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Fourth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an inustrial dispute existing between Messrs. Hindusthan Lever Ltd., Ilaco House, 1 & 3 Brabourne Road, Calcutta-1, and their workmen represented by the Hindusthan Lever Mazdoor Union, c/o Hindusthan Lever Ltd., Ilaco House, 1 & 3 Brabourne Road, Calcutta-1. (Government Order No. 4711-I.R./IR/11L-159/60, dated the 1st August 1961.) (Case No. VIII-254/61.)

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri K. K. MITRA, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate.

For the Company: Shri R. L. Talib.

An industrial dispute between Messrs. Hindusthan Lever Ltd., Ilaco House, 1 & 3 Brabourne Road, Calcutta-1, and their workmen represented by the Hindusthan Lever Mazdoor Union, c/o Hindusthan Lever Ltd., Ilaco House, 1 & 3 Brabourne Road, Calcutta-1, over the following issue, has been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, Order No. 4711-I.R./IR/11L-159/60, dated the 1st August 1961.

Issue

1. Whether the termination of employment of Shri N. N. Bhattacharjee is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

AWARD

Upon receipt of the order of reference, notices were issued upon the parties for appearance and for filing written statements.

After service of such notices, the workmen represented by the Hindusthan Lever Mazdoor Union (hereinafter referred to as the Union) filed the written statement on 30th August 1961.

The dispute is concerning the termination of employment of a workman who was engaged as a clerk of Messrs. Hindusthan Lever Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company). It appears from the assertions made in the written statement filed by the Union that Shri N. N. Bhattacherjee, the workman concerned, was appointed as a clerk by this Company on 7th September 1951 and that he was posted in the Transport Section wherefrom he was transferred to work at the Lalbazar Godown of the Company on 23rd June 1960. One Shri B. Lahiri was posted at that time at the Lalbazar Godown as the godown-keeper. Shri Bhattacherjee was in the position of a junior clerk while Shri Lahiri was the senior clerk. According to the version of the Union Shri Lahiri went on leave on and from 24th August 1960 and he resumed his duties after the Puja holidays and during his absence on leave Shri Bhattacherjee had to discharge the entire duties as clerk of the godown without there being any additional hand appointed to assist him. It is also alleged that Shri Bhattacherjee had incurred the displeasure of Shri Lahiri as he protested against the sale of Company's properties like wooden boxes, nails, iron hoops and other sundries without crediting the sale proceeds in the Company's account. This system was however discontinued as a result of his action. Shortly after Shri Lahiri joined on the expiry of his leave, the Company charge-sheeted Shri Bhattacherjee by letters, dated 3rd January 1961 and 6th January 1961. The Company started a departmental enquiry which commenced on the 13th January 1961. It is alleged by the Union that the charges against Shri Bhattacherjee were motsly of a flimsy nature and the enquiry held by the Company was a stage-managed affair without any intention of finding out the truth and, as such, the entire enquiry proceeding was a mala fide one. It is thus alleged that the Company's decision to dismiss Shri Bhattacherjee with effect from 28th March 1961 as a result of such an enquiry and findings thereof was wrongful and unjustified.

The Company filed the written statement on 4th October 1961. It is stated by the Company that Shri Bhattacherjee was transferred from the City Office to the Company's godown at Lalbazar on and from 1st April 1959 and not on 23rd June 1960 as stated in the Union's statement. During Shri Lahiri's absence on leave, Shri Bhattacherjee, in accordance with the Company's practice, automatically took the charge as a godown-keeper.

According to the version of the Company Shri Lahiri, the godown-keeper, took leave for three days from the 24th August to 26th August 1960, and thereafter being unable to join his duties owing to sickness, he applied for sick leave from the 27th August to 3rd October 1960. On similar occasions earlier, in the absence of the regular godown-keeper from the 19th October 1959 to 19th November 1959, on one occasion, and from the 25th November 1959 to 2nd January 1960, on another occasion, Shri Bhattacherjee was placed in charge of godown in the absence of regular godown-keeper and there was nothing new when Shri Bhattacherjee took charge on this occasion. During the period from the 24th August to the 6th October 1960 whenever Shri Bhattacherjee needed assistance, the Company placed the services of other clerks for performance of the work in the godown. The Company denies all allegations made by the Union that Shri Lahiri had any grudge against Shri Bhattacherjee. The management took steps in October 1960 to verify whether there was any substance in the report received at that time that there was something wrong in Lalbazar godown during the absence of Shri Lahiri, and when it was found that there had been certain irregularities in the work of Shri Bhattacherjee, he was charge-sheeted on 3rd January 1961. Other irregularities in the work of the said clerk during the same period had also been detected after the issue of first charge-sheet. A second charge-sheet was therefore issued to the workman on the 6th January 1961. The management held a proper departmental enquiry which started on the 13th January and concluded on the 14th February 1961. In course of the enquiry Shri Bhattacherjee was given full opportunities for defence and he was assisted throughout the enquiry by a co-employee who happened to be an official of the Union. At the enquiry 13 witnesses were examined by the enquiry officer and Shri Bhattacherjee and the co-employee who was assisting him were given full opportunities to cross-examine the witnesses and that all the witnesses had been cross-examined at length. On the conclusion of the evidence the enquirying officer allowed the parties full opportunities to advance arguments in support of their respective contentions. As a result of the departmental enquiry, the enquirying officer found that six out of seven charges made against the workman had been proved and the Company according to such findings as to his guilt took the decision to dismiss him.

At the time of hearing from the side of the Union Shri Bimalendu Chatterjee, a member of the Executive Committee of the Union who represented the workman at the departmental enquiry, and Shri N. Bhattacharjee, the workman concerned in this dispute, had been examined. The Company, on the other hand, produced the entire departmental proceedings containing the evidence taken at the departmental enquiry and the findings with reason thereof made by the enquirying officer for the purpose of showing that the guilt of the person had been proved as a ersult of a fair and proper departmental enquiry.

The only question here is if the dismissal was justified.

There is no dispute on the point that Shri Bhattacherjee was the assistant godown-keeper of the Lalbazar godown of this Company. It appears that Shri Bhattacherjee was appointed as a clerk under this Company in September 1951 and he was posted in the Transport Section. He was tarnsferred from the City Office to the Company's godown at Lalbazar on and from 1st April 1959. Shri Bhattacherjee was posted as an assistant to Shri Lahiri who was the godown-keeper being the senior clerk under this Company. It is admitted in the written statement that Shri Lahiri was on leave from the 24th August 1960 and he resumed his duties after the Puja holidays on the 6th October 1960. During his absence on leave, Shri Bhattacherjee was placed in charge of the godown in place of Shri Lahiri. Naturally in the absence of the senior hand, the junior hand stepped into his shoes. It appears that shortly after Shri Lahiri resumed his duties, he addressed a letter to the Transport Manager on the 10th October 1960 in which he made cetrain allegations regarding the irregularities in the working of the godown during the period of his leave. That letter was marked as exhibit in the enquiry proceedings. Shri Mahadevan who was the Assistant Manager of the Transport Department made a preliminary enquiry on the 11th October 1960. After completion of such preliminary enquiries regarding the allegation about the irregularities in the gdown, the Company found a prima facie case and charge-sheeted Shri Bhattacherjee on the 3rd January 1961. The workman concerned had been charged on four counts of charge separately and specifically mentioned in material particulars in the charge-sheet. The first item of charge is to the effect that on the 25th September 1960 six Pcs. and six CLDs of two dozens each of Himalaya Bouquet Talcum Powder were misappropriated by him by having the same unauthorizedly delivered under his instructions to Messrs. Chakraborty Brothers, 33 Canning Street. It is admitted by both the parties

: of all the charges contained in the two charge-ets as levelled against Shri Bhattacherjee, the first rge, i.e., one relating to misappropriation of the ployer's propetries in the custody of Shri Bhattarjee is the most serious one. It is contended by Union that, even though the charge is grave and stablished, the workman deserved no mercy, the npany failed to establish the charge against the kman in course of the departmental proceedings.
s therefore necessary to examine the depatrmental ceedings carefully to see how far a finding as to guilt of Shri Bhattacherjee would be sustained on basis of the evidence adduced at the departmental ceedings. It may be noted that the enquirying cer after conclusion of evidence and after hearing arguments recorded his findings on each of the rges, dealing exhaustively the evidence and giving sons in support of the findings.

et me now consider how far the findings as made be supported by the evidence.

t is contended by the Union that there was not, fact, any excess in stock in the godown and, there-e, the whole case of misappropriation of the same Shri Bhattacherjee was without any basis.
viously unless it is proved by evidence that there re excess stock in the godown, as alleged, there not arise any question that such stock in excess been misappropriated. At the departmental quiry evidence had been led by the Company to ablish that there was, in fact, excess in stock in godown to the knowledge of Shri Bhattacherjee.
was such specific excess stock that is alleged to ve been delivered to Messrs. Chakraborty Bros. on 25th September 1960. In coming to the conclu-n that there was, in fact, such excess in stock, the mpany in the departmental proceedings depended on certain oral and documentary evidence. It pears from the departmental proceedings, Ext. A, vering 68 closely typed pages that full opportunities
d been given to Shri Bhattacherjee for crossamination of the witness of the Company, and also r production of all documents as the workman felt cessary for the purpose of his defence. There is thing to show that any evidence what the workman nted to adduce had been shut out without any stification. Even when any question put in crossamination was disallowed, the enquirying officer corded the reasons thereto. The documentary idence as adduced relate to some copies of stockeets. In the godown copies of stock-sheet for the eeks ending 13th August and 20th August 1960 and so in the stock-sheet of 22nd August 1960, a note to such excess H.B.T.P. had been noted.
dmittedly, five copies of the stock-sheets are to be ade by the godown-keeper, one copy of which is tained in the godown and the other four copies are t to the Head Office. There is however no note out the excess, as noted in the godown copy only, the copies of the stock-sheets for 13th, 20th and d August as sent to the Calcutta Office. The case the Company is that this excess stock had been nd out on a physical verification of stock at the down. It appears from the evidence that the ocedure adopted regarding verification of stock at e godown is that on every Saturday Gopal Ch. Paul, o is a serviceman attached to the Lalbazar odown, prepares a rough stock-sheet and after it is ecked by the godown-keeper, a fair stock-sheet is repared. This ensures a weekly verification of stock with due importance to actual physical verification of the stock at the godown. The rough stock-sheet prepared by the godown-keeper is compared with the rough stock-sheet made out by Gopal after the physical check to find out if there is any discrepancy in the figures as to stock books. The Company at the departmental enquiry produced the rough stock-sheet for the weeks ending 13th and 20th August 1960 to indicate that excess stock had been noted down by Gopal in those sheets. Actually it was the duty of Gopal to prepare the rough stock-sheets. The question however arises for consideration as to how the excess could at all arise. From the evidence of Shri Lahiri it appears that such excess might have arisen because of the fact that sometime the transport contractors did not take full delivery. It may be kept in view in this connection that the delivery of goods from the godown are made in lorries supplied by some contractors who are konwn as "Transport Contractors of this Company." The learned lawyer for the Union urged that such explanation is not worth reliance. I do not however find any reason to think so. The godown-keeper Lahiri explained the procedure followed in making delivery of goods to customers.

There is nothing improbable in the contention of the Company that such excess stock might have arisen for short delivery or non-delivery of goods to certain customers and for that they had to wait and see if any claim was made by any customer claiming the articles for short delivery or non-delivery of goods made on some previous occasion.

There is no reason to think that Shri Lahiri made notes about the existence of such excess stock in specific quantity and item in the godown copy of the stock-sheet, dated 20th August 1960 and 22nd August 1960, with any ulterior motive. It is also important to note that during the absence of Shri Lahiri when Shri Bhattacherjee was in charge of the godown, an entry had been made regarding excess stock in the rough stock-sheet for 26th August 1960 though, of course, it was as usual in the hand-writing of Gopal. Apart from these documentary evidences there was the evidence of Shri Mahadevan that Shri Lahiri mentioned to him on the 23rd August afternoon, i.e., on the eve of his leave at his office regarding the existence of excess stock. Shri Mahadevan however stated in his evidence at the departmental enquiry that when there was excess stock in the godown, it was the duty of the godown-keeper to report about the fact to the office so that intimation might be sent to the Accounts Department to make note about the excess. In this case of course, no such report in writing, about excess stock had been made to the office by Shri Lahiri. Presumably it could not be done as Shri Lahiri went on leave after he felt ill on and from 24th August 1960. The learned lawyer for the Union urged that in the absence of a written report about the existence of such excess stock and a note to the effect in the office copies' stock-sheet, no definite conclusion regarding existence of such excess stock could be made by the enquiring officer on the basis of the evidence as adduced at the departmental enquiry. I have already stated that the documentary evidence produced by the Company to prove the existence of excess stock arose from the entries in the rough stock-sheet of 20th August 1960 and 26th August 1960 and the godown copy of the same, dated 20th August 1960 and 22nd August 1960.

At the same time, the evidence of Shri Lahiri is that when he found out the physical excess of stock on the 13th August 1960, he informed Shri Bhattacharjee about such excess and that Shri Bhattacherjee knew about such excess from that date. Note of such excess was made on 13th August 1960. Of course, no note about the excess stock was made in the godown copy of the stock sheet from the 14th August to 19th August. The explanation given by Shri Lahiri is to the effect that he was trying to find out if such excess arose from short delivery to any customer and that is why he did not make any entry about such excess in those stock-sheets. The explanation offered by him cannot be said to be unreasonable and unworthy of reliance. Apart from the evidence of Shri Lahiri and Gopal Ch. Paul, the serviceman, there is also the evidence of Shri R. B. Sarma Adhikari, who is an order clerk of Preparation Division under this Company, who stated that sometime before lunch on the day Shri Lahiri went on leave, he met him in his office and informed him about the excess stock. Nothing can be said about the creditability of this witness. It was on the basis of such evidence, oral and documentary, as adduced at the departmental enquiry that the enquiring officer arrived at his findings that there was actually an excess stock in the godown as found out on the 13th August and that Shri Bhattacherjee was fully aware about such existence of excess stock from that date. The explanation offered by Shri Bhattacherjee that there was no real excess and the entries in the godown copies and the rough copies of stock-sheets might have arisen from clerical error do not appear to be worth reliance.

An attempt had been made in course of the departmental enquiry by the Union that Shri Lahiri went on leave on the 23rd August, and he could not attend the office on that date. It is proved by evidence that his leave commenced from the 24th August though, of course, Shri Lahiri was unwell on the 23rd August and attended the office. As a matter of fact, it appears that Shri Lahiri attended the dispensary of the Company on the 23rd August and the compounder attached to the dispensary examined at the departmental enquiry proved that fact. It may be noted in this connection that Shri Lahiri stated that Shri Bhattacherjee met him at his house on the 24th September during his leave and informed him that one Messrs. Tilak Co. was claiming the excess and he advised him to make delivery only against proper receipt. He further stated that when upon reporting to duty on the expiry of the leave he did not find any excess stock in the godown, Shri Bhattacherjee gave an explanation at that stage that there was no real excess and that existence of such excess was thought of as a result of a clerical error. I find that there was sufficient evidence, which could be relied on by a fair and impartial person, making the enquiry, from which an inference as to the existence of excess stock could be drawn.

The case of the Company is that this excess stock had been fradulently delivered to Messrs. Chakraborty Bros. and that such delivery had been made by a lorry of the Transport Contractor, viz., Messrs. Bose & Bose Co. At the departmental enquiry the Company examined Shri Gobinda Kundu, the driver of the lorry of Messrs. Bose & Bose, and Manoranjan Das, a coolie of that van. They categorically stated that under the instructions of Shri Bhattacherjee these goods were so delivered without chalan or receipt. Shri Kundu, the driver, further stated t sometime after the Puja holidays one day Shri Bha cherjee told him not to divulge this matter to a body. The Company had also examined Shri Jaya Kr. Bose, a partner of Messrs. Bose & Bose Co. appears that the delivery of goods to differ consumers as made in the lorries of Messrs. Bose Bose Co. are noted in a log book maintained for purpose. There is another charge, i.e., charge No against Shri Bhattacherjee that he failed and negle ed to write various items of consignment in the book though it was his duty to do so and that it v alleged to have been written by the Transp Contractor. At the moment I am not concern with that charge, which I shall deal with at the pro stage when dealing with that particular charge. S Bose stated at the departmental enquiry that in orc to safeguard their interest and also because when Sl Bhattacherjee told him that he was very busy w work and requested him to write the log book, used to write the log book at intervals of six or sev days. The log book, Ext. 4, as produced at t enquiry shows in all nine entries on 25th Septemb 1960. The evidence of Shri Bose is that he wrc out the first six entries on the 2nd or 3rd Octob and the other entries had been subsequently mac I am concerned here particularly with entry No. Entry No. 9 in the log book of that date relates the delivery made to Messrs. Chakraborty Bros. Sh Bose stated that he wrote the particulars in entry N 9 in the log book on the basis of the statement of th driver that such goods had been delivered to Messr Chakraborty Bros. He admitted in the cros examination that he made the last entry, i.e., entr No. 9 on the 6th or 7th October, i.e., after Shri Lahi joined. He further stated in the cross-examinatio that all the last three entries in the log book wer made on the same date. I am satisfied from th evidence that during the absence of Shri Lahiri entrie in the log book were made by the Contractor no contemporaneously but at later dates. Such a practic had been adopted when Shri Lahiri was on leave There is nothing to show that the lorry driver anc the coolie who delivered the goods to Messrs Chakraborty Bros. were interested witnesses to the extent that they would depose falsely in order to support a ficticious charge levelled against Shri Bhattacherjee. It had been urged by the learned lawyer for the Union that the Company should hav examined Messrs. Chakraborty Bros. Obviously th Company had no duty to examine such witness. I fact, each party has got to decide what evidenc would be led. Besides, in the ordinary course c human conduct the said Company would not, in th circumstances, support the case of the Company tha a surreptitious delivery had been made in their favou without any chalan. The Union produced before me a letter purported to have been written by Messrs Chakraborty Bros. to the effect that no delivery of goods had been made to them on 25th September 1960. I cannot put any reliance upon such evidence when nobody from Messrs. Chakraborty Bros. came to depose before me. Besides, the parties cannot be allowed to adduce new evidence before the Tribunal in the face of an exhaustive departmental enquiry to improve upon the case, and to cure any lacuna in the departmental proceedings. An allegation had been made by the Union that Shri Lahiri and Shri Mahadevan were not favourably disposed towards Shri Bhattacherjee as he detected certain mistakes o their part in the matter of management of the Company's affairs. The suggestion put forward by the Union to establish a case of interested relationship of these two persons could not be established by any cogent evidence worth reliance.

There is no case put forward by the Union to show that the employer proceeded with a motive of victimisation against Shri Bhattacherjee. There is also nothing to show unfair labour practice. It is simply urged by the Union that the findings arrived at as a result of the departmental enquiry cannot be supported by the evidence on record and that the findings are perverse. It is true that the evidence adduced is not beyond criticism. On such evidence a conclusion on a charge of criminal misappropriation could be sustained in a criminal court. But the evidence at the departmental enquiry must be looked into altogether from a different angle. The function of the Tribunal is also not the same as the function of the Appellate Court sitting in judgment over the findings of fact of a lower court treating the findings of a departmental enquiry in the same way as the finding of a lower court. The management found the guilt of the workman on the basis of evidence which established his guilt in a fair manner. I find no reason to hold that the findings are perverse and based on evidence now worthy of reliance by a fair, impartial authority charged with the duty of drawing his own conclusion on the basis of evidence on record. In the circumstances, I find no reason to interfere with the findings made by the management as to the guilt of the person.

Let me now consider how far the Company established the other charges against Shri Bhattacherjee.

One of the charge which is described as charge No. 2 is to the effect that Shri Bhattacherjee had without authority changed and written up the opening stock figures in the daily godown running stock-sheet for the 3rd October 1960 which was not the same as the closing stock figures on the previous working date, i.e., 26th September 1960. It is alleged that such change in the opening stock figures for the 3rd October 1960 was done by Shri Bhattacherjee without any authority. Obviously the running daily stock-sheets are prepared on the basis of the previous day's closing stock so that the receipt in stock in course of the day might be added to the same and the despatch as made in course of the day deducted, to reflect the final stock position at the close of the day. That such an error occurred in showing the opening stock figures of 3rd October 1960 is not denied. Shri Bhattacherjee wanted to explain away the error on a stand taken by him that he found many discripancies in the stock book which might have arisen due to clerical error which occurred during the time of Shri Lahiri or in his time due to heavy pressure of work and so instead of bringing the closing stock figures of 26th September as the opening stock figures for the next working day, i.e., 3rd October 1960, he showed the exact physical stock of the godown in the stock-sheet so that necessary correction might be subsequently made. Shri Bhattacherjee stated in his evidence at the departmental enquiry that the stock-sheet for 3rd October 1960 was prepared by him on 6th October 1960 when Shri Lahiri resumed his duties and virtually he did so as instructed by Shri Lahiri. He further stated that when he found such discripancy in the stock book with reference to the physical stock in the godown, he reported the matter to Shri Mahadevan on the 3rd October morning who, in his turn, instructed him to make entries in the stock book on the basis of the actual stock as found in the godown. There is no evidence except the uncorroborated testimony of Shri Bhattacharjee to show that he had written the opening stock for 3rd October 1960 at the instance of Shri Lahiri or under the instruction of Shri Mahadevan. Besides it seems, rather improbable, that such instructions which would result in creating discripancies in the stock register would be forthcoming from Shri Mahadevan, a responsible officer. At the same time it has got to be noted that the figure regarding the opening stock was in accordance with the physical stock as found in the godown on that date. The figures as to stock as obtained by physical verification obviously indicate the correct position of the stock. There is no dispute on the point that the opening stock as shown by Shri Bhattacherjee in the stock-sheet for 3rd October 1960 was not consistent with the actual physical stock. But the allegation against him is that he should have shown as the opening stock the closing stock of the opening day and not the actual stock. Assuming that instead of showing the actual physical stock the clerk concerned in spite of the mistake showed the closing stock of the previous day as the opening stock, the mistakes there had been perpetuated. At least it can be said in favour of the workman concerned that in showing the actual physical stock instead of closing stock of the previous day, he did not act in a dishonest manner in manupulating the register. The alleged misconduct on the part of the workman arising from such writings in the stock-sheet is, in my opinion, so to speak a more technical offence of a very minor nature. There are reasons to think that in showing the stock Shri Bhattacherjee acted in good faith in showing the actual physical stock without copying out the closing figures of the previous day when apparently there must have been mistakes, as otherwise the physical stock would have agreed with the figures of the closing stock. Be that as it is, no charge of carelessness, negligence or misconduct can be sustained against the workman concerned for the acts done by him in causing the change in figures in the stock register of the 3rd October 1960. Charge No. 2 against the workman thus fails.

The third charge is to the effect that Shri Bhattacherjee allowed the Transport Contractor to make entries in the log book regarding the various consignaments taken delivery of by the Transport Contractor. The log book is maintained for the purpose of showing what articles were being despatched through the Transport Contractor to the different consumers so that the bills for transport cost might be settled. It is the duty of the godown-keeper to maintain the log book. It appears from the evidence that during the period from 23rd August 1960 till Shri Lahiri joined, the log book had not been written by the Shri Bhattacherjee. It however appears from the evidence of Shri Lahiri that in 1959 he allowed the Transport Contractor to write the log book. This practice appears to have been discontinued from the beginning of 1960 at the direction of the superior officer. Shri Bhattacherjee could not give any satisfactory explanation as to why he entrusted the contractor to write the log book instead of doing it himself. He wanted to say that during the period of Shri Lahiri's absence the Transport Contractor at times had written the log book. It appears from the evidence that up to August 1960 in that year the log book had been written almost by Shri Lahiri himself. It cannot be said in favour of Shri Bhattacherjee that he had been doing the same thing as was being done by Shri Lahiri. Another reason given by Shri Bhattacherjee that he was the only clerk in the godown after Shri Lahiri was on leave and there was pressure of work during the Puja time and, therefore, he found it difficult to manage the entire work. There was no evidence to show that Shri Bhattacherjee wanted assistance of any extra clerk during the time when Shri Lahiri was on leave and that was refused. He worked overtime on several days during Shri Lahiri's absence and got extra remuneration for the same. Besides, on two or three occasions one Shri Sen Gupta was deputed to assist him. If Shri Bhattacherjee felt that he was over-worked and that he should not work overtime, he might have asked for the posting of an extra hand to assist him in his work. But Shri Bhattacherjee took no step towards that. Presumably, he considered it to his advantage to get an opportunity to have an extra income by doing overtime. It has got to be noted that Shri Lahiri resumed his duty on the 6th October and almost for the entire period of his absence the entire log book was blank and was subsequently written by the contractor with reference to the despatch summary after he resumed his duties. I therefore find that the management was justified in coming to the conclusion that this charge had been established against Shri Bhattacherjee.

Charge No. 4 is to the effect that Shri Bhttacherjee was grossly negligent and careless in the preparation of stock-sheet for the 16th September 1960 and 24th September 1960 which had a number of entries completely false and erroneous. The Company led evidence to prove mistaken entries made in the stock-sheet on the basis of figures collected from despatch summaries of those two days. Shri Bhattacherjee admitted that there were such mistakes in the stock-sheet. But he wanted to explain away the same as being mere clerical error arising from heavy pressure of work. I have already stated that such explantion cannot cure the faults, proved against the workman. Such mistakes as those were had not of course been intentionally done by Shri Bhattacherjee. But at the same time it indicates that the clerk concerned was careless and negligent in the performance of his duties. As a matter of fact, the charge against him is that he was negligent and careless. Shri Bhattacherjee admitted that such mistaken entries had been made by him. The findings against the workman concerned that he was negligent and careless cannot therefore be challenged.

Charge No. 5 is about the negligence on the part of Shri Bhattacherjee in not taking delivery of consignment from the railway in due time and for which the Company had to pay demurrage charges to the extent of Rs. 172.46 nP. The Company adduced evidence giving particulars about the number and the dates of railway receipts, dates of receipt of the same in the office, dates when sent to Lalbazar godown and the dates when the consignment had been cleared. There is nothing to challenge the particulars regarding the bills and the dates as furnished by the Company. It is clear from the evidence that the delivery of the consignment had been taken upon payment of demurrage charge after Shri Lahiri resumed his duties on the expiry of his leave. The Company examined Giridhari, the godown serviceman, who stated that sometime before the Puja Shri Bhattacherjee gave him five or six Railway bills to ascertain from the Railway Booking Office about the arrival of the consignments. After enquiry from the Railway he reported about the arrival of the same. There is no explanation forthcoming from Shri Bhattacherjee as to why in spite of such report from Giridhari he neglected to take delivery of the consignment which had already arrived and for which demmurage charge had to be paid. It had been urged by the Union that such demurrage charges had also been paid in the past and the Demurrage Register, if produced, would support the contention. Even assuming that such demurrage charge had been paid by the Company in the past, it cannot be said in favour of Shri Bhattacherjee that the Company was not put to loss for his act amounting to gross negligence for not taking delivery of the consignment at proper time. I hold, therefore, that this charge against Shri Bhattacherjee that due to his negligence the Company suffered loss is proved.

Charge No. 6 relates to negligence on the part of Shri Bhattacherjee to effect despatch of the various advertising materials to different centres. The Company as a result of the departmental enquiry found the charge not proved and, therefore, I should not deal with that charge.

Charge No. 7 is also relating to negligence on the part of Shri Bhattacherjee inasmuch as he failed to pay the wages of one Gochhait, a part-time sweeper, for the months of August and September 1960. There is no dispute on the point that the said part-time sweeper whose remuneration was Rs. 10 per month was not paid for the months of August and September 1960. The explanation offered by Shri Bhattacherjee was that he did not know the rate of wages of Gochhait, the sweeper, for which he told him to wait till Shri Lahiri resumed his duties. Gochhait who was examined at the enquiry proceedings stated that Shri Bhattacherjee told him that Shri Lahiri would resume his duties on the 12th September and he would be paid by Shri Lahiri. Admittedly Shri Lahiri did not join on the 12th Sepetmber. In spite when Gochhait again approached Shri Bhattacherjee for his wages after the 12th September, he was asked to wait. Gochhait stated that in his tenure of his service there had been never any occasion when delayed payment had been made. Upon careful consideration of the evidence adduced at the departmental enquiry, I find that Shri Bhattacherjee had no justification in withholding the payment to Gochhait when sufficient fund was in his hand. If he had any doubt about the rate of his payment ,he could enquire about it. The explanation offered by Shri Bhattacherjee that he had no intention to withhold the payment and that he did so simply because he did not know the rates of wages cannot be treated as sufficient excuse. In the circumstances, I hold that the management was justified in holding that Shri Bhattacherjee was guilty of this charge though, of course, it is of a minor nature.

I thus hold that the management rightly found the workman negligent, careless and not worthy of reliance.

I find no reason to interfere.

This is the award.

The present reference relates to an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. National Iron & Steel Co. Ltd., Belur (hereinafter be referred to as the Company) and their workmen represented by Belur Iron & Steel Workmen's Union (hereinafter be referred to as the Union).

This reference came from the Government and immediately after receipt thereof both parties were summoned to appear and file their respective written statements. On service of summons, parties entered appearance and filed their respective written statements and they having completed all subsequent steps the case was taken up and heard on contest. Several witnesses were examined and documents were tendered into evidence by both parties.

The Union's case in the written statement is that the Company in about the month of May 1960 on the alleged plea of dearth of work started to lay off workmen of the Machine Shop Department, but in fact there was no shortage of work in the Machine Shop. The lay-off was an arbitrary action of the Company. So, there was serious discontent amongst the workers. The matter was referred to Conciliation Officer who ultimately effected an agreement between the parties on 25th June 1960. In terms of the said agreement the Company granted leave to the workmen for two months up to 31st August 1960. On the expiry of the leave the workmen presented themselves at the gate but were not given work. On the contrary, the Company most illegally and wrongfully terminated their services in spite of the agreement, dated 25th June 1960. Hence the dispute.

The Company has denied the Union's allegations and has contended that on account of paucity of work the Company had to lay off some workmen. Thereupon Union having raised a dispute the matter was taken up by the Conciliation Officer and after some discussion in a tripartite conference an agreement was arrived at between the parties. In terms thereof the proposed retrenchment of workmen was avoided by granting compulsory leave for two months to 27 workmen of the Machine Shop Department and on the expiry of that leave majority of them had to be retrenched in view of the deteriorating position of the work in the Machine Shop. The position of the work did not improve. So, 22 out of 27 workmen who were granted compulsory leave for two months had to be retrenched with effect from 1st September 1960 with due information to the Labour Commissioner as required under the rules and most of the retrenched employees have collected one month's wages in lieu of notice and the requisite compensation from the Company. The Company could take back in its employment only some of the employees having regard to the extent of work in the Machine Shop. According to the Company the concerned workmen have been rightly retrenched and there will be no justification to reinstate them.

Decision

Admittedly the Company laid off 41 workmen of the Machine Shop Department on the plea of paucity of work with effect from 13th April 1960 (vide notice, dated 12th April 1960) (Ex. D). The Company was then contemplating to retrench some of the workmen of the Machine Shop. At that moment there was a conciliation proceeding before the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Howrah, which resulted in a tripartite agreement on 25th June 1960 (vide Ext. 1). By that agreement the contemplated retrenchment was avoided and 27 workmen of the Machine Shop were granted leave from 1st July 1960 up to 31st August 1960. It was also agreed upon that during this period the order-position of the Company be reviewed at least twice before 31st August 1960 and necessary amendments/modifications to the agreement be made and arrived at. Eighteen out of the 27 workmen who were granted leave for two months are involved in the present dispute under reference. Two of them—Ajit Das and Paresh Singh—are turners, five of them, viz., Dinanath Missir, Saila Mula, Balai Pan, Satish Roy and Sachin Sett are Slotters and the rest are Millers. Union's allegation is that the Company did not scrupulously and strictly comply with the terms of the agreement. According to the Union there was no scrutiny of the relevant records and registers with a view to find out the juniormost hands who will be granted leave as contemplated in the agreement. The Company also did not review the order-position at all before 31st August 1960 as agreed upon and embodied in clause (6) of the agreement. The Company has no doubt given general denial to the Union's allegation in the written statement. But hardly there is any satisfactory evidence to show that the aforesaid terms of the agreement were strictly complied with. The Company's witness No. 3 Shri T. P. Jha, who is the Labour Officer, has stated in his evidence that there was scrutiny made by himself and Shri Pathak, the President of the Union, before the selection of 27 workmen for being granted leave for two months in pursuance of the agreement (Ext. 1). But there was nothing to show the alleged scrutiny taking place before the workmen were granted leave. P.W. 1 Shri Patit Paban Pathak, the President of the Union, has denied the alleged scrutiny in his presence. He has not been cross-examined on this point by the Company. So, I am convinced to accept his testimony and reject that of Shri T. P. Jha, the Labour Office of the Company, whose evidence before this tribuna is not only vague but also shaky. As regards th review of the order-position of the Company durin the period of two months when the 27 workmen wer on leave there is no evidenc worthy of credence t show that the proposed review of the order-positio was actually made by the Company. The Company' evidence on this point is almost nothing. Th company examined as many as three officers includin Labour Officer. There is no precise evidence to sho if any such review was made, if so, at what poin of time and whether in presence of a representativ of the union. The evidence of the President of th Union goes to show that there was no such scrutin to the knowledge of the Union. Therefore, I find tha the Union's allegations are not without substance.

The next contention of the Union is that the Com pany without any scrutiny of the service records c the workmen before asking them to go on leav for two months and without any review of the posi tion of the works in the hands of the Company a agreed upon, arbitrarily and against all principles o natural justice, retrenched the workmen withou complying with the provisions of law which are con ditions precedent to retrenchments and also in utte violation of the statutory provision of "last com first go" principle as provided in section 25G of th Industrial Disputes Act. The Union has furthe urged that there was no justification for the retrench ment of the workmen by the Company. The Com pany's action was mala fide and amounting to unfai labour practice.

The Company has tried to repel the Union' allegations and in doing so, the Company has pro duced before this Tribunal two registers (Exts. A A/1), one is said to be the Sale Order Book and th other is Record of Orders to show that there wa no sufficient order for execution in the year 196 and, therefore, the workmen of the Machine Shop Department became surplus. Company's witness No. 1 Sudhangshu Kumar Ghosh has proved two registers. He is said to have maintained them. Bu little reliance can be placed on the entries in these two registers in view of the fact that the witness himself had to admit that these are not the origina registers but they are said to have been copied ou from the original ones. He did not assign any reason for these copies being prepared and maintained by the Company. The Company has not assigned an reason for withholding the original registers to show actual orders received by the Company and th orders which remained unexecuted or yet to b executed in the year 1960. These two duplicat registers do not bear any mark of the Company Of course, in one of them appears signatures of th Sales Manager. But this does not improve th matter because the original registers in which ar recorded the orders received by the Company fo execution and the orders which remained unexecuted in the year 1960 have been withheld. Therefore these two duplicate registers hardly can prove tha there was paucity of work for the Machine Sho Department in the year 1960. The Company, believe, has purposely withheld the original register in which orders are recorded and also the origina orders received from its constituents or customers The Company has examined as many as three res ponsible officers. But none of them could offer an eason for withholding the best evidence, viz., the riginal registers for orders received from the contituents. Although the fact of dearth of work for he Machine Shop Department could not be satisactorily established by the Company by any cognet nd convincing evidence, still there remains one laring fact of Union's implied admission in the onduct of agreeing to allow 27 workmen of the Machine Shop Department to go on leave for two ionths from 1st July 1960 to 31st August 1960. The agreement (Ext. 1) shows that the management vanted to retrench a number of workmen of the Machine Shop on account of shortage of work and t was agreed that to avoid retrenchment the manageient of the Company would grant leave without vages to 27 workmen for two months. The Union aving agreed to the terms noted in the memorandum f settlement has impliedly admitted that there was hortage of work of the workmen of the Machine hop Department. Hence there was some justificaion of the Company to retrench some of the workmen of the Machine Shop Department, but the xtent to which retrenchment would be effected aturally depends upon the amount of work that emained in the hands of the Company at that point f time. The Company has not placed materials to ustify the retrenchment of 22 workmen as was ctually done as admitted by D. W. 3 Shri T. P. Jha. Of course, all the 22 workmen are not before this Tribunal, but only 18 workmen are involved in the present dispute. So, it has not been established that here was justification for the retrenchment of all hese workmen.

Even though there is some justification for the retrenchment but in effecting retrenchment the Company must follow the ordinary industrial rule of retrenchment "last come first go" which has since been statutorily recognised in section 25G of the Industrial Disputes Act introduced in 1953. In the instant case the Union has contended that the Company has violated the statutory principle of "last come first go" in effecting retrenchment. According to the Union the Company acted mala fide and with a motive of victimisation in the matter of retrenchment of the workmen of the Machine Shop in violation of the statutory principle of "last come first go". The Company's Labour Officer Shri T. P. Jha had to admit the discrimination in the matter of retrenchment of the workmen. He in his cross-examination had to admit that some of the senior workmen were retrenched without any reason. Neither he nor any other witness of the Company could offer any reason whatsoever for the retrenchment of the senior workmen. D. W. 3 Shri Jha had to admit that the turners Paresh Singh and Ajit Das are senior to turner Taleb Ali bearing ticket No. 1781. He admits that Taleb Ali who was junior to Paresh Singh and Ajit Das was not retrenched, whereas Paresh Singh and Ajit Das were not only retrenched but they were forced to go on two months' lave prior to the retrenchment. This witness of the Company could not give any reason for this discrimination. There is no reason whatsoever not to speak of any valid reason for the retrenchment of these two senior workmen allowing their juniors to continue to work. So, the Company was guilty of discrimination and of violation of the statutory rule of "last come first go". The same witness has deposed that two of the slotters, Dinanath Missir and Balai Pan have since been taken back by the Company in service but he has admitted that another slotter Satish Roy still who remains unemployed or re-employed is senior to Dinanath Missir and another slotter Saila Mula is senior to both Balai Pa nand Dinanath Missir. But both of them who were senior workmen still remain unemployed since the retrenchment by the Company. Therefore, the fact of discrimination is practically admitted by the Company's witnesses. The discrimination was unreasonable as there was no reason whatsoever not to speak of any valid and sufficient reason for the discrimination or violation of the statutory principles. Therefore, so far as the retrenchment of these workmen, viz., Ajit Das, Paresh Singh, who were turners and Saila Mula and Satish Roy, who were slotters, the Company has committed unreasonable discrimination and also violated the statutory principle of "last come first go". It is well-settled by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Swadesha Mitran Ltd. and their workmen reported in 1960 L.L.J.(I) page 504 that "the management has the right to retrench the workmen provided the retrenchment is justified. In effecting retrenchment the management normally has to adopt and give effect to the industrial rule of retrenchment. For valid reasons it may depart from the said rule. If the departure from the said rule does not appear to the Industrial Tribunal as valid and satisfactory, then the action of the management in so departing from the rule, can be treated by the tribunal as mala fide or as amounting to unfair labour practice." The Hon'ble Supreme Court was pleased to observe in this connection that "no doubt it is open to the employer to depart from the said rule for valid and sufficient reasons. The employer may take into account considerations of efficiency and trustworthy character of the employees, and if he is satisfied that a person with a long service is inefficient, unreliable or habitually irregular in the discharge of his duties, it would be open to him to retrench his services while retaining in his employment, employees who are more efficient, reliable and regular though they may be junior in service to the retrenched workmen. Normally, where the rule is thus departed from there should be reliable evidence preferably in the recorded history of the workmen concerned showing their inefficiency, unreliability or habitual irregularity * * * *"

In the present case there is no iota of evidence to show why this industrial rule of retrenchment was violated. The Company has produced the service records (Exts. G series) which do not show any inefficiency or unreliability on the part of the retrenched workmen. The Company's officers who gave evidence before this Tribunal did not make any such complaint against the retrenched workmen or rule of retrenchment. Therefore, the Company's did not assign any reason for violating the statutory action in the matter of retrenchment of the four workmen, I have just mentioned, was mala fide and was amounting to unfair labour practice and victimisation. So, they are entitled to reinstatement.

P. W. 2 Chintamoni Ghosh was one of the retrenched workmen. He claims to be senior in service to Jamil Isakhan. Both of them are millers. Jamil Isakhan was not retrenched. The Union's contention is that Chintamoni Ghosh, a senior miller, was retrenched, whereas Jamil Isakhan who was junior in service to Chintamoni Ghosh was retained. This fact has not been satisfactorily established. P. W. 2 Chintamoni Ghosh admits that although he was appointed in July 1954 but he was then an unpaid apprentice. Jamil Isakhan was appointed on 4th August 1955 as a miller, whereas Chintamoni Ghosh was appointed as miller from 1st September 1955. Before that he was a helper from 3rd January 1955. His service recorded (Ext. G/13) also supports this fact. Therefore, as a miller Chintamoni Ghosh was junior to Jamil Isakhan. The Union has not challenged the correctness of the entries in Ext. G/13 nor has called for the Company's muster rolls or other records to show his appointment as a miller from 3rd January 1955. Therefore, I find no substance in this particular contention of the Union regarding the workman Chintamoni Ghosh.

The next point that was urged by the Union is that the retrenchment in question is illegal and invalid inasmuch as it was done without compliance with the conditions precedent to retrenchment as provided in section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. That section provides that no workman employed in any industry who has been in continuous service for not less than one year under an employer shall be retrenched by that employer until--

(a) the workman has been given one month's notice in writing indicating the reasons for retrenchment and the period of notice has expired, or the workman has been paid in lieu of such notice wages for the period of the notice;

(b) the workman has been paid, at the time of retrenchment, compensation which shall be equivalent to 15 days' average pay for every completed year of service or any part thereof in excess of six months: and

(c) notice in the prescribed manner is served on the appropriate Government.

Here the Union's case is that neither any notice was given nor the workmen were paid, in lieu of such notice, wages for the period of the notice. It may be noted that it is not the case of the Comany that the retrenchment was effected under an agreement which specified the date for termination of service. The Union's further case is that the workmen were also not paid the requisite compensation before the retrenchment. The retrenchment in question was effected by notice in writing to individual workmen. Exhibits H to H/17 are copies of the said notices coming from the custody of the Company and Ext. 5 is one such notice addressed to Saila Mula, one of the concerned workmen. These retrenchment notices are dated 31st August 1960. There is no evidence to show that these notices were tendered personally to the workmen by the management or on behalf of the management. But they were despatched to the workmen by post and actually posted on 1st September 1960 as will appear from the date seal mark appearing on the envelope addressed to Saila Mulah which is part of Ext. 5, the notice of retrenchment. The contention of Shri Das Gupta appearing for the Company is that the workmen must have knowledge of the retrenchment when they presented at the gate of the factory on 1st September 1960 for employment. But it transpires from the evidence of D.W. 2 Chintamoni Ghosh one of the concerned workmen that when the workmen on the expiry of the leave presented themselves at the factory gate on 1st September 1960 for resuming work, they were informed by the management that they had been retrenched. There is nothing more taken or disclosed in his evidence. There is no evidence on the side of the Company to show compliance with the conditions precedent to the retrenchment as provided in section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act. It is nowhere in the evidence of three responsible officers of the Company who deposed in this case before this Tribunal to show actual offer of one month's wages in lieu of notice or the amount of requisite compensation to the individual workmen before the alleged retrenchment from 1st September 1960. It may be that subsequently the management put pressure upon the workmen to accept the amount due to them. But that does not cure the defect. It has been urged by Shri Das Gupta appearing for the Company that tendering of one month's wages in lieu of notice and the amount of compensation to the workmen will amount to payment and sufficient compliance with the provisions of section 25F and in support of which reliance was placed upon the decision reported in 1962(I) L.L.J. 420. That was the case of an application under section 33 which speaks of payments of one month's wages to a workman before he is dismissed for misconduct. The heading of section 33 is quite different from the heading of section 25F. It has been held by the Bombay High Court in the case reported in 1961 L.L.J.(I) 167 that the heading of section 25F leaves no doubt that the observation of the provisions thereof is a condition precedent to retrenchment of a workman to whom the section applies. Therefore, in my view that analogy will not apply to the present case which is admittedly one under section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act. Even assuming that it applies, there is no evidence that the Company actually tendered one month's wages in lieu of notice and the requisite compensation to each of the workmen before the retrenchment. No doubt by the notices Ext. H series the workmen were asked to collect their dues from the Cashier at 5 p.m. on 31st August 1960 or at any time during working hours on 1st September 1960 or any subsequent days. But curiously enough although the notice is dated 31st August 1960 it did not reach the individual workman before the alleged retrenchment was made from 1st September 1960. I have already found that the notices were not tendered personally to the workmen but they were sent by post and actually posted on 1st September 1960 to the respective addresses of the workmen. There is no evidence of personal tender of the notice of retrenchment to any of the workmen. Therefore, the management of the Company not having complied with the condition precedent to retrenchment as provided in section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, there was no valid and legal retrenchment of the workmen.

Lastly, it was urged by the Union that the Company did not send any notice of retrenchment in Form P to the Government in compliance with the provisions of section 25F(c). The Company's contention is that such notice was sent to the Government and in support a copy thereof (Ext. C) has been produced. It is not a true copy. It does not show who signed it as General Manager. It further shows that one month's wages in lieu of notice have been paid to the retrenched workmen which is absolutely incorrect. The Company made no attempt to show payment of one month's wages to any of the retrenched workmen. Then again the probable date of payment of retrenchment compensation was shown as 1 p.m. on 31st August 1960. But I have already found that not only there was no such payment but there was not an iota of evidence to show that the workmen were at all asked to collect their dues on 31st August 1960. On the contrary, it has already been found that the workmen were asked by the notice (Ext. H series) to collect their dues which notice was actually posted by the management not before 1st September 1960, i.e., the date of retrenchment. None of the Company's witnesses has uttered a word about the personal communication of the order of retrenchment or personal tender of the wages or the amount of compensation on 1st September 1960 not to speak of before that date. The Company has no doubt produced a copy of the notice in Form P (Ext. C). But there is no satisfactory evidence of actual despatch of such a notice to the Government. The evidence on this point is that of the Company's witness No. 3 Shri T. P. Jha who had to admit that there is nothing to show that the said notice in Form P was actually despatched to the Labour Commissioner. However, such an omission is not fatal. It does not amount to illegality but at best an irregularity which can be waived. This view finds support in a decision of the Madras High Court reported in 1961 Vol. II, L.L.J., page 727.

The net result of the above findings is that the retrenchments of the workmen are not justified. They are entitled to reinstatement if not already reinstated. It has transpired during the hearing of the case that just a few of the workmen have been taken back to employment by the Company but in view of my findings not only they are entitled to reinstatement but they are also entitled to wages for the entire period of their forced unemployment, which period may be treated as period of leave for the purpose of continuity of service.

This is my award.

Present:

Shri P. M. LAHIRI, Judge.

Appearances:

For the Company: Shri Saroj Kanti Basu.

For the Union: Shri Panchanan Bhattacharjee, President of the Union.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by order No. 3952-I.R.|IR|13L-8|57, dated the 27th July 1960, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the abovementioned dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication with subsequent corrigendum No. 4703-I.R.|IR|13L-8|59, dated the 6th September 1960.

This dispute was previously referred to the First Labour Court by G.O. No. 1057-I.R.|IR|13L-8|59, dated the 17th March 1959, for adjudication which has been replaced by the Sixth Industrial Tribunal constituted under notification No. 3115-I.R.|IR|3A-6|59, dated the 21st June 1960, and has in consequence been abolished by notification No. 3508-I.R.|IR|3A-9|59, dated the 11th July 1960.

The Schedule

Whether the dismissal of Shri Sachindra Nath Bose is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

This reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act is in respect of dismissal of Shri Sachindra Nath Bose (hereinafter referred to as Shri Bose), an employee of Messrs. Indian Publicity Bureau Private Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company).

The dispute was raised by the Everett Hansa Employees' Union of 104 Raja Dinendra Street, Calcutta-4 (hereinafter called the Union).

The case of the Union is that Shri Bose was appointed a clerk of the Company on 4th March 1955, that he tried to form a union and organise the workmen in June 1958, that then in July 1958 he was asked verbally by the management to take up the whole work of the production department and that when Shri Bose demanded higher pay nothing was done by the management. It is further stated that certain charges were concocted resulting in the dismissal of Shri Bose and this action was a glaring instance of victimisation and unfair labour practice. It is claimed that the workman should be reinstated with all his back wages.

The case came up for hearing on 22nd October 1962. No one appeared for the Company at the time of hearing and the Union examined the workman under reference who gave his evidence in Court. An officer of the Company came on 25th October 1962 and wanted permission to make certain submissions. The President of the Union Shri Panchanan Bhattacharjee was present in Court and both Shri Bhattacharjee and an officer representing the Company were permitted to submit arguments in respect of the merits of the case. The case made out by the Company at the time of argument was that the workman under reference was appointed an employee of the Company in 1955, that since then he had been granted increment of pay, but as he started neglecting his duties from the middle of 1958 and as he became unfit on medical grounds to give any useful work and remained absent from duty for a long period, the Company was compelled to terminate his services. It is submitted that it is an individual dispute and not an industrial dispute in view of the fact that employees of the Company have no union of their own and the Everett Hansa Employees' Union had no authority or locus standi to raise the dispute on behalf of the workman under reference.

Decision

It appears from the series of letters written by both the Company and the workman under reference to each other that the workman under reference was given two increments of salary during the course of his service, that since the middle of 1958 the workman went on leave on two occasions and one of the medical certificates show that he was suffering from nervous debility (vide Ext. 3-a). The other medical certificate (Ext. 3-c) shows that he was also suffering from Mucous Colitis and Gastric trouble. So, according to the medical certificates, the worker was in such a bad state of health that he could not render useful service to the Company. The Company, therefore, had every justification to terminate his services.

Regarding the question whether it is an individual dispute or an industrial dispute, it is submitted by the Company that the case of the workman under reference was not taken up by the workers of the Company and that being the case, it is only an individual dispute and not an industrial dispute. The Union, on the other hand, submits that 4 or 5 workers of the Company including the workman under reference approached Shri Panchanan Bhattacharjee, President of the Everett Hansa Employees' Union, and made a request to him. P.W. 1 Shri Bose said in his evidence that the workers of the Company could not form a Union, that he did not know Shri Panchanan Bhattacharjee, but 4 or 5 of them went to Shri Bhattacharjee and made a request to him. It is not stated what request was made to Shri Bhattacharjee. It might be either for the purpose of helping them to form a union or it might have been to request him to take up the case of the workman under reference, but it must be said that the evidence is not clear enough to justify a finding that 4 or 5 workers of the Company including the workman under reference verbally authorised Shri Panchanan Bhattacharjee, President of the Everett Hansa Employees' Union, to take up the case of Shri Bose. I cannot therefore depend on the uncorroborated testimony of P.W. 1 Shri Bose that 4 or 5 of the workers of the Company including himself verbally authorised the President of the Everett Hansa Employees' Union to raise the dispute in respect of the dismissal of the workman under reference. The onus is upon the Union to prove that a valid authorisation by a large body of the workers of the Company was made to the Everett Hansa Employees' Union to raise the dispute in respect of the dismissal of Shri Bose. Although the evidence was ex parte it was still necessary in the interest of justice to prove conclusively that a verbal authorisation of a large number of workers of the Company was made to the President of the Everett Hansa Employees' Union. The Union should have examined at least another worker of the Company who personally knew the President of the said Union or should have examined the President of the Union to support the case of Shri Bose. I have already said that the workman under reference did not personally know Shri Panchanan Bhattacharjee, President of the Everett Hansa Employees' Union. I am therefore unable to depend upon the uncorroborated testimony of P.W. 1 that a large body of workers of the Company verably authorised the said Union to raise the dispute in respect of the dimissal of Shri Bose by the management of the Company. This being the case, I cannot but hold that it is an individual dispute and not an industrial dispute. The reference is therefore not maintainable and the worker is not entitled to any relief. This is my award.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNOR, WEST BENGAL

NOTIFICATION

No. 5864S.—3rd December 1962.—The Governor is pleased to award the "Dr. Harendra Coomar Mookerjee Silver Medal" for the year 1961 to the undermentioned person for the outstanding act of courage and self-sacrifice:—

Name and address of the person

Shri Deb Das Mukherjee, Constable, Calcutta Police.

Statement of the act performed for which the decoration has been awarded

At about 3-30 a.m. on 24th November 1961, a fire broke out in a printing press styled as "Diamond Printing House", situated in a two-storied bustee hut on Goabagan Street, Calcutta. On receiving information, a Police party rushed to the spot and found the printing press burning. Shri Balai Ch. Ghosh, a deaf old man, who was the father of the proprietor of the press, was trapped there. As there was no way to get inside the blazing press, constable Deb Das Mukherjee of the Police party, climbed an adjacent hut and jumped on the first floor verandah of the press and dragged Shri Ghosh from the devastating fire. As all the outlets were closed due to fire, the constable made an attempt to come down with Shri Ghosh on his back when the Fire Brigade reached the spot. Shri Ghosh was then brought down the help of Fire Brigade ladder. The Fire Brigade Officers extinguished the fire, but the press was burnt down.

In rescuing Shri Ghosh from the midst of fire under hazardous circumstances, constable Shri Deb Das Mukherjee performed an act of outstanding gallantry at a great personal risk.

THE WEST BENGAL FINANCIAL CORPORATION

(Incorporated under the State Financial Corporation Act, 1951 (LXIII of 1951))

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 4 of the State Financial Corporations Act, 1951 (LXIII of 1951), the Board of Directors of the West Bengal Financial Corporation, after consultation with the Reserve Bank of India, and with the previous approval of the Government of West Bengal, is pleased to make the following amendments in the West Bengal Financial Corporation General Regulations, 1955, published at pages 237-260 in Part I of the "Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary", dated the 26th February 1955:—

Amendment

The existing Regulation 28(ii) of the General Regulations of the West Bengal Financial Corporation be substituted by the following revised Regulation 28(ii):—

A declaration by the Chairman of a general meeting that a resolution has been carried or rejected thereat upon a show of hands by those shareholders, who are entitled to vote on the resolution, shall be conclusive, and an entry to that effect in the book of proceedings of the Corporation shall be sufficient evidence of that fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, such resolution, unless immediately on such declaration a poll be demanded in writing by -

(a) at least three shareholders having the right to vote on the resolution and present in person or by proxy, or

(b) any shareholder or shareholders present in person or by proxy having not less than one-tenth of the total voting power in respect of the resolution, or

(c) by the authorised representative of the State Government: Provided that a demand for a poll may be withdrawn at any time by the person or persons who made the demand.

By order of the Board of Directors of the West Bengal Financial Corporation,

M. K. ADHIKARI,

Managing Director.

DIRECTORATE OF COMMERCIAL TAXES WEST BENGAL

NOTIFICATION

No. 17744/1C.T.—19th November 1962.—Shri Dilip Kumar Sircar, Commercial Tax Officer, Grade II, of C. S. Charge, was granted earned leave for twenty-seven days from 15th October 1962 to 10th November 1962, under rule 167(a)(i) of the West Bengal Service Rules, Part I.

S. K. BOSE, Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT AND PANCHAYATS

ORDERS

No., 7856/M.3B-14/62. — 13th November 1962. — Whereas, in the opinion of the Governor, the condition of indebtedness of the Kamarhati municipality in the district of 24-Parganas is such as to make the control of the State Government over its budget desirable;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by section 116 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932 (Bengal Act XV of 1932), the Governor is hereby pleased to declare that such is the case and to direct that the budget of the said municipality shall be subject to the sanction of the Commissioner of the Presidency Division, Calcutta, being the officer to whom it shall be submitted under the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 113A of the said Act, and that the power to vary or alter the budget under sub-section (3) of the said section 113A shall be subject to the condition prescribed by sub-rule (4) of rule 27, read with clause (c) of rule 27B of the Bengal Municipal Account Rules.

By order of the Governor,

A. K. DATTA, Jt. Secy.

No. 8170/M.1M-121/62.—27th November 1962.—Whereas at a special meeting convened on the 6th September 1962 by the Additional District Magistrate, 24-Parganas, under sub-section (3) of section 61 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1932 (Bengal Act XV of 1932). which was attended by all the twenty-three commissioners of the South Suburban Municipality in the district of 24-Parganas holding office for the time being, a resolution was carried by thirteen votes to ten for the removal of Shri Ramendra Nath Roy from his office as the Chairman of the said municipality;

And whereas the number of commissioners who gave their votes in favour of the said resolution is less than two-thirds of the total number of commissioners of the said municipality holding office for the time being but more than half the number of such commissioners;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred by the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 61 of the said Act, the Governor is pleased to remove Shri Ramendra Nath Roy from his office as Chairman of the said municipality.

By order of the Governor,

A. K. DATTA, Jt. Secy.

NOTIFICATIONS

ORDERS

No. 5896I.R./IR/8L-21/62.—20th October 1962.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 3702I.R./IR/8L-21/62, dated the 21st August 1962, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Bharat Woollen Mill Ltd. (No. 2), 4 Shyama Prosad Mukherjee Road, P. O. Belghoria, district 24-Parganas, having their Head Office at 11 Esplanade East, Calcutta-1, and their workmen represented by Bharat Woollen Mills (No. 2) Labour Union, 64 Feeder Road, P.O. Belghoria, 24-Parganas, regarding the issues mentioned in the said order being matters specified in the second schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the First Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said First Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

BEFORE THE FIRST INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

Present:

Shri S. N. GUHA ROY, Judge,
First Industrial Tribunal.

In this reference under section of the Industrial Disputes Act made by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Dpeartment, order No. 3702I.R./IR/8L-21/62, dated the 21st August 1962, of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Bharat Woollen Mills Ltd. (No. 2) and their workmen represented by Bharat Woollen Mills (No. 2) Labour Union, the only issues are—

(1) Whether the strike by the workers from 21st June 1962 is justified. To what relief, if any, are the workers entitled?

(2) Whether the dismissal of the following workmen, namely, Sarbasree Samsul Haque, Ganga, Samsuddin, Ramji Pandey, Bengali, Trinath Pattanayak, Badri Jha, Rana Singh, Trinath Saha, Tarakanta Jha, Rajdeo Mishra and Dubnath is justified? To what relief, if any, are they entitled?

The parties in due course were called upon to file their written statements, but without filing written statements the parties filed on the 14th of September 1962, a joint petition stating that the issues under the reference had been settled by compromise between the parties long before the date of reference and the terms of settlement would be found in the agreement, dated 9th July 1962, annexed to the petition. I heard the representatives of the parties after they had filed this petition and I have no doubt that the dispute was completely settled between the parties by an agreement, dated the 9th July 1962. The reference was made on the 21st of August 1962. Clearly then, there was no dispute between the parties on the date of the reference. Of course I find that the settlement does not deal with the question whether the strike is justified and if the workmen are entitled to any relief. But this much is clear that the workmen agreed to give up the stay-in strike and start work with immediate effect. It further appears that the 12 workmen who were dismissed were reinstated on tendering apology to the employer. It is quite clear from the terms of the settlement that those were the terms of a complete settlement of the dispute so that there was no occasion for the State Government for making this reference. As a matter of fact it had no jurisdiction to make this reference when there was in fact no dispute at all. In these circumstances the Tribunal has no option but to reject this reference and does reject it on the ground that it was made without jurisdiction because the dispute between the parties had been settled more than a month before the reference. A copy of the joint petition filed before me together with the annexed terms of settlement is made a part of this order.

Bharat Woollen Mills Ltd (No. 2 Mill), Belghoria.

Short recital of the case: The workmen of the Spinning Department deliberately went slow for the last few months when the management on 30th May 1962 entered into an Agreement with the Bharat Woollen Mills (No. 2) Labour Union which represented the employees. The Agreement failed to achieve its object of restoring production to its normal level. After the Agreement there was further drop in the production and some of the staff of the Spinning Department defied the authority of the departmental overseers and openly incited their co-workers to go slow. The management having issued a notice of warning on 21st June 1962 the workmen resorted to stay-in strike on 21st June 1962 which is contnuing to date.

The Director of the Company today saw a deputation of workmen headed by Janab Md. Ismail, the President of the Bharat Woollen Mills (No. 2) Labour Union, and the following settlement was effected.

Terms of settlement dated 9th July 1962: (1) The workmen of the Spinning Department will give up the stay-in strike and start work with immediate effect.

(2) On their tendering apology in terms of the attached letter the twelve dismissed workmen will be reinstated.

(3) The average production of the spinning as given between the period 20th April 1962 to 5th May 1962 is agreed to represent the normal production which, the Labour Union ensues, will be maintained by the workmen of the Spinning Department.

(4) Any genuine unforseen difficulty arising in the matter of production will be settled by a Production Committee at the local level.

(5) The Labour Union will discourage any kind of indiscipline in the Mill.

AWARD

The above dispute over the issues given in the order of reference and reproduced below was referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2698-I.R./IR/15L-11(A)62, dated the 21st June 1962.

Issues

(1) Whether non-supply by the management, free of charge, of coal and mustard oil to those workmen who live outside the Factory premises is justified? What relief, if any, these workmen are entitled to?

(2) Whether the dismissal of Shri Audh Narayan Missir is justified? What relief, if any, is he entitled to?

After service of notices of this reference upon the parties, they appeared before this Tribunal. The Union first filed its written statement on 16th August 1962. Thereafter, 27th August 1962 was fixed for filing written statement by the Company. But, in the meantime, on 21st August 1962 the Union filed a petition stating that the dispute had been amicably settled between the parties and praying that the case might be disposed of by a 'no dispute' award. This petition was somehow mislaid and not filed with the record. The Company took some adjournments for filing its written statement and 3rd October 1962 was finally fixed for filing written statement by the Company. On that date, the Union filed a fresh petition stating that the dispute had been amicably settled and praying for a 'no dispute' award. No written statement was filed by the Company. The Union's previous petition, dated 21st August 1962, was found out on 3rd October 1962. There was no objection from the side of the Company against the petitions of the Union for a 'no dispute' award on the ground that the dispuate had been amicably settled. In the aforesaid circumstances, I hold that the dispute under reference has been amicably settled between the parties and so the dispute has ceased to exist. Consequently, the case is to be disposed of by a 'no dispute' award.

In the result, I make a 'no dispute' award in the case.

And whereas on appeal filed against the award made by the said Fifth Industrial Tribunal on the aforesaid industrial dispute, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India sent back the case on remand for rehearing in so far as it related to the issue regarding bonus for the year 1958;

And whereas the said Fifth Industrial Tribunal heard the case on merit and submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute in so far as it related to the issue regarding bonus for the year 1958;

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Bongaon Electric Supply Co. Ltd. (Managing Agents : Messrs. R. N. BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

For the Company: Shri S. K. Bhattacharjee and Shri A. K. Sarkar, Officers of the Association of Manufacturers & Traders.

For the Union: Shri Panchanan Bhattacharjee.

The Government of West Bengal by its Labour Department Order No. 1387-I.R./IR/10L-53/59, dated 7th April 1959, referred to this Tribunal an industrial dispute between Messrs. Bongaon Electric Supply Co. Ltd. (Managing Agents: Messrs. R. N. Chatterjee & Co.), 135 Canning Street, Calcutta-1 (hereafter referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by the Bongaon Electric Supply Workers' Union, 35B Wellington Street, Calcutta-13 (hereafter referred to as the Union), for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The following issues have been referred to this Tribunal for adjudication in this case:

1. Wages and scales of pay.
2. Dearness allowance.
3. Introduction of provident fund scheme.
4. Confirmation in service.
5. Bonus for the year 1958.
6. Whether the Company is justified in terminating the services of Shri Manick Chand Kundu? Is he entitled to reinstatement and/or compensation?

AWARD

At the very outset, I may mention that I am not required to adjudicate upon all the above issues any longer, because five out of these six issues have already been finally decided. .This case has rather a chequered career. The reference is dated the 7th of April 1959 and these industrial disputes were first heard by my predecessor-in-office Shri G. Kumar and he gave an award after contested hearing on all the issues of this reference. The Company felt aggrieved by the above decision and sought special leave of the Hon'ble Supreme Court for filing an appeal against the award. The special leave granted to the Company by the Hon'ble Court was, however, limited only to that part of the award which dealt with the workmen's claim for bonus for the year 1958. The appellant succeded in its appeal regarding additional bonus in dispute for the simple reason that in awarding additional bonus the learned adjudicator made no attempt at all to work out the Full Bench Formula. In allowing the apepal, the Hon'ble Court observes: "it is well settled that in determining workmen's claim for bonus under the Full Bench Formula, available surplus has to be ascertained, and for ascertaining the said available surplus the employer's claim for prior charges has necessarily to be investigated". So, the Hon'ble Court set aside the previous ward on issue No. 5 and sent the case back to this Tribunal for disposal in accordance with law.

Thus I am now called upon to adjudicate on the issue No. 5 alone. The other items of dispute have already been adjudicated upon finally, and the Supreme Court also saw no reason for interference with that part of the award which dealt with the five other items. Issue No. 5 is "Bonus for the year 1958". The fact is that for the year 1958 the Company voluntarily paid its employees 15 days' wages by way of bonus. The employees claimed additional bonus, but the Company failed to accept this demand and hence this item of dispute.

From what I have mentioned above, it is sufficiently clear that the claim for the disputed bonus has to be determined in accordance with the Full Bench Formula which presupposes ascertainment of available surplus after providing for the prior charges of the Company. I need not discuss at length what are the principles of the said Full Bench Formula. The formula is too well known by now and the law on the point is also more or less well settled. The formula was originally evolved by the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal wh deciding a bonus dispute between Mill Owne Association, Bombay, and Rastriya Mill Mazdo Sangha reported in 1950 L. L. J., page 1247. T formula has since been accepted, explained a elucidated by the Supreme Court in its vario decisions including that of famous A. C. C. ca reported in A.I.R. 1959 (S.C.). Bonus especial profit sharing bonus, is primarily intended to cov the gap, fully or partly, between the standard living wages and the actual wages paid by tl employers to their employees or workmen. It nobody's case before me that the wages paid by tl Company to the present workmen attained tl standard of living wages. It is needless to add th in most of the industrial concerns of our counti living wages will remain an ideal for many mo years to come. So, without entering into the dispu as to whether the claim for bonus will be mai tainable even after the attainment of living wag standard, I may at once observe that the prese workmen can no doubt claim bonus if the asce tained available surplus is sufficient to met the claim. The next prerequisite for the claim of bonu is that the Company must earn some net profit an the workmen must contribute to this earning o profit, if any. For this purpose, the balance-shee and the profit and loss account (hereafter referred t as P/L Account) of the Company must be take as the basis, unless the same be shown as quit undependable for some cogent reasons. The Com pany is a Public Limited one and its balance-shee and P/L Account have been produced before thi Tribunal (vide Ext. H). .The workmen have shown no reason whatsoever why the balance-sheet and P/L Account should not be accepted as correct. The balance-sheet shows a net profit of Rs. 1,893 only for the year under consideration—the year under consideration being 1957-58 ending 31st March 1958. The profits must have been earned by the joint efforts of the labour and the capital. According to the Full Bench Formula, for ascertaining the available surplus the Tribunal has first to ascertain the gross profits of the year and then meet and deduct the prior charges of the Company in respect of the year from the gross profits assessed. Bonus may be paid out of the available surplus only after meeting the Company's prior charges. Accordingly both parties were called upon to submit their calculations of available surplus, if any, and the Company has filed its calculation. The workmen, however, have not filed any calculation for the purpose, though the balance-sheet and the P/L Account of the Company for the year were made available to them in time. In fact, after the remand the case, the workmen have not adduced any oral documentary evidence before this Tribunal. Some al and documentary evidences were no doubt duced by them before my predecessor-in-office. it those evidences throw no light on the validity or undness of their claim for additional bonus. So, r convenience of discussion, I quote below the tire calculation of available surplus submitted on half of the Company.

Available surplus Nil

Now let me see how far the calculation submitted the Company can be accepted. I have already own that the balance-sheet and P/L Account go challenged and so the same must form the basis this calculation. The P/L Account shows a net ofit of Rs. 1,893 only. The Company in its lculation has added back contingency reserve, preciation charges, preliminary expenses written , development expenses written off and deposit of lk supply written off for ascertaining the gross ofits. As the depreciation is an item of prior arge under the Full Bench Formula and as I all have to ascertain this item of prior charge io while considering the Company's claim of ior charges, the amount actually charged to the venue as depreciation in the P/L Account may be provisionally added back for the purpose of ascertainment of gross profits. But I have great doubt as to whether the other items of add backs (shown by the Company in the above calculation) should at all be added back for the purpose. If these other items of appropriations can be legitimately treated as necessary business expenses or valid revenue expenditure of the year or compulsorily deductable amounts under the law, the same cannot be or should not be added back for finding the gross profits of the year under consideration. The name of the Company shows that this concern has been incorporated for supply of electricity and is thus governed by the provisions of a Special Act—the Electricity (Supply) Act of 1948. So, in applying Full Bench Formula, the provisions of the Act cannot be ignored. The sixth schedule and the seventh schedule to the Act lay down certain special principles to be followed by the Electric Supply Companies. The sixth schedule provides for "financial principles and their application" while the seventh schedulue provides for "depreciation of assets". The clause IV(1) of Sch. VI read with section 57 of the Act directs that "the licensee shall appropriate to contingencies reserve from the revenues of each year of account a sum not less than one quarter of one per cent and not more than one half of one per cent. of the original cost of fixed assets". It is also provided that the violation of this direction may entail penalty for the Company. Thus appropriation of statutory contengency reserve is compulsory and the Company has no option. So, a proper amount under this heading must be charged to the revenue of the year and should be treated as business expenses. In the present case, the Company has charged Rs. 741 only for this purpose, and if the amount does not exceed the statutory limit, it should be charged to the revenue. Schedule of fixed assets of the Company (Ext. H) will show that the original cost of the fixed assets was Rs. 2,83,270 plus Rs. 17,841=Rs. 3,01,111. Thus the amount appropriated to contingency reserve has not exceeded the statutory limit. Rather, only the minimum under the law has been so appropriated. So, I think, this amount must be charged to the revenue and should not be added back for assessing gross profit. The other items of add backs are certain amounts actually written off during the year. The question is whether they should be added for determining the gross profits. As the balance-sheet and the P/L Account stand, there cannot be any doubt that these items have been actually written off and charged to the revenue of the year with the approval of the shareholders and directors. The question is whether these items can be treated as revenue expenditures. These disputed items relate to preliminary expenses, development expenses and deposit for bulk supply. In the words of J. R. Batliboi, prelimenary expenses or formation expenses are initial expenses incurred in connection with the formation of a public Company and the obtaining of the share capital. These expenses although revenue in their nature are allowed to be capitalised and can be shown as an asset in the balance-sheet under the Indian as well as the English Companies Act. Similarly, all expenses during the period of development and up to the time they begin to earn are called development expenses and may be charged to capital. There is nothing, however, to prevent their being written off against profits over a period of years and it would be sound and prudent to do so, provided there are sufficient profits to write these off. "Similarly, deposit for bulk supply is a sort of deferred revenue expenditure. Where heavy expenditure of a revenue nature is incurred, the benefit of which is likely to extend beyond the year in which it takes place, it is customary and legitimate to allow such an expenditure to be temporarily capitalised and to be spread equally over a number of years for which it is anticipated the benefit would be enjoyed by the business. It need hardly to be stated, however, that as to what number of years the whole amount should be written off will depend on the circumstances attaching to each particular case."

Thus the said three items of expenditures were really revenue in nature and yet were capitalised temporarily and shown on the asset side of the balance-sheet (vide Ext. H). The expenses are, however, being written off in small amounts against profits year to year according to the established rules of accountancy. The Company and the share-holders think that the amounts shown in P/L Account in this respect (debit side) can be safely written off against the profits of the year. There is no case or evidence on the side of the workmen to show that the Company did it mala fide in order to deprive unjustifiably the workmen of their due share of available surplus, and that the period of spreadover is too short. In this view of the matter, the amounts written off should be treated as revenue expenditure in nature. So, my considered opinion is that none of these three items should be added for ascertaining gross profits for bonus purposes. Hence the gross profit should be as follows:

		Rs
Net profit	...	1,893
Depreciation	...	8,206
Total gross profits	...	10,099

So, out of the above amount of gross profit, the Company's demand for prior charges must be met. I have already mentioned that the Seventh Schedule of the Act lays down rules for calculation of depreciation and in fact Ext. H shows how the calculation has been made. It is nobody's case that this calculation is not in accordance with the said Schedule. So, without further discussion, I find that the Company is entitled to deduct from gross profits Rs. 8,206 as decpreciation charge according to the existing law. The Company is eititled to deduct some amount as income-tax payable on the profits and the claim on this item of prior charge will come to Rs. 850 roughly. The paid up capital of the Company amounts to Rs. 94,000 and the return thereon at 6 per cent. comes to Rs. 5,840. There is, however, no evidence to show that the reserve fund, if any, of the Company was actually utilised as working capital of the business during the year or any part of the year under consideration. In this view of the matter, the Company is not entitled to claim any return on working capital. There is also no proper evidence to show that the Company is entitled to extra rehabilitation charges for the year in addition to the depreciation charges already allowed for the year. There is no evidence as to the multiplier being above unit. The divisor is provided in the Schedule VII of the Act, and no other evidence is adduced in this respect. So, there is no reason to hold that the claim for additio rehabilitation charges is maintainable in the pres case. Nevertheless, the fact remains that the amou of total gross profits is too small to meet all t prior charges shown above which can justly claimed for the year. Moreover, in spite of t above financial position, the Company has alrea paid 15 days' wages by way of bonus and t amount has not been shown in the P/L Accou So the question of further surplus being availab for additional bonus does not arise at all. So, t claim for bonus for 1958 falls.

This is my award.

The case is taken up for hearing. Parties are present. Shri S. K. Ganguly, Secretary to the Union, appears for the Union and opens the case. Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate, with Shri Rabin Mazumdar, Advocate, appears for the Company and Shri Sen opens the case of the Company.

The learned Advocate for the Company submits that the Company never passed any order of dismissal of any of the workers under reference although the Company decided to dismiss the workmen. The Secretary of the Union admits that the Company did not pass any order of dismissal of any workman. The reference made by the Government is to adjudicate upon the following issue:

Whether the management was justified in dismissing the 60 workers mentioned in the reference.

Both the Secretary of the Union and the Company's Advocate submit that there is no such dispute as contemplated by the Order of Reference. It is submitted by both the parties that this reference is not legally maintainable and that the Union will be at liberty to move the appropriate authorities after the Company passes orders dismissing the workmen under reference. I am also of opinion that this reference is not maintainable as there being no dismissal of any workman no dispute relating to a dismissal can be said to exist.

The reference is, therefore, disposed of as not maintainable. Parties are not entitled to any relief and the parties to bear their own costs.

And

In the matter of Government of West Bengal, Labour Department Order of Reference No. 4114-I.R.|IR|4L-32|60, dated the 4th August 1960.

The humble petition of compromise of the Union and management abovenamed—

Most respectfully sheweth:

1. That the dispute under the present Order of Reference has been settled out of Court on the terms hereunder—

(a) That the Management agrees to pay a lump sum amount of Rs. 250 only to Sarvasri (1) Md. Ismail, (2) Balai Senapati, (3) Sridhar Jha and (4) Lachman Jha, the persons named in the present order of reference in full and final settlement of all their claims including that of reinstatement or re-employment.

(b) That this compromise will not set any precedent for future in other matters of such disputes and will not operate to the prejudice to the other matters of similar disputes where this Union is a party and without prejudice to the rights of the Union under any agreement including agreement, dated 4th December 1950.

(c) That on the persistent entreaties of the Union the management without prejudice to its rights have agreed to verbally request their existing employees that if they so desire they can take up the membership of the said Union.

(d) That the payments as per clause (a) above will be effected on 23rd October 1962 before this Hon'ble Tribunal and in case any of the recipient is absent, Shri Madan Saha, Advocate on behalf of the Union, will collect the same from the management and the receipt so granted by him will mean full discharge of the liabilities of the management under this compromise.

(e) That this settles the dispute under present order of reference fully and finally and the persons named in the present order of reference shall have hereafter no other or further claims of whatever kind against the said management.

It is therefore prayed that this Hon'ble Tribunal be pleased to pass the award in this matter of present reference in terms of this compromise petition.

And for this act of kindness, the petitioners, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

Messrs. South Alliance Jute Mills Co. Ltd., Jagatdal, 24-Parganas—Applicant versus

Shri Raghunath Sha, Jagatdal, Beharapara Road, 24-Parganas—Opposite Party.

AWARD

These are two applications, one under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed by the workman Raghunath Sha against his employer Messrs. South Alliance Jute Mills Company Ltd. (hereinafter be referred to as the Company) and the other under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act filed by the said Company against the same workman.

The Company has applied for approval of the order of dismissal passed against the workman on 3rd February 1962. On the other hand, the workman has lodged a complaint against the concern alleging that the Company has wrongfully dismissed him without holding proper enquiry and has contravened the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

At the request of the parties and for the sake of convenience the two cases have been tried analogously. On the eve of hearing of the cases both parties expressed a desire to settle up the dispute amicably and asked for an adjournment to effect a settlement. A short adjournment was given for the purpose. I am happy to note that the parties have successfully achieved the desired result and the matter has been satisfactorily settled by mutual discussion and adjustment.

Both parties have now filed bofore this Tribunal a joint petition of compromise embodying therein the terms of settlement. I must note with satisfaction that the Company has agreed to take back the workman Raghunath Sha in its employment from the date he will report for duties to the Company immediately after the necessary order is passed in this case by this Tribunuai. The Company has further agreed to pay to the said workman ex-gratia amount equivalent to two months' wages (basic pay and D. A.) for the entire period of his unemployment. I find the aforesaid terms very fair and reasonable. So, I accept them and accordingly dispose of the workman's complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act against the Company on compromise. The joint petition of compromise filed by the parties on 2nd November 1962 do form part of this award as Annexure.

In view of the compromise just recorded the Company's application under section 33(2)(b) stands rejected as no longer pressed.

I must thank the parties and their representatives and congratulate them for their successful effort to end the dispute peacefully, specially at this juncture of our country when we need co-operation and mutual understanding most to stand solidly against the foreign invasion of our mother land.

This is my award.

And

In the matter of an application under section 33A filed by Shri Raghunath Sha—Applicant against Messrs. South Alliance Jute Mills Co. Ltd.—Opposite Party.

The humble petition of both Messrs. South Alliance Jute Mills Co. Ltd. (hereinafter to be mentioned as the Company) and Shri Raghunath Sha mentioned above.

Most respectfully sheweth:

1. In the above matter both the parties have come to an amicable settlement as follows:

(a) That the Company will take back Shri Raghunath Sha in its employment but the period of his unemployment will be treated as Dies Non, i.e., he will be considered in employment but will not receive any wages for the said period. The Company, however, will pay him an ex-gratia amount equivalent to two months' wages (basic pay and dearness allowance) for the entire period of his unemployment.

(b) That Shri Raghunath Sha will have no further claim against the Company for the period of his unemployment either in the shape of wages or remunerations as festival or leave wages or any other amount in any other shape or form except the amount mentioned hereinbefore.

2. That Shri Raghunath Sha will be taken back from the date when he will report for duties to the Company after the necessary orders are passed by this Tribunal on this application of settlement.

3. Under the circumstances it is humbly prayed that your honour will be graciously pleased to approve the terms of this application and to dispose of the two applications in terms thereof.

And to pass such other order or orders as your honour may deem fit and proper.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by Order No. 4111-I.R./IR/11L-137/59, dated the 4th August 1960, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the abovementioned dispute for adjudication to this Tribunal.

This dispute was previously referred to the First Labour Court by G. O. No. 446-I.R./IR/11L-651/57, dated 6th February 1958, for its adjudication which has been replaced by the Sixth Industrial Tribunal constituted under notification No. 3115-I.R./IR/3A-9/59, dated the 21st June 1960, and has in consequence been abolished by notification No. 3508-I.R./IR/3A-9/59, dated 11th July 1960.

The Schedule

1. Whethere the dismissal of Shri Jamuna Barui is justified? To what relief is he entitled?

2. Whether the discharge of Shri Charan Singh is justified? To what relief is he entitled?

This reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act was originally in respect of dismissal of two workmen—(1) Shri Jamuna Barui and (2) Shri Charan Singh. The reference was first made to the First Labour Court and after the First Labour Court was abolished in April 1960 a new reference was made to this Tribunal for disposal of the matter.

The workmen are represented by the West Bengal Flour Mills Labour Union. At the time of hearing, it was submitted by the Union that the dispute between the Company and Shri Jamuna Barui may not be heard as the Union will not contest the case on behalf of the worker Jamuna Barui. The hearing will be only in respect of the dispute between the Company and Shri Charan Singh (hereinafter referred to as Shri Singh). It is the case of the Union that Shri Singh was appointed a carpenter by the Company in December 1952, that he was made permanent some time by the end of 1955, but his services were suddenly terminated by the Company by a notice, dated 4th November 1957. He was not charge-sheeted for any misconduct and no enquiry was held against him. There was a Union of workers called the West Bengal Flour Mills Mazdoor Congress, but as Shri Singh and some other workers of the Company formed a new Union, the Company suddenly terminated the services of Shri Singh. It is alleged that the termination of employment of Shri Singh was not justified and that it was a clear case of victimisation. The Union claims that Shri Singh be reinstated with all his back wages.

The Company apperaed and filed a written statement. The learned lawyer appearing for the Company submits that only the dispute between the Company and Shri Singh may be proceeded with as there is no dispute now pending between the Company and Shri Jamuna Barui.

It is the case of the Company that Shri Singh was appointed a temporary carpenter for a particular work and that his services were terminated after that work had been completed by him some time in the first part of November 1957. The Company denies that Shri Singh was ever a permanent employee of the Company.

Decision

It is contended by the Company that this reference which was originally made to the First Labour Court could not again be referred to this Tribunal, and the reference is, therefore, incompetent and not maintainable. The fact is that the First Labour Court was abolished some time in April 1960. The disputes pending before the First Labour Court remained pending although the Court was abolished. This being the case, the Government was left with no option but to refer the disputes to this Tribunal for adjudication. In my opinion, the Government was competent to make a further reference, and the reference is maintainable.

It is admittedly a fact that Shri Singh was appointed a carpenter by the Company at the end of 1952 and that his services were terminated in November 1957. P. W. 1 Shri Singh says that he was dismissed from service in view of the fact that he became the Assistant Secretary of the newly formed Union. He alleges that after he had been appointed a carpenter the Company employed three Chinese carpenters and that these Chinese carpenters are junior to him in service and that although his services were terminated in November 1957 the three Chinese carpenters junior to him in service are still being retained by the Company. He further alleges that since his appointment he worked as a temporary workman for three years after which he was made permanent and that since he was made permanent, deductions from his wages for Provident Fund contributions were made regularly by the Company. This fact that contributions for Provident Fund were deducted from his wages every month is admitted by O. P. W. 1 Shri Phani Bhusan Bose. This witness further says that there were some carpenters from whose monthly wages Provident Fund deductions were not made as these workers happened to be temporary workers. So, according to O. P. W. 1, no Provident Fund deductions could be made from the wages of the temporary workers and it, therefore, follows that it is only from the wages of the permanent workers that Provident Fund deductions were regularly made. It is admitted by the Company that Provident Fund contributions every month were deducted from the wages of Shri Singh. It, therefore, follows that he must have been a permanent workman of the Company. There is nothing to show from records of the Company that only as a special favour Shri Singh was permitted to make contributions to Provident Fund. The Company produces only copies of two letters said to have been written by the Company to the Secretary of the West Bengal Flour Mills Mazdoor Congress. These copies of the two letters are of the same date, i.e., 18th June 1956 and the contents are identical. By these letters the Company wants to prove that the old Union made certain representation to the Company on behalf of Shri Singh, but curiously enough, the letter said to have been written by the old Union to the Company representing the case of Shri Singh, was not produced by the Company. These so-called replies were manufactured only for the purpose of making out a case that the worker had already been informed that he was to be treated as temporary worker for a particular work for which he was employed. This is a very crude attempt to manufacture evidence to defeat the just claim of an employee of the Company. I have already found that in view of the fact that Provident Fund deductions were made only from the wages of the permanent workers (vide evidence of O.P.W. 1), this workman under reference, i.e., Shri Singh was certainly a permanent workman of the Company. There is nothing from any record of the Company kept in the regular course of business to show under what circumstances deductions from his wages for contribution to Provident Fund were made by the Company. The Company did not produce its registers or account books to support its case. I therefore, find that Shri Singh was a permanent workman of the Company.

It is admittedly a fact that no charge-sheet was given to Shri Singh and no enquiry was held against him, as there was no case of misconduct. It is the case of the workman under reference that three Chinese carpenters were appointed after him and that these three Chinese carpenters are junior to him in service, but the Company has retained their services although he (Shri Singh) being the seniormost was discharged from service. O. P. W. 1 merely said that the Chinese carpenters were senior to Shri Singh in service. I have already said that the Company has not produced the attendance registers or the account books and there is no documentary evidence on the side of the Company to prove that the three Chinese carperters working along with Shri Singh were senior to him in service The best proof has been withheld. I am of opinion that the documents have not been produced as the Company could not prove that the Chinese carpenters were senior to Shri Singh in service. I, therefore, believe P. W. 1 Shri Singh that three Chinese carpenters junior to him in service have been retained in service although he (Shri Singh) was discharged from service. It it was a case of retrenchment, the principle of "last come, first go" was not observed by the Company.

Considering all these facts and circumstances discussed above, I hold that the discharge of Shri Singh by the Company is not justified. He is, therefore, entitled to be reinstated in service. I direct that the Company shall reinstate Shri Singh in service within two months from the date of publication of the award in the Official Gazette and that the Company shall pay him fifty per cent. of his back wages.

This is my award.

AWARD

By order No. 2911-I.R.|IR|10L-102|61, dated the 5th June 1961, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Sudsons (Manufacturing) Private Ltd., 29 Jessore Road, Dum Dum, Calcutta-28, and their workmen represented by Sudsons Manufacturing Sramik Union, 543 Mandir Road, Dum Dum Cantonment, Calcutta-28, regarding the matter specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal, constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act by notification No. 808-I.R.|IR|3A-2|57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

Issue

Whether the dismissal of Shri Mukutdhari Singh is justified? To what relief, if any, is he entitled?

The reference was received from the Government for adjudication of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Sudsons (Manufacturing) Private Ltd. of 29 Jessore Road, Calcutta-28 (hereinafter be referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by Sudsons Manufacturing Sramik Union (hereinafter be referred to as the Union).

The dispute relates to dismissal of a workman Shri Mukutdhari Singh.

As usual immediately after receipt of the reference notices were served upon both parties who entered appearance and duly filed their respective written statements.

The Union's case is that the Company is a prosrous concern but it does not pay fair and adequate ages to its workmen and is quite indifferent to the ndition of the workmen in its employ. So, the workmen organised themselves under a trade union and nce the formation of the Union the Company went ry much against the organisers of the Union. ri Mukutdhari Singh who was a permanent workman took active part in the formation of the Union d became Vice-President of the Union. The Comny was very much against him because of his trade nion activities. So, with a view to victimise him e Company suddenly transferred him from the rging section of the smithy shop to the finishing ction and issued a charge-sheet against him on the lse allegation of slowing down production. The orkman replied to the charge-sheet. There was a show of enquiry without giving fair and proper opportunities to the workman and ultimately the workman was wrongfully dismissed from service from 1st July 1960. The matter was referred to the Assistant Labour Commissioner, Barrackpore, for conciliation but it was of no effect. Hence the reference.

The Company in its written statement has denied the allegations of wrongful dismissal without proper enquiry. The Company's case is that the said workman instigated a co-worker Ganesh to slow down production and on his refusal he was intimidated. Thereupon the workman was charge-sheeted for the misconduct of instigating another workman Ganesh to slow down production. He was given opportunity to explain which was not satisfactory. So, there was a domestic enquiry. As a result of the enquiry he was found guilty of the charges levelled against him. So, he was dismissed from service with effect from 1st July 1960.

The hearing of the case was delayed due to several adjournments taken by the Company without the objection of the other party. But even after taking more than half a dozens the Company ultimately did not appear to contest the case when it was actually taken on 5th November 1962. Even on the date of hearing the Company was contacted over telephone but no step was taken by the Company. So, the case had to be taken up ex parte in absence of the Company or for want of any step on their part. The Union was ready for hearing and one witness Shri Mukutdhari Singh was examined and several documents were also tendered into evidence.

P.W. 1 Mukutdhari Singh is the concerned workman. His evidence is that he was working as a black-smith in the forging section of smithy shop. Then all on a sudden in the month of May 1960 he was transferred from the forging section to the finishing section for the first time. So he was to pick up the work of that new section but the Company immediately after transferring him to the new section issued a charge-sheet against him on 16th June 1960 (Ext. 2). The workman was charge-sheeted for instigating another workman Ganesh to slow down production and also for his low and unsatisfactory production for the period from 31st May to 4th of June 1960. Exhibit 2(a) is a written explanation submitted by the said workman in which he has stated that his production was not up to the mark because of his sudden transfer to the new department where he was to pick up the work of that particular section. It also shows that the workman was transferred to work in the new department on the 31st May 1960. So his explanation was that from the very first day it was not expected of him to give as much production as is expected of an experienced hand. It seems that there is considerable force in the explanation offered. It appears from the document (Ext. 1) that the trade union was formed on the 1st of August 1959 and the concerned workman was one of the Vice-Presidents of the newly formed Union. His evidence is that he has been the Vice-President from the very formation of the trade union. So, he was not in the good book of the Company and the Company's action was by way of victimisation on account of his trade union activities. It is clear that this workman was taking active part in the trade union and he has been the Vice-President from the very beginning. The Company transferred him from the department in which he was working from the commencement of his service to another section at about the close of the month of May 1960 and he was charge-sheeted for unsatisfactory production for the period from 31st May to 4th of June 1960. So, it seems that he had no opportunity to pick up the work of the new department where he was transferred. Naturally his production is not expected to be at par with another workman who has gained some experience in the working of that particular department. So, his grievance is that the company has purposely and with a motive transferred him to a new work and immediately charge-sheeted him for insufficient production in the new department. The workman says that this was the first time he was asked to work in the forging section. On the materials available on the record it seems clear that the Company with a mala fide motive transferred the workman to a new work and charge-sheeted him for unsatisfactory production from the very commencement of his work in the new department. It also appears from the evidence of P.W. 1 that in the domestic enquiry the enquiring officer was helped by a lawyer representing the Company, whereas the workman had not only no such opportunity but even he was not allowed to examine his witnesses. He wanted to examine at least two witnesses Sreenath Singh and Ram Sundar Sharma but the enquiring officer, as stated by the witness, did not allow him to examine any witness. So, it was not a fair and proper enquiry. It seems clear from the materials on the record that the Company acted with a mala fide motive to punish the workman. It was an instance of victimisation and unfair labour practice and as such the tribunal's interference will be justified. The order of dismissal passed by the Company against the workman is unjustified and as such it cannot stand. The workman is entitled to reinstatement. So, I direct that he be reinstated immediately and he will also be given by the Company 50 per cent. of the wages and other amenities he was entitled to had he been in service for the period of his forced unemployment. This order will take effect immediately on the publication of this award in the "Calcutta Gazette".

This is my award.

AWARD

The reference was received from the Government in March 1961 for the purpose of adjudication of some industrial disputes existing between Messrs. Aryan Engineering Works Ltd., B. T. Road, Khardah, 24-Parganas (hereinafter be referred to as the Company), and their workmen represented by the Aryans Engineering Mazdoor Union (hereinafter be referred to as the Union).

Immediately after receipt of the reference notices were issued to both the parties who entered appearances in pursuance thereof and filed their respective written statements.

Just before the actual hearing of the case both parties showed their earnestness to settle up the disputes amicably and they have actually done that successfully to the satisfaction of all concerned. On this the 29th day of October 1962 both parties have filed a joint petition of compromise in which they have embodied all the terms of settlement and have prayed for an award on compromise in terms thereof.

I have heard the learned representatives of the parties and have carefully perused and considered the terms of settlement in respect of each of the items of disputes under reference. The terms have been found to be satisfactory, reasonable and lawful and so I accept them and give an award on compromise in terms of the joint petition of compromise as prayed for. The joint petition of compromise filed on 29th October 1962 do form a part of the compromise award as an annexure.

Shri J. N. MANDAL, Judge.

In the matter of an industrial dispute

Between

Messrs. Aryan Engineering Works Ltd., B. T. Road, Khardah, 24-Parganas.

And

Their workmen, represented by the Aryans Engineering Mazdoor Union, Nutan Bazar, P. O. Khardah, 24-Parganas, (vide G. O. No. 398-I.R.[IR] 10L-9/61, dated 27th January 1961.)

The humble joint petition of compromise between the Company and the Union abovenamed.

Most respectfully sheweth:

(1) That in the interest of industrial peace and better relationship between the parties, the matter is compromised on the following terms and conditions:

(a) Regarding issue Nos. 1 and 2 of the order of reference

Those workers who are getting up to Rs 2.49 nP. per day will get an ad hoc increment of Rs 10 per month. After granting the said increment, those workers whose monthly wages would fall below Rs. 55 per month will be given further increment for bringing their wages up to Rs. 55 per month. Those workers who are getting Rs. 2.50 nP. per day or above will get an ad hoc increment of Rs. 7.50 nP. per month. This increment in wages will be effective from 1st November 1962.

The workmen of Foundry Department who have been getting an ad hoc increment of 25 nP. will not be taken into calculation in granting the above increments, although the said payment will be continued.

(b) Regarding issue No. 3 of the order of reference

That the temporary workers will enjoy festival holidays and national holidays from 1st November 1962 as in force in the Company at present for the permanent workers.

That the permanent workers will get sick leave for 14 days on half pay per year. The benefit of sick leave will be withdrawn as soon as the Employees' State Insurance Act is extended in the factory.

The application for sick leave will be supported by medical certificate.

(c) Regarding issue No. 4 of the order of reference

The permanency and other service conditions of workmen will be governed by the provisions of the certified Standing Orders of the factory.

(d) Dismissal or refusal of employment of workmen named in the order of reference, issue No. 5

The Company will take back in employment with continuity of service of those workmen who will join their duties in the factory by 1st December 1962 at the latest. Those who will join by that date will also be paid one month's wages as notice pay. The period of absence will be treated as special leave without wages.

Those workmen who will not join their duties by 1st December 1962 in the factory will get retrenchment compensation and notice pay as provided in section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Your petitioners pray that your honour will be graciously pleased to accept above terms of compromise as just and fair; and pass an award making this compromise petition as annexure thereof.

And your petitioners as in duty bound shall ever pray.
